PART III--NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

ICO Global Communications (Holdings) Limited ("Company" or "ICO") represents that it is unable to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 ("2007 10-K") without unreasonable effort or expense. As indicated in its Item 4.02 Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") on March 13, 2008, during the financial close process for the year ended December 31, 2007, ICO discovered certain errors in its previously issued financial statements pertaining to its accounting for an embedded beneficial conversion feature included within the convertible notes due in August 2009 issued by its subsidiary, ICO North America, Inc. Subsequently, the Company determined that its accounting for this embedded beneficial conversion feature should have been recognized in the interim period ended September 30, 2005, rather than the interim period ended September 30, 2007. To correct these errors, the Company intends to restate its consolidated balance sheet for the year ended December 31, 2006, its consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, all interim periods in 2006, and the interim periods ended March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2007. The restatement will be reflected in the Company's 2007 10-K, as well as in the interim reports on Form 10-Q for the interim periods ending March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2008. The Company's effort to finalize its accounting related to the foregoing matters was delayed.

In addition, the Company is evaluating the effects of recent developments in the global financial markets on certain student loan backed auction rate securities that the Company purchased subsequent to the year ended December 31, 2007. These securities, which were purchased in accordance with our investment policy, are AAA/Aaa rated and 97% insured by the U.S. Department of Education. The auctions for a number of these securities have recently failed, which may result in funds not being available along the timeframe originally planned. Management is negotiating a commitment to obtain funding to support continuing operations during any period of illiquidity. No assurance can be given that management will be successful in these efforts. Because the illiquidity of the relevant auction rate securities has recently occurred and its impact is unclear, the Company is finalizing the appropriate disclosures regarding this issue.

The above mentioned matters resulted in a delay in the Company's ability to file its 2007 10-K by the prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company represents that its 2007 10-K will be filed no later than the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date.
