Item 5. Other Events

In an analyst meeting on April 23, 2003, in response to analyst questions, management of El Paso Corporation (the "Company") indicated that the Company is considering additional possible asset sale transactions. These transactions are not reflected in the Company's 2003 operational and financial plan and are not reflected in the $3.4 billion non-core asset sale program for 2003 previously announced by the Company. The additional possible asset sales include the possible sale of the Company's Aruba refinery, the possible sale of the Company's telecommunications business, and the possible sale of additional power assets. There can be no assurance that any of these additional possible asset sales will occur, or as to the timing or terms of any such transactions, if completed.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report includes forward-looking statements and projections, made in reliance on the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Edgar Filing: EL PASO CORP/DE - Form 8-K

The company has made every reasonable effort to ensure that the information and assumptions on which these statements and projections are based are current, reasonable, and complete. However, a variety of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from the projections, anticipated results or other expectations expressed in this release, including, without limitation, our ability to attract and retain qualified members of the Board of Directors; the successful recruitment and retention of a qualified CEO; the successful implementation of the 2003 operational and financial plan; the successful implementation of the settlement related to the Western Energy Crisis; material and adverse impacts from our proxy contest with Selim Zilkha/Oscar Wyatt; actions by the credit rating agencies; the successful close of financing transactions; our ability to successfully exit the energy trading business; our ability to divest of certain non-core assets; changes in commodity prices for oil, natural gas, and power; general economic and weather conditions in geographic regions or markets served by El Paso Corporation and its affiliates, or where operations of the company and its affiliates are located; the uncertainties associated with governmental regulation; political and currency risks associated with international operations of the company and its affiliates; inability to realize anticipated synergies and cost savings associated with restructurings and divestitures on a timely basis; difficulty in integration of the operations of previously acquired companies, competition, and other factors described in the company's (and its affiliates') Securities and Exchange Commission filings. While the company makes these statements and projections in good faith, neither the company nor its management can guarantee that anticipated future results will be achieved. Reference must be made to those filings for additional important factors that may affect actual results. The company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements made herein or any other forward-looking statements made by the company, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
