Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

Dynatronics Corporation, a Utah corporation (the "Company"), held its Annual Meeting of Shareholders on December 16, 2016. The date for determining eligibility to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date") was October 27, 2016. On the Record Date, there were 2,882,272 shares of Company's common stock outstanding. In addition, holders of the Company's Series A 8% Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series A Preferred") were entitled to vote the equivalent of 1,246,130 shares of common stock on an "as converted basis" as explained below, bringing the total shares eligible to vote to 4,128,402. A total of 3,459,047 shares (approximately 84%) of the Company's common stock was represented at the meeting either by proxy or in person. The holders of the Company's Series A Preferred were entitled to vote with the common stock on an as-converted basis, one vote for each share of common stock issuable upon an assumed conversion of the Series A Preferred; provided, however, that the voting rights of the Series A Preferred were also subject to limitations of a rule of The NASDAQ Stock Market known as the "Voting Cutback." The Voting Cutback limits the number of "as-if-converted common shares" that may be voted by a Series A Preferred shareholder to the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred held by such holder that exceeds the quotient of (x) the aggregate purchase price paid by such holder of Series A Preferred for its Series A Preferred, divided by (y) the greater of (i) $2.50 and (ii) the market price of the Common Stock on the trading day immediately prior to the date of issuance of such holder's Series A Preferred shares. On the date immediately prior to the date of issuance of the Series A Preferred, the trading price of the Common Stock was $3.23 per share. Therefore, the maximum number of shares eligible to be voted at the Annual Meeting by the holders of the Series A Preferred on an as-converted basis was 1,246,130 shares.

In addition to the voting rights of the holders of the common stock and the holders of the Series A Preferred outlined above as to the proposals voted upon at the Annual Meeting, under Utah law, the holders of the Series A Preferred have voting rights, voting as a class, to approve an amendment to Company's Articles of Incorporation increasing the number of shares of preferred stock the Company is authorized to issue. The voting rights of the Series A Preferred when voting as a class only on Proposal No. 5, as opposed to their vote on an as-converted basis as described above when voting with the holders of the Common Stock on this and the other proposals at the Annual Meeting, was not subject to the Voting Cutback and was one vote for each share of Series A Preferred held by such holder on the Record Date.

The following matters were submitted and voted upon at the Annual Meeting:

1. Shareholders voted to elect three directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of the Company's shareholders or until their respective successors have been elected or appointed and qualified, as set forth below:
