ITEM 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

(a) On June 14, 2006, we received notice from the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department that the Company's request for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market had been denied. As previously announced, we received notice on May 18, 2006 of non-compliance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(2)(B) which requires Intrusion to have a minimum of $2,500,000 in stockholders' equity, or $35,000,000 market value of listed securities, or $500,000 of net income from continuing operations for the most recently completed fiscal year or two of the three most recently completed fiscal years. As a result, the Company's securities are subject to delisting from The Nasdaq Capital Market effective upon the opening of business on June 23, 2006.

Intrusion intends to appeal the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department determination before a Nasdaq Listing Qualification Panel. During the appeals process, the scheduled delisting will be stayed and the Company's common stock will continue to trade on the Nasdaq Capital Market pending the Panel's decision. The hearing date has not been set and is yet to be determined by Nasdaq. While there can be no assurance that the Company's request for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market will be granted, the Company is exploring all possible avenues to preserve the Nasdaq listing.

A copy of the Company's press release dated June 20, 2006 is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Intrusion Inc. Receives Notice from Nasdaq

Richardson, Texas June 20, 2006 Intrusion Inc. (NasdaqSC: INTZ), (Intrusion) today announced that the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department has notified the Company that it has denied the Company's request for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market. Intrusion had previously announced that the Company had received notice on May 18, 2006 of non-compliance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(2)(B) which requires Intrusion to have a minimum of $2,500,000 in stockholders' equity, or $35,000,000 market value of listed securities, or $500,000 of net income from continuing operations for the most recently completed fiscal year or two of the three most recently completed fiscal years. As a result, the Company's securities are subject to delisting from The Nasdaq Capital Market effective upon the opening of business on June 23, 2006.

Intrusion intends to appeal the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department determination before a Nasdaq Listing Qualification Panel. During the appeals process, the scheduled delisting will be stayed and the Company's common stock will continue to trade on the Nasdaq Capital Market, pending the Panel's decision. The hearing date has not been set and is yet to be determined by Nasdaq. While there can be no assurance that the Company's request for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market will be granted, the Company is exploring all possible avenues to preserve the Nasdaq listing.
