(1) Effective May 16, 2007, the Board of Directors appointed Mr. Biglari to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer. Such officers, directors and 10% stockholders are also required by SEC rules to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, the Company believes that, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, timely filings were made.

Item 11. Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Compensation Philosophy. The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain executives who are vital to the firm's long-term success. Decisions with respect to executive compensation are made by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors on an individual basis, based upon a number of factors, including the provisions of any existing employment contract with an executive, evaluation of the executive's performance, the level of responsibility associated with the executive's position, recruitment requirements and the performance of the Company. Compensation of the executives of the Company has historically been structured to motivate, reward and retain the executives consistent with the needs of the Company from time to time. Mr. Biglari, appointed as President and Chief Executive Officer in May 2007, is excluded from this program due to his election not to receive any compensation for serving in these capacities.

In 2007, the Compensation Committee established a policy that disregards both the market value of the Company and the profitability of the parent Company in determining the compensation for these executives. The principal components of the Company's executive compensation program for 2007 and forward are salary and bonus. The Company has frozen all stock option plans and will not issue new grants of stock options to executives as of the beginning of the second quarter of 2007. Only 1,000 options were issued in 2007, prior to the freeze on new grants. The Compensation Committee believes that each executive's overall remuneration should reflect his or her performance over time, and a mix of salary and bonus is used to achieve that goal. Compensation will not be related to activities that are not under the executives' domain.

Base Salary. Factors considered by the Compensation Committee in setting executive salaries are typically subjective, such as the Committee's perception of functional responsibility and performance. In the case of the Chief Executive Officer (prior to Mr. Biglari's appointment), the Committee also considered its expectations as to his future contributions in directing the long-term success of the Company and its business. Base salaries have historically been reviewed annually and may be changed based upon the individual performance, subject to any contractual arrangement with the executive. This philosophy is also applied to key executives of the Company's subsidiaries, such as Mr. Verney.

Mr. Verney's salary in 2007 and 2006 was $260,000 annually. The Compensation Committee also sets the base salary of the Chief Financial Officer. Mrs. Mabe's salary in 2007 and 2006 was $125,000 and $121,000, respectively. Her 2007 salary was increased to $125,000 to reflect her increased responsibility under the new corporate structure. In 2008, Mr. Verney's salary will be $210,000. Mrs. Mabe's 2008 salary has not yet been finally approved by the Compensation Committee.

Cash Bonus. The Company utilizes two types of bonuses—a performance based bonus and a discretionary bonus. The performance based bonus programs are established annually by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board, with bonus payments tied to performance milestones applicable to each executive. Both Mr. Verney and Mrs. Mabe were participants in the 2006 Senior Management Bonus Program. The performance targets set forth in that program were not met in 2006, thus no performance-based bonus was paid. Mrs. Mabe was paid a discretionary bonus in 2006 of $10,000, on the basis of her expeditiously facilitating a number of initiatives directed by the Board. In 2007 the Company used a combination of a performance-based bonus structure with certain targets set in regard to return on investment, cash flow, and system-wide sales increases, as well as a discretionary component. The maximum payment possible to each of Mr. Verney and Mrs. Mabe under the performance bonus portion was $130,000 and $50,000, respectively. However, the targets were not met and no performance bonuses were paid. Discretionary bonuses are tied to the Compensation Committee's judgment of the executive's performance in the following areas and other areas deemed appropriate in the Board's discretion:

- Retention of current franchises.
- Addition of new franchises.
- Restaurant openings by franchises.
- Profit performance of the five Company-owned stores.
- Management of the Company's accounts receivable and notes receivable.

Overarching these four areas is the Board's interest in increasing free cash flow. In 2007 no discretionary bonus was paid to Mr. Verney. The Compensation Committee has not determined a 2007 discretionary bonus for Mrs. Mabe.

In 2008, the Company intends to utilize a bonus structure similar to that applied in 2007, with updated targets set in regard to return on investment, cash flow, and system-wide sales increases. The maximum payments possible to each of Mrs. Mabe and Mr. Verney in 2008 under the performance bonus portion are expected to be $50,000 and $130,000 respectively.

Employment Agreements. Mr. Biglari, who was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer effective May 16, 2007, does not have an employment agreement. Mr. Verney is employed pursuant to the terms of a written Employment Agreement dated July 1, 2003, as subsequently amended by a written Binding Memorandum of Understanding dated January 4, 2005 and an Amendment dated May 16, 2007. The initial term of the agreement was 18 months, and it renews for successive one-year terms absent written notice of non-renewal from either party. The agreement (as amended) provides Mr. Verney compensation in the form of a base salary, cash bonus and stock options. The salary amount is adjusted annually by the Compensation Committee, as described above. Mr. Verney is eligible to receive performance bonuses pursuant to a plan established annually by the Compensation Committee. All stock options required to be granted by the Company to Mr. Verney under this agreement have been issued since 2005. As noted above, no future discretionary option grants are anticipated. Mr. Verney's agreement provides other benefits of the type available to other Company employees such as health insurance and retirement plan participation. The agreement provides for a severance payment of one year's base salary at the rate then in effect plus reimbursement for premiums for health benefits in the event of termination without cause. Assuming a termination date of December 31, 2007, as required by SEC rules, the approximate value of the severance benefits would have been approximately $266,000. The May 16, 2007 Amendment to Mr. Verney's Employment Agreement reflected his appointment to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Western Sizzlin Franchise Corporation and Western Sizzlin Stores, Inc. Given the 2008 salary figure, Mr. Verney would receive severance benefits of $216,000 assuming a termination date of March 31, 2008.

The Company has a severance provision contained within the Employment Agreement with its Chief Financial Officer. The agreement provides certain termination benefits in the event that employment with the Company is terminated without cause and upon a change of control. Under the terms of the agreement, in the event of termination without cause the executive will receive termination benefits equal to six months of the executive's annual base salary in effect on the termination date and the continuation of health and welfare benefits through the termination date of the agreement. Under a change of control, the executive will receive termination benefits equal to one year of the executive's base salary in effect on the change of control date and the continuation of health and welfare benefits through the termination date of the agreement. Assuming a termination date of December 31, 2007, as required by SEC rules, the approximate value of the severance benefits would have been approximately $131,000. Given that

Mrs. Mabe's 2008 salary has not yet been finalized, severance benefits cannot be determined at this time.

The Company's obligations under the above-described agreements are conditioned upon compliance with the terms of the agreement, which include as applicable provisions concerning non-disclosure of confidential information, non-solicitation of employees, and covenants not to compete with the Company.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2007

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board annually the compensation of all executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries. In the past, this charge has included reviewing and recommending to the Board the compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer, however, this function is not presently operative since Mr. Biglari is not compensated for his services in his capacity as President and Chief Executive.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis set forth in this Annual Report on Form 10-K with management. Based upon this review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Compensation of Directors

In 2007, directors were paid a $1,000 quarterly retainer for the first quarter and $1,500 for the remaining three quarters. In addition, each committee chair received an additional $250 per quarter. Each director is paid an additional $1,500 and reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred for attending each Board meeting in person. The directors receive $500 for each telephonic Board meeting and committee meeting when not part of a full Board meeting. In the past, the directors have received stock options under the Company's two stock option plans. In February, 2007, Mr. Biglari informed the Board that he did not wish to receive future grants of stock options and that he relinquished all stock options previously granted to him. In April 2007, the Board determined to suspend indefinitely the granting of future stock options to directors. At that time the Board also revised its fee structure to increase by $500 each the quarterly retainer, and to pay $500 extra per quarter to the Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee. Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Dixon-Hughes, PLLC served as the independent public accountants for the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. Grant Thornton LLP served as the independent public accountants for the Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. On March 23, 2007, the Company informed Grant Thornton, LLP, that it was being dismissed following the Company's review of responses to a request for proposals for audit and related services submitted by several firms. Upon the recommendation of the Audit & Finance Committee of the Board of Directors, the Company selected Dixon Hughes, PLLC to serve as its independent accountant to audit the Company's financial statements commencing in 2007. Prior to this engagement, the Company had not previously had consulted with Dixon Hughes, PLLC on any matters.

Dixon-Hughes, PLLC's report on the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. Additionally, during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 there were no disagreements with Dixon-Hughes, PLLC, whether or not resolved, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to Dixon-Hughes, PLLC's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the Company's financial statements for such years.

Grant Thornton, LLP's report on the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. Additionally, during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 there were no disagreements with Grant Thornton, whether or not resolved, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to Grant Thornton, LLP's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the Company's financial statements for such years.
