Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 15, 2005, Competitive Technologies, Inc. ("CTT") announced that on August 10, 2005, CTT received notice that John B. Nano, its former President and Chief Executive Officer had commenced suit in the Superior Court in the Judicial District of Stamford, Connecticut seeking the pre-judgment remedy of attachment. Mr. Nano's suit seeks to attach one of CTT's bank accounts in the amount of $1.4 million to preserve his ability to collect should he succeed on his claims. In this suit, Mr. Nano alleges that CTT breached his employment contract because it denied him certain severance benefits when it terminated him on June 14, 2005. Mr. Nano also claims, in the alternative, that CTT violated a proposed but unexecuted and undelivered separation agreement and general release which it sought to negotiate with him at the time of his departure. According to his lawsuit, Mr. Nano claims that CTT withdrew the agreement after he communicated his acceptance to the Chairman of CTT's Board of Directors. The Company denies the allegations of the suit and intends to vigorously defend it and oppose Nano's application for a prejudgment remedy.

A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
