Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 8, 2012, Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a Merchant Financial Services Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A (“WFB”). Under the Agreement, WFB agrees to provide services to the Company in connection with the Company's credit and debit card processing for merchants. The ongoing fees payable to WFB by the Company are based upon the monthly transaction volume and include a minimum fee.

Under the Agreement, WFB agrees to register the Company with the MasterCard and Visa networks, and will take all commercially reasonable actions within WFB's control to maintain such registration(s) throughout the period that WFB serves as the Company's sponsor under the Agreement.

The Agreement is non-exclusive and the Company has made no utilization commitment to WFB. The Agreement contains standard representations and warranties and covenants by the parties. The parties agree to mutually indemnify each other for losses relating to the Agreement though the Company is generally responsible for merchant losses.

The Agreement will continue in full force and effect until February 8, 2016 and will automatically renew for successive three year periods unless either party provides six months' written notice of nonrenewal to the other party. Either party can terminate the Agreement by giving 30 days' written notice to the other party if the other party materially defaults in the performance of any duty or obligation or materially breaches a representation or warranty under the Agreement. The Agreement may also be terminated immediately by WFB if the Company sells all or substantially all of its assets or by either party if the other party enters bankruptcy or files for bankruptcy. Either party may terminate the Agreement upon 30 days' advance written notice if they are unable to reach agreement as to future changes to the governing credit policy or fraud prevention program after a 30 day discussion period. WFB may terminate the Agreement if the Company engages in fraudulent activity, causes WFB to violate repeatedly the payment network rules or engages in other activities that may or do result in material economic hardship or damage to Visa and MasterCard. Either party may terminate the Agreement on 10 days' notice if they have been unable to agree to the terms of and sign an agreement relating to ACH processing services by April 30, 2012. Upon termination of the agreement for any reason, the Company will have up to a nine month period to convert to another payment network sponsor and WFB agrees to facilitate conversion of the merchants to the new sponsor at the Company's direction. In the event of a termination of the Agreement by the Company other than for cause prior to February 8, 2016, the Company will be required to pay WFB the amount payable as the monthly minimum until February 8, 2016.
