The Registration Rights Agreement provides that MSCG or its transferee shall have the right to request that TransMontaigne file up to three registration statements covering the resale of the Warrants or underlying common stock, the final registration of which must be a shelf registration statement that TransMontaigne must keep effective for not less than 180 days. The Registration Rights Agreement also gives MSCG or its transferee the right to piggyback on registration statements filed by TransMontaigne or other stockholders, subject to limitations. In addition, the Registration Rights Agreement contains indemnification provisions and other terms customary for agreements of its type. Copies of the Warrants and the Registration Rights Agreement are attached hereto as Exhibits 4.1 and 4.2, respectively
