Year to Date Revenues Increase From $50.4 Million to $61.5 Million as Company Continues to Strengthen North American Distribution Operations

TORONTO (MARKET WIRE) July 15, 2008 -- Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX: PAE - News) (Toronto: PAE - News) today announced operating results for its third quarter of fiscal 2008, ending May 31, 2008. The Company reported revenues of $23.5 million versus $18.8 million for the same period last year, with revenues for the nine months ended May 31, 2008 up $11.1 million to $61.5 million compared to $50.4 million last year.

Peace Arch reported a net loss of $(6.6) million or $(0.14) per diluted share for the three months ended May 31, 2008, compared to net earnings of $1.1 million, or $0.03 per diluted share for the same period last year. For the nine months ended May 31, 2008, the net loss was $(8.7) million or $(0.18) per diluted share, as compared to net earnings of $2.0 million, or $0.05 per diluted share last year. The loss during the quarter is largely due to a writedown of investment in film of $2.5 million, bad debt expense of $2.2 million and print and advertising expenditures of approximately $900,000.

We are pleased to report continued revenue growth even as we complete our restructuring from a production oriented company into a leading independent distributor, said John Flock, President and Chief Operating Officer of Peace Arch Entertainment. Our Home Entertainment and Television divisions have been profitable throughout the year, and we expect to keep building those operations through our new U.S. DVD distribution partnership with ContentFilm and the renewal of our series The Tudors for a third season on Showtime. Our Motion Picture division has suffered from the poor market performance of direct-to-DVD titles produced by unaffiliated entities whose results we are obligated to consolidate, but we have wound down that aspect of our business since our change in management last November and we expect to see the positive results of that restructuring beginning in fiscal 2009.

Revenue for the Company's Home Entertainment division were up 167% compared to the same period last year, primarily due to the Company's expansion into the United States market through the acquisition of Trinity Home Entertainment in July 2007. Year-to-date Television revenues are up more than 7% compared to the first nine months of 2007, although quarterly revenues were down 17% due to the delivery of six new episodes of television programming during the quarter as opposed to twelve new episodes during the third quarter of fiscal 2007. The Motion Picture division took delivery of five new films during the quarter, compared to two films in the third quarter last year, as the Company completes its transition from high volume motion picture production to focus on direct distribution in the United States and Canada. Included in the Company's expenses for the quarter was $900,000 for theatrical print and advertising expenditures for films that the Company will exploit on DVD and in other markets next year.

Peace Arch achieved several key milestones during the third quarter in support of its strategic growth initiatives:

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Released the feature films Chapter 27, and The Babysitters theatrically in the United States, solidifying the Company's position as a rapidly emerging independent theatrical distribution company.

Completed licensing agreements for 31 motion pictures and television series in key international territories at the Cannes Film Festival & Market, increasing the Company's stature as a leading international sales company.

Debuted the mini-series Guns at the MIPTV international television sales market, resulting in the strongest MIPTV market in the Company's history.

Renewed The Tudors for a third season with Showtime Networks, on which production began in June.

Acquired North American distribution rights to the feature film What We Do Is Secret, starring Shane West and Bijou Phillips, to be released theatrically in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles in August.

Significant events that occurred following the end of the quarter include:

On June 23, 2008, the Company announced the signing of an agreement with London-based ContentFilm plc that will integrate both companies' U.S. home entertainment distribution businesses effective July 1, 2008. The new operation combines Peace Arch Home Entertainment and Allumination Filmworks, creating one of the largest independent DVD distributors in the U.S. marketplace.

On July 7, 2008, the Company announced that Gerry Noble has been named Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective July 21, 2008. Mr. Noble replaces interim CEO Jeff Sagansky, who has served in the post since November, 2007.

As at May 31, 2008, Peace Arch's total shares outstanding was 49,131,698 Common Shares (excluding 222,689 shares in escrow) and 4,347,825 Series I Preference Shares and 4,347,825 Series II Preference Shares. The Company also has outstanding 801,000 Common Share purchase warrants.

Peace Arch will hold an investor conference call on Thursday, July 17, 2008, at 9 am Eastern, to discuss the Company's financial performance for the third quarter ending May 31, 2008. Callers within the United States can access the conference call by calling (877) 407-9205; when prompted tell the operator you would like to connect to the Peace Arch Entertainment conference call.
