Other Events

On March 20, 2009, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, which has jurisdiction over the reorganization proceedings under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code for Circuit City Stores, Inc. (the "Company") and each of its wholly-owned United States and Puerto Rican subsidiaries, entered on its docket an order granting approval of the sale of the Company's Canadian operations to Bell Canada pursuant to the agreement previously announced by the Company on March 2, 2009. InterTAN Canada Ltd. ("InterTAN"), a subsidiary of Circuit City, controls these operations and operates more than 750 The Source stores across Canada. The sale was approved by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on March 10, 2009.

The acquisition remains subject to customary closing procedures.

Circuit City acquired InterTAN in May 2004. InterTAN is the subject of a court-monitored sales process following the Company's entry into creditor protection in Canada in November 2008. The sale is being managed by Rothschild and is expected to close in the third calendar quarter of 2009.
