FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release of KongZhong Corporation (the “Company”), constituting Exhibits 1.1 to this Form 6-K, contain statements that may be viewed as “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such forward-looking statements are, by their nature, subject to significant risks and uncertainties that may cause the actual performance, financial condition or results of operations of the Company to be materially different from any future performance, financial condition or results of operations expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements regarding trends in the wireless value-added services, wireless media and mobile games industries and our future business, financial conditions, results of operations and prospects.

Although such statements are based on the Company’s own information and information from other sources it believes to be reliable, you should not place undue reliance on them. These statements involve risks and uncertainties, and actual market trends and the Company’s results may differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, continued competitive pressures in China's wireless value-added services, wireless media and mobile games industries and the effect of such pressure on prices; unpredictable changes in technology, consumer demand and usage preferences in the market; the state of and any change in the Company’s relationship with China's telecommunications operators; the Company’s dependence on the billing systems of telecommunications operators for its performance; the outcome of the Company’s investment of operating income generated from the wireless value-added services segment into the development of its wireless Internet segment and mobile games segment; changes in the regulations or policies of the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology and other relevant government authorities in China or elsewhere; and changes in political, economic, legal and social conditions in China, including the government's policies with respect to economic growth, foreign exchange, foreign investment and entry by foreign companies into China's telecommunications market. For additional discussion of these risks and uncertainties and other factors, please see the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, which apply only as of the date of this report on Form 6-K.

KongZhong Announces Impact Due to New Telecommunications Operator Measures

BEIJING, Dec. 10 /PRNewswire-Asia/ -- On November 30th, 2009, in order to support the Chinese government's efforts to maintain an orderly mobile Internet environment, China Mobile Communication Corporation (China Mobile), one of the telecommunications operator partners of KongZhong Corporation (Nasdaq: KONG), implemented a series of measures targeted at eliminating offensive or unauthorized content, including pornographic content, on Chinese-based wireless application protocol (WAP) sites. As a result, China Mobile and other Chinese telecommunications operators have suspended billing their customers for all WAP and G+ mobile gaming platform services, including those services that do not contain offensive or unauthorized content, on behalf of third party service providers of such services. China Mobile and other operators have not yet indicated how long its new measures would last or whether it would expand its current measures.

Mr. Jay Chang, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, said, "We fully support these measures to improve the content quality of the Chinese mobile Internet market. We are confident that our WAP sites and services do not contain any content targeted by these measures. We expect these measures to establish a healthier and more transparent operating environment, and intend to work closely with China Mobile to develop high quality services for the growing 3G mobile telecommunications market in China."

Since the implementation of these new measures, the Company has been actively analyzing their potential impact on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects and has maintained an active dialogue with its telecommunications operator partners. After careful analysis over this period, the Company now expects that the new measures described above would impact the Company's WAP and wireless Internet services and a portion of the Company's mobile game services, as well as the revenues derived from such services.

Based on the Company's current assessment of these measures, the Company now expects its revenues in the fourth quarter of 2009 to be within the range of US$34.0 million to US$35.0 million, as compared to its previous guidance range of US$37.0 million to US$38.0 million. The Company will continue to closely monitor these new measures and assess their effects on the Company.
