SECTION 2.01 The Closing. The purchase and assumption transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall become effective at the close of business on the day of the Closing (the "Closing Date").

SECTION 2.03 Retirement Accounts.

- (a) At the Closing, Seller shall resign as trustee and custodian with respect to any individual retirement account ("IRA Account") as to which Seller is trustee or custodian and any other account as to which Seller is designated as "Custodian" or serves in that or a similar capacity ("Custodian Account") and as to which one or more of the assets included therein is a deposit included within the Deposits transferred to Buyer on the Closing Date. At the Closing, Seller shall designate or appoint Buyer as successor trustee or custodian under each such Account.

- (b) Buyer covenants and agrees that it will, following its designation or appointment as successor trustee or custodian under the IRA or other Custodian Accounts, promptly and faithfully perform, fulfill, and discharge each of the obligations required to be performed by the trustee or custodian with respect to such accounts pursuant to law, or pursuant to the governing documents establishing such IRA Account or other Custodian Account.
- (c) If an individual depositor holding an IRA or other Custodian Account refuses to accept the designation or appointment of Buyer as successor trustee or custodian with respect to any such Account, Buyer shall promptly so inform Seller, and none of the deposits contained in such Account shall be treated as Deposit Liabilities hereunder, but shall remain the liability and obligation of Seller.

SECTION 2.04 Calculation and Payment of Purchase Price. The calculation and payment of the Purchase Price (defined herein) shall be made as follows:

- (a) Seller shall pay to Buyer an amount of cash (the "Purchase Price"), in addition to the transfer of Cash on Hand, equal to:
 - (i) the aggregate amount of principal and accrued interest of the Deposit Liabilities; plus
 - (ii) the net amount of any prorated items required by Section 2.06 hereof owed by Seller to Buyer; minus
 - (iii) the Acquisition Value (defined herein) of the Assets (exclusive of the Cash on Hand); minus
 - (iv) the amount of Cash on Hand; minus
 - (v) the net amount of any prorated items required by Section 2.06 hereof owed by Buyer to Seller; minus
 - (vi) the "Premium", which shall be equal to $9,100,000.00.
- (b) On the Closing Date, Seller shall transfer to Buyer, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Buyer, an amount which Seller estimates to be the amount of the Purchase Price, which estimated amount shall be based upon the Deposit Liabilities, the proration amounts, and the Cash on Hand as of the close of business on the second business day prior to the Closing Date (the "Estimated Purchase Price").
- (c) On the fifteenth (15th) business day after the Closing Date or such other date as may be agreed to in writing by the parties (the "Adjustment Payment Date"), an adjustment payment (the "Adjustment Payment") shall be made either by Seller to Buyer or by Buyer to Seller, as appropriate, so as to correct any discrepancy between the amount of the Estimated Purchase Price paid under the preceding paragraph and the Purchase Price calculated in accordance with this Section 2.04. Seller shall provide, at Buyer's request, a closing statement which reflects the calculation of the Adjustment Payment relative to the Estimated Purchase Price. The Adjustment Payment due to either party pursuant to this paragraph shall be paid to such party on the Adjustment Payment Date by the other party by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by the payee party.

- (d) For purposes of this Agreement, the "Acquisition Value" of the Assets shall be the sum of the following:
- (i) the aggregate outstanding principal and earned but unpaid interest on the Loans, together with any late charges accrued thereon, as of the close of business on the Closing Date, excluding any loan loss reserve or general reserve which may be associated with the Loans; plus
 - (ii) the appraised value as mutually agreed upon by the parties of the Real Property as specified in Schedule A; plus
 - (iii) the net depreciated book value of the Personal Property as of the close of business on the Closing Date specified in Schedule B.

SECTION 2.05 Allocation of Purchase Price. The Purchase Price, as adjusted in accordance with Section 2.04(c) above, and the liabilities assumed by Buyer pursuant to Section 1.02 hereof shall be allocated on an allocation schedule to be agreed upon by Buyer and Seller within forty-five (45) days after the Closing Date or such other date as may be agreed to in writing by the parties. The allocation is intended to comply with the allocation method required by Section 1060 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The parties shall (i) each report the federal, state and local and other tax consequences of the purchase and assumption contemplated hereby (including the filing of Internal Revenue Service Form 8594) in a manner consistent with such allocation schedule and (ii) take no position in any tax filing, return, proceeding, audit or otherwise which is inconsistent with such allocation.

SECTION 2.06 Prorations. The parties intend that Seller shall operate for its own account the business conducted at the Branch Offices until the close of business on the Closing Date, and that the Buyer shall operate such business for its own account on and after the Closing Date. Thus, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, items of expense directly attributable to the operation of the Branch Offices (which shall not include any general overhead expenses of Seller) shall be prorated as of the close of business on the Closing Date, whether or not such adjustment would normally be made as of such time, including, without limitation, (i) telephone, electric, gas, water, and other utility services (to the extent it is not possible to transfer such services into the name of Buyer as of the Closing Date), (ii) taxes associated with the Real Property and Personal Property, (iii) assessments (including, without limitation, assessments attributable to FDIC deposit insurance), (iv) payments due on Assumed Contracts, (v) rent or leased property, and (vi) similar expenses related to the Assets transferred hereunder. To the extent any such item has been prepaid by Seller for a period extending beyond the Closing Date, there shall be a proportionate adjustment in favor of Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any unearned non-interest income associated with the Safe Deposit Box Business shall not be prorated between the parties as of the Closing Date.

Seller agrees to indemnify Buyer for any penalty, interest, claim, fee (including reasonable attorneys' fees) or other liability or expense which may be imposed upon Buyer as a result of Buyer's failure to timely and accurately report interest earned or paid by customers on Deposits and Loans if Buyer's failure is caused by Seller's failure to provide in a timely manner the amount of interest earned or paid by customers through the Closing Date or errors in such information provided by Buyer to Seller.

SECTION 9.10 Transition. From and after the date of this Agreement, Seller and Buyer agree to fully cooperate with and assist one another in connection with the transition and conversion of all customer accounts, files (including data processing files) and other information which are being purchased and assumed by Buyer pursuant to the terms hereof. Additionally, each of the Buyer and Seller agree to provide each other, upon reasonable prior notice, with such information and data as is necessary to allow the Seller and Buyer to comply with all tax, regulatory reporting, audit or other compliance obligations relating to the customers, employees and operations of the Branch Offices, and each of Seller and Buyer agree to timely take any and all action as required by law to comply with such tax, regulatory and/or reporting obligations.

First Bancshares, Inc., to acquire Whitney National Bank branches on Mississippi Gulf Coast and in Bogalusa, Louisiana, from Hancock Bank of Louisiana and Whitney National Bank

HATTIESBURG, Miss.; GULFPORT, Miss.; NEW ORLEANS (May 17, 2011)—Executives of The First Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: FBMS), Whitney National Bank, and Hancock Bank of Louisiana announced today that a subsidiary of The First Bancshares, Inc., The First, A National Banking Association, (www.TheFirstBank.com) (“the First”) has entered into a branch purchase and assumption agreement with Whitney National Bank (“Whitney”) and Hancock Bank of Louisiana (“Hancock”) to acquire seven Whitney branches located on the Mississippi Gulf Coast and one Whitney branch in Bogalusa, Louisiana. As part of the branch acquisition, The First expects to acquire approximately $68 million in loans and to assume approximately $195 million in deposits.

The First President & CEO M. Ray “Hoppy” Cole, Jr., commented, “The First is excited about the opportunity to more than double our presence along the Mississippi Gulf Coast, which we believe is a very attractive market, as well as expand into the neighboring Louisiana market. These eight branches have a loyal, long-term customer base, and we look forward to providing these customers with the continued personalized service you would expect from a community bank. We are pleased to welcome these Whitney branch customers and employees to The First.”

On December 22, 2010, Hancock Holding Company (Nasdaq: HBHC), parent company of Hancock, and Whitney Holding Corporation (Nasdaq: WTNY), parent company of Whitney, announced that the companies had entered into a definitive agreement for Hancock Holding Company to acquire Whitney Holding Corporation, subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals and other customary closing conditions. On May 17, 2011, Hancock and Whitney agreed to sell the eight Mississippi and Louisiana branches to the First to resolve certain branch concentration concerns of the U.S. Department of Justice relating to the merger of Whitney into Hancock.

The branch acquisition by The First is contingent on the closing of the proposed merger between Hancock Holding Company and Whitney Holding Corporation, which is expected to occur in the second quarter of 2011.
