State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to file its Form 10-QSB for the three months ended March 31, 2006 without unreasonable effort or expense. Due to the Registrant's delay in filing its Form 10-KSB for the period ended December 31, 2005, additional time was required for the completion of the analysis of the implementation of FASB Statement No. 123R, Share Based Payment. The Registrant is still in the process of reviewing the analysis. As a result, additional time is required for the Registrant to complete the quarterly financial statements. Management expects to complete the Form 10-QSB and the related financial statements within the time period specified by Rule 12b-25(b)(2)(ii). No material restatement of financial information from prior periods is anticipated.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As of the date of this Form 12b-25, the financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2006 have not been completed due to the reasons stated above and will report a significant change in its earnings statement. The Registrant expects to report a change in its results of operations and a net loss of approximately $1.3 million in its first fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2006 as compared to net loss of $186,964 for the first fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2005. The loss is primarily attributable to the Registrant experiencing delays related to implementation of systems, which prevented it from recognizing revenues on many of its sales and increasing the Registrant's deferred revenues as of March 31, 2006. In addition, the Registrant's statement of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2006 will represent on a consolidated basis, the post merger Company as compared to the statement of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005, which represents the Registrant as a standalone entity pre-merger. The merger with StorComm, Inc. was completed on November 22, 2005.
