Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On January 1, 2010, American Ecology Corporation (the “Company”) entered into the following compensatory agreements with Stephen A. Romano (“Romano”), Chairman of the Board of Directors, James R. Baumgardner (“Baumgardner”), President and Chief Executive Officer and its named executive officers.

Consulting Services Agreement with Stephen A. Romano – The Company and Romano entered into a three-year consulting services agreement where Romano will provide advisory services to the Company’s senior management team including, but not limited to, potential acquisitions, growth strategy, governmental and regulatory affairs, investor and media relations, customer relations and operational and safety issues. In connection for these services, Romano will be entitled to a monthly retainer of $3,000 per month plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

Employment Agreement with James R. Baumgardner - The Company and Baumgardner entered into a three year employment agreement expiring on December 31, 2012 with automatic one year renewal periods unless written notice is provided by either party within 60 days of expiration. Among other things, the Agreement establishes Baumgardner’s minimum annual base salary of $300,000 and participation in the Company’s employee benefit plans, including any management incentive plans.

Baumgardner is eligible to receive an incentive bonus payment for fiscal year 2010 if the base financial performance target (the “Base Budget Target”) is achieved. The bonus opportunity for achieving the 2010 Base Budget Target is up to 75% of his base salary.

The Agreement provides for annual equity awards of restricted stock with a value of $100,000 vesting over twelve months and options to purchase the Company’s common stock with a value of $100,000 vesting over thirty-six months. Under the terms of the Agreement the equity awards are to be automatically granted the third full trading day after the announcement of the Company’s full year fiscal year earnings for the preceding year and shall be priced based on the closing market price on the day of grant. The Agreement also provides for a fully vested restricted stock grant with a value equal to $250,000 on January 4, 2010.

The Agreement requires Baumgardner to purchase not less than $250,000 of the Company’s common stock by December 31, 2010 and from that date maintain a total equity ownership position in the Company in an amount not less than $600,000, calculated based on the greater of cost basis or market value throughout the remainder of the contract term.

The Agreement provides for severance benefits payable to Baumgardner if his employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Baumgardner terminates his employment for good reason in an amount equal to the greater of the remaining term of the contract or one-year base salary. In addition, the Agreement also entitles Baumgardner to a payment in the event of a change in control of the Company during the term of the Agreement where the enterprise value of the Company is greater than or equal to a designated valuation, with the amount of the payment to be determined based upon a designated percentage of transaction value. Any payments made in connection with a change in control of the Company under the Agreement are in lieu of any severance benefits payable under the Agreement.

The Agreement supersedes and replaces any other agreements previously entered into with Baumgardner.
