FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC. ANNOUNCES

THIRD QUARTER RESULTS

TORONTO, ONT. Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX and TSX: PAE) is pleased to announce its results for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2004.

The Company delivered the feature films, Hollywood Flies and Avalanche in the quarter and released an acquisition Back in the Day. During the quarter, the Company was in production of five new feature films. This compares to the delivery of one feature film and the production of six feature films and a documentary series for the same period in the prior year.

The Company's revenue totaled $6.6 million for the quarter, compared with $7.9 million for the third quarter of FY2003. The decrease in revenue reflects the delivery of a large feature film in the third quarter of FY2003.

The Company reported net earnings of $2.0 million or $0.11 basic earnings per share and $0.10 diluted earnings per share, for the nine months ended May 31, 2004 compared with net earnings of $5.7 million, or $0.69 basic earnings per share and $0.41 diluted earnings per share for the comparable period. For the FY2003 comparable period, the Company reported net earnings of $1.1 million before a one-time gain on modification of debt of $4.6 million.

The Company reported year-to-date earnings from operations before undernoted, as indicated in the financial statements, of $2.3 million for the nine months compared with $0.1 million for the FY2003 comparable prior period. Earnings from operations, which the Company defines as revenue less amortization of investment in film and television programming, other production and distribution costs, selling, general and administrative costs and other amortization, is a non-GAAP measure. The Company considers earnings from operations to be a meaningful performance measure as it provides an approximation of the Company's operational results.

Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc., one of Canada's foremost entertainment companies, creates, develops, produces and distributes feature films and proprietary television programming for worldwide markets. Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. has offices in Vancouver, Toronto, Los Angeles and London, England.

This press release includes statements that may constitute forward-looking statements, usually containing the words believe, estimate, project, expect, or similar expressions. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Factors that would cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, continued acceptance of the Company's products and services in the marketplace, competitive factors, dependence upon third-party vendors, availability of capital and other risks detailed in the Company's periodic report filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. By making these forward-looking statements, the Company undertakes no obligation to update these statements for revisions or changes after the date of this release.

For the Three and Nine Months Ended May 31, 2004 and 2003

(unaudited)

(Dollar amounts in tables expressed in thousands of Canadian dollars)

1.

Operations

Based in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc., together with its subsidiaries, (collectively, the Company) is a fully integrated company that creates, develops, produces and distributes film, television and video programming for world-wide markets.

Future Operations

The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the "going concern" basis, which assumes the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the normal course of operations. The application of the "going concern" basis is dependent upon the Company achieving profitable operations to generate sufficient cash flows to fund continuing operations or, in the absence of adequate cash flows from operations, obtaining additional financing to meet its obligations as they come due. These consolidated financial statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the "going concern" basis is not appropriate.

Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The interim consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Canada for interim financial reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnote disclosures necessary for complete financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in a manner which is consistent with the accounting policies described in the Company's Annual Report for the year ended August 31, 2003 and should be read in conjunction therewith.

The interim consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All material intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Comparative Figures

Certain comparative figures have been restated to conform to the basis of presentation adopted for the current period.

Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA)

EBITDA is comprised of net earnings from operations before the undernoted plus other amortization. EBITDA is not a measure recognized under Canadian or United States generally accepted accounting principles. The calculation of EBITDA may be different from that presented by other companies and therefore may not be comparable to other companies. Management believes EBITDA is an important measure of the Company's earnings and its ability to generate cash from its core business activities.

Debt Restructuring

During the year ended August 31, 2002, the Company entered into an agreement with Fremantle Enterprises Inc. (Fremantle), an existing trade creditor, whereby Fremantle agreed to exchange its trade payable balance of $7,783,000 for a term loan secured by a charge on the assets of the Company and a secured interest in certain copyrights to productions. The promissory note bore interest at 10% per annum and was intended to mature on June 30, 2004.

Effective January 30, 2003, the Company and Fremantle agreed to restructure the remaining $7,580,000 of term debt due to Fremantle. Fremantle agreed that the revised source of debt repayments and security would be restricted to the business, assets, and undertakings of the Company as they existed immediately prior to January 30, 2003 (the pre-existing assets). The new debt has no fixed repayment dates. Interest, which continues to accrue at 10% per annum, and principal are payable from the income streams of the pre-existing assets, subject to priority interests. The revised terms also exclude a previous right of prepayment by the Company of all outstanding amounts.

Pursuant to the Debt Repayment Agreement dated January 30, 2003, the Company has also agreed that if any amount of the Fremantle debt, including unpaid interest, remains outstanding as of December 31, 2004, Fremantle will, for a period of 90 days, have the right to convert such unpaid amount to Common Shares in the capital of the company at the lesser of either (a) $5.00 per share or (b) the average trading close price of the shares for the 30 days prior to December 31, 2004, provided that in no event shall the conversion price be less than $3.00 per share.

The modification of the debt is treated for accounting purposes as a settlement of the original debt, as the present value of cash flows under the terms of the modified debt instrument is at least 10% different from the carrying amount of the original debt. The fair value of the debt after modification is based on the discounted expected future cash flows of the pre-existing assets. The Company recorded a gain on modification of the debt, for the year ended August 31, 2003.

Release and reconstitution of a loan guarantee

During the year ended August 31, 2001, the Company guaranteed a loan due to Comerica Bank California (Comerica) to a maximum of US$2,075,000 on behalf of a co-production partner. During the year ended August 31, 2002, the co-production partner defaulted on its loan payments. As at August 31, 2002, the amount of the outstanding related debt was $1,675,000 (US$1,075,000) and the Company recognized its obligation as debt and receivable due from the co-producer. The receivable was written off at August 31, 2002.

During the year ended August 31, 2003, the Company entered into a Release and Reconstitution Agreement with Comerica which restructured the terms of the loan guarantee. Repayment of the loan is restricted to the ultimate proceeds of specific exploitation rights secured under the original loan agreement and, subject to priority interests, including repayment to Fremantle, to the pre-existing assets.

If any amount of the Comerica liability remains outstanding as of December 31, 2005, Comerica will, for a period of 90 days, have the right to convert such unpaid amount to Common Shares in the capital of the Company at a deemed price of $5.00 per share. The modification of the Comerica obligations is treated for accounting purposes as a settlement of the original debt, as the present value of cash flows under the terms of the modified debt is at least 10% different from the carrying amount of the original debt. The fair value of the debt after modification is based on the discounted expected future cash flows of the pre-existing assets.

Conversion instruments

As described, and in conjunction with the above, on January 30, 2003, the Company issued a conversion instrument to Fremantle which permits Fremantle to convert the amount of its outstanding debt including unpaid accrued interest at December 31, 2004, if any, into Common Shares of the company for a period of 90 days commencing on December 31, 2004. The conversion price will be the lower of either (a) $5.00 per share or (b) the average closing price of the Common shares for the 30 days prior to December 31, 2004, provided that in no event shall the conversion price be less than $3.00 per share. Pursuant to the conversion instrument, 2,527,000 Common shares, which represent the number of shares that could be issued for the principal amount of debt of $7,580,000, have been reserved for issuance.

As described, and in conjunction with the above, on January 30, 2003, the Company issued a conversion instrument to Comerica which permits Comerica to convert the amount of its outstanding loan at December 31, 2005, if any, into Common Shares of the Company for a period of 90 days commencing on December 31, 2005 at a price of $5.00 per share. Pursuant to the conversion instrument, 366,000 Common Shares, which represent the number of shares that could be issued for the obligation of US$1,075,000, have been reserved for issuance.

During the year ended August 31, 2003, the Company adopted the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity, which established standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity.

Reorganization of a subsidiary, Peace Arch Project Development Corp. (PAPDC)

During the year ended August 31, 2003, the Company carried out a reorganization and rationalization of its assets, operations and subsidiaries.

Pursuant to the reorganization, the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, PAPDC, became the owner of substantially all of the assets and business (collectively, the pre-existing assets) as at January 30, 2003. The pre-existing assets consisted principally of accounts and loans receivable, film and television programming rights, and all shares and other securities (including intercompany loans) held by the Company in its subsidiaries existing at January 30, 2003.

At the same time, PAPDC and its subsidiaries directly or indirectly were assigned substantially all of the pre-existing debts and liabilities of the Company, including the Company's indebtedness to Fremantle and Comerica. However, the Company continues to have a conditional obligation to satisfy any remaining indebtedness to Fremantle and Comerica by issuing a variable number of shares to Fremantle and Comerica under Conversion Rights Certificates (the conversion instruments) issued by the Company to each of them.

Subsequent to the reorganization of PAPDC described above, on August 1, 2003, the Company sold all of its shares of PAPDC for nominal consideration.

Pursuant to the terms of the Fremantle conversion instrument, the Company has estimated the fair value of the obligation to issue shares for the interest accrued for the nine month period and has taken a charge of $283,000 in the Company's consolidated statement of operations.

Subsequent to May 31, 2004 the Company issued 3,153,814 common shares into escrow in satisfaction of its obligations to Fremantle and 336,000 common shares in satisfaction to Comerica.

Promotion and Advertising Obligation

The Company entered into promotional and film enhancement financing agreements with a UK limited partnership for two of its productions whereby the Company has arranged for the support of the promotion and advertising campaign for the two films during their release. A restricted term deposit of $10,199,188 was set aside for future repayment of the promotion and advertising obligation by the Company under this structure.

Non-controlling Interest

During the nine months, the Company delivered two productions and earned profit in a subsidiary where each of these businesses consists of a non-controlling interest in the ownership and entitlement to the profit. These amounts are payable to the non-controlling interests as and when dividends or profits from these businesses are declared and paid to the non-controlling interests and the Company.

Translations of Papers and Documents into English

Reference is made to Rule 12b-12(d) [17 CFR 240.12b-12(d)]. Information required to be furnished pursuant to General Instruction B in the form of press releases and all communications or materials distributed directly to security holders of each class of securities to which any reporting obligation under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Act relates shall be in the English language. English versions or adequate summaries in the English language of such materials may be furnished in lieu of original English translations.

Notwithstanding General Instruction B, no other documents or reports, including prospectuses or offering circulars relating to entirely foreign offerings, need be furnished unless the issuer otherwise has prepared or caused to be prepared English translations, English versions or summaries in English thereof. If no such English translations, versions or summary have been prepared, it will be sufficient to provide a brief description in English of any such documents or reports. In no event are copies of original language documents or reports required to be furnished.
