(1) Amendment to Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. On August 28, 2006, Applera Corporation (the "Company") adopted the Applera Corporation Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "SERP"). The principal purpose of the SERP is to amend and restate the Company's existing Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan to provide for lump sum payment options for benefits payable to participants under the SERP, consisting of: (1) a lump sum option, which is a single payment upon retirement representing the entire value of a participant's accrued benefit under the SERP, and (2) a deferred lump sum option, which is a reduced monthly annuity payable as of the first day of each month following retirement for a period of 36, 60, or 120 months, as specified by the participant, followed by payment of a lump sum representing the present value of the remaining payments. The amounts payable under these lump sum options is the same value, from an actuarial standpoint, as the normal form of payment under the SERP. The SERP also includes a number of technical changes to the existing Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan intended to clarify certain language in the plan.

The following executive officers of the Company participate in the SERP: Catherine M. Burzik, Senior Vice President and President, Applied Biosystems Group; Barbara J. Kerr, Vice President, Human Resources; Kathy Ordoñez, Senior Vice President and President, Celera Genomics Group; William B. Sawch, Senior Vice President and General Counsel; and Dennis L. Winger, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

(2) Amendments to Agreements with Executive Officers. On August 28, 2006, the Company and Tony L. White, our Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, amended the terms of Mr. White's employment agreement dated September 12, 1995, as amended, to provide for lump sum payment options consistent with those set forth in the SERP and described above.

Also on August 28, 2006, the Company amended the terms of Mr. Winger's employment letter dated June 24, 1997, as amended, to provide for lump sum payment options consistent with those set forth in the SERP and described above.
