Uncommitted Revolving Line of Credit Agreement and Uncommitted Revolving Line of Credit Note

On July 20, 2012, Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) and certain of the Company's subsidiaries, as guarantors, entered into an Uncommitted Revolving Line of Credit Agreement (the “Sponsor Facility Agreement”) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (“Wells Fargo”), as lender and as sponsor bank. In connection with the Sponsor Facility Agreement, the Company also entered a Uncommitted Revolving Line of Credit Note with Wells Fargo (the “Note”). The Company entered into the Sponsor Facility Agreement and the Note in order to provide for a line of credit to fund advances of interchange fees to the Company's small and mid-sized merchants that are processed under the Merchant Financial Services Agreement by and between Wells Fargo and the Company, dated February 8, 2012 (the “Merchant Financial Services Agreement”), during the processing month prior to collecting such fees from such merchants at the beginning of the following month. Generally, the advances of interchange fees to the Company's small and mid-sized merchants are funded first with the Company's available cash, then by incurring a payable to certain of its sponsor banks; upon the commencement of activity under the Wells Fargo sponsorship pursuant to the Merchant Financial Services Agreement, the Company will fund those advances by borrowing from Wells Fargo pursuant to the Sponsor Facility Agreement when that cash has been expended.

Under the terms of the Sponsor Facility Agreement, Wells Fargo may lend, and the Company may borrow, up to $100 million, secured by certain accounts receivable of the Company, solely to advance interchange fees as described above. Interest on any borrowings under the Sponsor Facility Agreement are at the prime rate as identified by Wells Fargo at its principal office in Charlotte, North Carolina. Any borrowings under the Sponsor Facility Agreement must be paid back on the second business day of each calendar month. Certain of the Company's subsidiaries, as guarantors, are obligated to guarantee the payment and performance of any borrowings by the Company. The Sponsor Facility Agreement also contains representations and covenants which are customary for financings of this type. The obligations of the Company to repay any advances under the Sponsor Facility Agreement are further set forth in the Note.

The description of the Sponsor Facility Agreement set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Sponsor Facility Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The Agreement establishes various inter-lender terms, including, but not limited to, (i) the priority of liens with respect to borrowings under the Sponsor Facility Agreement and the Company's Credit Agreement (as defined below), (ii) the mechanics for the release of any such liens, (iii) the application of proceeds from merchant receivables under the Sponsor Facility Agreement, (iv) the restrictions on amending various agreements and (v) certain other restrictions on the various lenders to the Company.

The description of the Agreement set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The Amendment amends the Credit Agreement by, among other things, (i) allowing the Company under certain circumstances to increase its revolving credit commitments up to $150 million, (ii) permitting the Company to incur up to $125 million in indebtedness from Wells Fargo pursuant to the Sponsor Facility Agreement in order to advance interchange fees to the Company's small and mid-sized merchants that are processed pursuant to the Merchant Financial Services Agreement, (iii) allowing first priority liens on certain merchant receivables to secure up to $125 million in advances of interchange fees to the Company's small and mid-sized merchants that are processed under the Merchant Financial Services Agreement, (iv) permitting JPMorgan, as administrative agent, to authorize subordination or release of liens under the Sponsor Facility Agreement, (v) amending and adding certain defined terms relating to the Company's repurchase of its equity interests and the effect of such repurchases on the Company's maintenance of certain fixed charge coverage ratios and (vi) making certain other technical and conforming amendments to facilitate the foregoing.
