Section 8: Other Events.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 13, U.S. Energy Corp. ("USE") notified the board of directors of Crested Corp. that USE has established a special committee to evaluate whether, and if so how, USE might offer to acquire the common stock of Crested (29% not owned by USE (which now owns 71% of Crested). The special committee is comprised of H. Russell Fraser and Michael Anderson, current independent directors.

The special committee is evaluating what price, and other terms, may be appropriate for USE to offer. Crested has established a special committee, which will determine if an offer, and the terms of an offer, by USE (when and if made) would be fair to the Crested minority shareholders.

If USE's board of directors, acting on the recommendation of the USE special committee, should make an offer for USE to acquire the minority shares of Crested, the Crested special committee will determine if the offer, and its terms (when and if USE makes an offer) would be fair to the Crested minority shareholders.

The special committee has retained Navigant Capital Advisors, LLC as its financial advisor to provide an opinion on the fairness, to USE, of such offer as USE may make to Crested.

Please note that USE has not and may not in the future make an offer to Crested, and if it does make an offer, Crested may not accept such an offer. In any event, no prediction is made whether or not an offer will be made by USE to acquire the Crested minority shares, or if made, whether that offer would be recommended by the Crested board of directors to the minority shareholders for approval.
