Cleco Corporation

On October 16, 2013, Cleco Corporation ("Cleco") entered into a new five-year revolving credit facility totaling $250 million with Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank and KeyBank National Association, as syndication agents, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and JP Morgan Securities LLC, Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank and KeyBank National Association, as joint lead arrangers and joint book runners, and other lenders named therein the Cleco Amended and Restated Credit Agreement. The new Cleco revolving credit facility matures October 16, 2018 and provides for working capital and other needs.

The $250 million commitment under the new revolving credit facility includes up to $250 million in letters of credit, that are issuable subject to specified terms and conditions. As of October 16, 2013, $250 million was available for borrowing under the facility. The Cleco Amended and Restated Credit Agreement contains certain covenants and requires Cleco to maintain its percentage of debt to total capitalization at a level that does not exceed 65%. The method of calculating outstanding debt and total capitalization is defined in the Cleco Amended and Restated Credit Agreement. The new Cleco revolving credit facility contains customary covenants and events of default.

Nonperformance by Cleco of its covenants could result in an event of default. If a default occurs or is continuing, the administrative agent or lenders may immediately terminate all the lenders' commitments and declare outstanding amounts to be immediately due and payable. If certain bankruptcy events of default occur, such termination and acceleration of Cleco's obligations will be automatic.

The Cleco Amended and Restated Credit Agreement replaces Cleco's previous Credit Agreement dated as of November 23, 2010, as amended by the First Amendment dated as of October 7, 2011, among Cleco, various financial institutions, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent. The previous Cleco revolving credit facility was a $250 million, five-year facility that would have matured on October 7, 2016. Cleco did not incur any prepayment penalties as a result of the early termination of its prior credit facility.

Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, KeyBank National Association, Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, U.S. Bank National Association, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., or their affiliates, have in the past performed, and in the future may from time to time perform, investment banking, advisory, trustee, general financial and commercial services for Cleco or its affiliates for which they have in the past received, and may in the future receive, customary fees and reimbursement of expenses.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Cleco Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference herein.
