Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") permits the Company to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee and agent, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (each an "Insider") against liability for each such Insider's acts taken in his or her capacity as an Insider in a civil action, suit or proceeding if such actions were taken in good faith and in a manner which the Insider reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and in a criminal action, suit or proceeding, if the Insider had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, including under certain circumstances, suits by or in the right of the Company for any expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlements and for any liabilities which the Insider may have incurred in consequence of such action, suit or proceeding under conditions stated in said Section 145. The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws provide that the Company shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized by applicable law.

As permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL, Article 14 of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that a director of the Company will not be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability resulting from acts or omissions (i) constituting a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) giving rise to liability under Section 174 of the DGCL, as amended, which concerns unlawful payments of dividends, stock purchases or redemption, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Company's Bylaws permit the Company to secure insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise for any expense, judgment, fine or amounts paid in settlement of or incurred by any such person in connection with such indemnification obligations to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
