Description of Common Stock

Below is an updated description of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company. This updates the description of our common stock contained in our Registration Statement on Form 10 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on March 8, 1984, including any amendments or reports we have filed for purposes of updating the description contained therein. This description will be available for incorporation by reference into certain of our filings with the SEC, including registration statements.

General

Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. Our Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides for cumulative voting in connection with the election of directors. The holders of our common stock are entitled to dividends, if any, as our board of directors may declare from time to time from funds legally available for that purpose, subject to the holders of other classes of stock, if any, at the time outstanding having prior rights as to dividends, if any.

Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of our affairs, the holders of our common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining after the payment of creditors, subject to any prior liquidation distribution rights of holders of other classes of stock, if any, at the time outstanding. Holders of our common stock have no preemptive, conversion, redemption or sinking fund rights. The outstanding shares of our common stock are, and the shares of common stock to be offered hereby when issued will be, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

The rights, preferences and privileges of holders of common stock are subject to and may be adversely affected by the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock that we may designate and issue in the future.
