Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On January 3, 2006, Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing, among other things, the promotion, effective that date, of Arthur Stark to President of the Company (retaining the title of Chief Merchandising Officer), and Eugene A. Castagna to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer (succeeding Ronald Curwin, who has been named to the newly-established position of Senior Vice President of Investor Relations). Warren Eisenberg and Leonard Feinstein remain as Co-Chairmen and Steven H. Temares remains as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Messrs. Stark and Castagna are 50 and 40 years old, respectively. They have preexisting employment agreements with the Company, providing for severance pay equal to one year's salary (three years in the case of Mr. Stark) if the Company terminates their employment and one year's severance pay if the executive voluntarily leaves the employment of the Company. The severance payments are subject to reduction under certain circumstances or subject to avoidance if termination is or could be made for cause. These agreements also contain non-competition and confidentiality provisions. Neither has any family relationship with any other director or executive officer. Neither has engaged in any transaction with the Company required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
