On December 27, 2012, General Moly, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Employment Agreement (the Employment Agreement) with Robert I. Pennington, its Chief Operating Officer. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Pennington will continue to serve as the Company's Chief Operating Officer at a base salary determined by the Board of Directors (the Board), which as of the date of the Employment Agreement will be $297,000. He is also entitled to receive cash or equity-based incentive awards as determined by the Board or the compensation committee of the Board, and other benefits consistent with those provided to employees of the Company generally.

The Employment Agreement will terminate on the earlier of (i) one year following the commencement of commercial production at the Mt. Hope project or (ii) December 31, 2016. If employment is terminated earlier by the Company, without Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Pennington will receive severance equal to two times base salary as then in effect. If Mr. Pennington terminates earlier for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he will receive severance of one year's base salary as then in effect. In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the Employment Agreement), if Mr. Pennington is terminated by the surviving company within one year of the Change of Control, without cause, or if Mr. Pennington terminates the employment relationship for Good Reason, he will receive severance of three times base salary as then in effect, an amount equal to 100% of his target annual incentive award for one year. Any non-vested equity award, if not already accelerated with a Change of Control, will accelerate in full at Mr. Pennington's termination date. Payment of any applicable severance amount is conditioned upon execution of a general release, and compliance with confidentiality, non-competition, and non-solicitation covenants.
