Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 28, 2015, Cabot Microelectronics Corporation (the "Company") announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement by which it will acquire NexPlanar Corporation ("NexPlanar"), a supplier of chemical mechanical planarization polishing pads to the semiconductor industry, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") among the Company, Matrix Merger Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Merger Sub"), NexPlanar, and Shareholder Representative Services LLC, solely in its capacity as the representative for NexPlanar's stockholders. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into NexPlanar (the "Merger"), with NexPlanar as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Merger Agreement provides that the Company will pay an aggregate consideration of approximately $142 million in cash to acquire NexPlanar on a debt-free basis, assuming an agreed-upon working capital balance as of the closing of the Merger, which may be increased by up to $2.3 million if the Company elects to cash out certain unvested options held by NexPlanar stockholders. A portion of the purchase price will be deposited with an escrow agent to fund payment obligations with respect to post-closing purchase price adjustments and indemnification obligations.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the parties. The completion of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, and the approval of NexPlanar's stockholders.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual terms of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any financial or other factual information about NexPlanar or the Company. In particular, the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement: (1) were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; (2) were solely for the benefit of the parties of the Merger Agreement; (3) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures; (4) were made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing matters subject to representations and warranties as facts; and (5) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company. Accordingly, investors should read the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement not in isolation, but only in conjunction with the other information about the Company that is included in reports, statements and other filings it makes with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
