5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 6, 2017, Andrew Reinland, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of F5 Networks, Inc. (the “Company”), informed the Company of his plans to retire during the Company’s third fiscal quarter, which ends June 30, 2018. In the meantime, Mr. Reinland will continue in his current roles at the Company and will assist the Company in conducting a thorough search for his successor, including consideration of internal and external candidates, and otherwise in the transition. In recognition of, among other things, his long and distinguished service to the Company, the Company has accelerated the vesting of 7,301 of Mr. Reinland’s restricted stock units from November 1, 2018 to May 1, 2018, in accordance with the terms of the related retention award agreement.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words indicating future events, performance, results and actions, such as “will” and “expect,” and variations of such words, and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements, but their absence does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking. The forward-looking statements in this report include, among others, statements regarding management changes. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future actions, events, results or performance, which may vary materially from those expressed or implied in such statements. Differences may result from, among other things, actions taken by the Company or its management or Board, as well as those beyond the Company’s control, including those taken by third parties. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, timing of changes in and integration of management (and related arrangements) and changes in strategic and other business objectives. For more information on factors that may affect future performance, events, results or actions, please review “Risk Factors” described in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and any subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC, as well as other public filings with the SEC. These forward-looking statements reflect the Company’s expectations as of the date hereof, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update the information provided herein.
