1.a.

Effective December 15, 2011, the Company issued an aggregate of 17,500 shares of common stock, $.0001 par value (the Common Stock or Shares) valued at the then current market value per share (the Securities) in consideration of marketing services.

The sale of the Securities was undertaken without registration under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act set forth in Sections 4(2) thereunder. In addition, the Securities, which were taken for investment purposes and not for resale, were subject to restrictions on transfer. We did not engage in any public advertising or general solicitation in connection with this transaction, and we provided the investor with disclosure of all aspects of our business, including providing the investor with our reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and other financial, business and corporate information. Based on our investigation, we believed that the accredited investor obtained all information regarding the Company that was requested, received answers to all questions posed and otherwise understood the risks of accepting our Securities for investment purposes.
