Item 5.03

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 27, 2016, the Board of Directors of Cabot Oil & Gas Corporation (the "Company") adopted amendments to the proxy access provisions in Article V, Section E of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws") to further enhance the rights of the Company's stockholders by reducing or eliminating certain conditions for the use of the proxy access provisions of the Bylaws. The amendments reflect the Company's continuing engagement with its stockholders and the Board of Directors' commitment to maintaining strong corporate governance. Pursuant to these amendments, among other things, the Company:

- reduced to 3% (from 5%) the percentage of the Company's outstanding common stock that a stockholder or group of stockholders must continuously own for at least three years in order to include director nominees in the Company's proxy materials for annual meetings of its stockholders,
- increased from 10 to 20 the limitation on the number of stockholders that could form a group for purposes of meeting the eligibility requirements to include director nominees in the Company's proxy materials for annual meetings of its stockholders,
- expressly provided that any group of two or more funds under common management and investment control will be treated as one stockholder for purposes of meeting the eligibility requirements to include director nominees in the Company's proxy materials for annual meetings of its stockholders,
- provided that a stockholder may include loaned shares of the Company's common stock in its shareholdings for purposes of meeting the eligibility requirements if such shares may be recalled with not more than five business days' notice, and
- removed the requirement that a stockholder or group of stockholders make a representation as to its or their intention to own the Company's common stock following the annual meeting.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the Bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to a copy of the Bylaws filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Form 8-K, which is incorporated by reference herein.
