Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On April 26, 2006, Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. (TDS) issued a news release announcing its results of operations for the third quarter of 2005. Such news release also included restated results of operations for certain prior periods. A copy of the news release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein. Attached as Exhibit 99.2 is a safe harbor cautionary statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

The information in this Item 2.02 of Form 8-K is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As discussed below, on May 1, 2006, TDS will not be in compliance with a listing standard of the American Stock Exchange (AMEX) that requires it to furnish to shareholders its annual report for the year ended December 31, 2005 by April 30, 2006, but has received an extension of time from the AMEX to comply with such listing standard.

As previously disclosed, TDS determined to restate financial statements for certain prior periods. It was necessary to complete the restatements before TDS could complete and file its Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2005. The restatements and Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2005 were filed with the SEC on April 26, 2006. However, the additional time required to complete and file such restatements and such Form 10-Q resulted in a delay in the filing of TDS's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which includes portions of the annual report to shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2005. TDS has not yet filed such Form 10-K with the SEC.

Pursuant to Section 611 of the AMEX Company Guide, annual reports must be submitted to shareholders and filed with the AMEX not later than four months after the close of the last preceding fiscal year of the company. This date is April 30, 2006 with respect to TDS's annual report to shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2005. TDS must file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 before it can complete and distribute its annual report to shareholders. TDS cannot complete its annual report to shareholders by April 30, 2006. Accordingly, TDS requested from the AMEX an extension until July 31, 2006 in order to provide additional time to complete and mail its annual report to shareholders and the AMEX has granted such an extension. TDS will regain compliance with such AMEX listing standards when it has distributed its annual report to shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2005 on or prior to July 31, 2006.

As previously disclosed, TDS also received a notice from the staff of the AMEX indicating that it was not in compliance with AMEX listing standards, due to its failure to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 on a timely basis. TDS is now in compliance with such listing standards with respect to such Form 10-Q as a result of the filing of such form with the SEC on April 26, 2006 as noted above. In addition, TDS also received a notice from the staff of the AMEX indicating that it was not in compliance with AMEX listing standards, due to its failure to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 on a timely basis. TDS has not yet filed its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. TDS also does not expect to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 on a timely basis and this will also result in non-compliance with the AMEX listing standards. However, as previously disclosed, the AMEX granted TDS an extension until June 30, 2006 to regain compliance with such AMEX listing standards. TDS will regain compliance with such AMEX listing standards when it has filed with the SEC its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 on or prior to June 30, 2006.
