Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

We shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by, and in the manner permissible under the laws of the State of Nevada, any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer, or served any other enterprise as director, officer or employee at our request. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, shall have the power on behalf of the Registrant to indemnify any person, other than a director or officer, made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he/she is or was an employee.

To the extent permitted under Nevada statutes, the Registrant may limit, through indemnification, the personal liability of their directors or officers in actions, claims or proceedings brought against such person by reason of that person's current or former status as an officer or director of the corporation. We may indemnify our directors or officers if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed was, at least, not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. In the event of a criminal action or proceeding, indemnification is not available if the person had reasonable cause to believe their action was unlawful.

Further, in an action brought by us or in our right, if the person, after exhaustion of all appeals, is found to be liable to us, or if the person makes payment to us in settlement of the action, indemnification is available only to the extent a court of competent jurisdiction determines the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification. Such discretionary indemnification is available only as authorized on a case-by-case basis by: (1) the stockholders; (2) a majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of members of the Board who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding; (3) if a majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of members of the board who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding so orders, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (4) if a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of members of the Board who were not parties to the action cannot be obtained, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

To the extent that our director or officer is successful in defending against an action, suit or proceeding brought against that person as a result of their current or former status as an officer or director, we may indemnify the person against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with their defense. Nevada law also allows corporations to advance expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action as they are incurred, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such officer or director is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation because such officer or director did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

Our By-laws provide for the indemnification of its directors and officers to the maximum extent provided by law. It is the position of the SEC and certain state securities administrators that any attempt to limit the liability of persons controlling an issuer under the federal securities laws or state securities laws is contrary to public policy and therefore unenforceable.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which it offers or sells securities, a post effective amendment to this Registration Statement to:
 - (i) Include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
 - (ii) Reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement; and notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in the volume and price represent no more than twenty percent (20%) change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.
 - (iii) Include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.

- (2) For determining liability under the Securities Act, treat each post effective amendment as a new registration statement of the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.
- (3) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the small business issuer under Rule 424(b)(1), or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act as part of this registration statement as of the time Commission declared it effective.
- (4) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat each post effective amendment as a new registration statement for the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a Court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
