Item 5. Ownership of Five Percent or Less of a Class

If this statement is being filed to report the fact that as of the date hereof the reporting person has ceased to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the class of securities, check the following .

Pursuant to a trust agreement dated December 5, 2001 between Siemens AG and Delaware Trust Company, N.A. (formerly known as Wachovia Trust Company), formerly First Union Trust Company, N.A. 200,000,000 shares of Infineon were transferred from Siemens into an irrevocable trust, with First Union Trust Company as the trustee.

Under the terms of the trust agreement, the trustee had legal title to the shares held in trust and Siemens had irrevocably relinquished all voting rights in the shares. However, the trustee was not permitted to vote any Infineon shares it held in trust under the agreement. Siemens continued to be entitled to all the benefits of economic ownership of the shares held in trust, including the right to receive cash dividends and other cash distributions, which the trustee had agreed to pay to Siemens promptly upon receipt. The trustee was not entitled to sell or encumber the shares held in trust except at Siemens' direction, but Siemens had agreed not to direct the sale of any such shares to itself, any affiliate, any vehicle established by Siemens or any of its affiliates, or to Infineon. The trustee had agreed to pay to Siemens any proceeds resulting from a permitted sale.

The trust agreement contained a termination provision under which the trust would terminate only when Siemens and its affiliates, on a consolidated basis, had held, directly or indirectly, less than 50% of the voting share capital of Infineon, including the shares held in trust by the trustee, for a period of two consecutive years. Pursuant to this provision the trust terminated at the end of the day on November 28, 2004 and the shares were transferred to Siemens AG on November 29, 2004. According to the agreement, 136,292,363 shares held at that point by the trust reverted to Siemens with full ownership benefits and Delaware Trust Company no longer holds any shares of Infineon.
