Telenor seeks to be delisted from NASDAQ

Telenor ASA Announces Intent to Delist from The NASDAQ Stock Market and to Deregister and Terminate its Reporting Obligations under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Oslo, Norway, May 22, 2007 Telenor ASA (OSE: TEL; NASDAQ: TELN) announced today that it will delist its American Depositary Shares (the ADSs), each representing the right to receive three (3) ordinary shares of six Norwegian Kroner each of Telenor, from The NASDAQ Stock Market and, pursuant to the newly-adopted Rule 12h-6(a) under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), deregister and terminate Telenor s reporting obligations under Sections 13(a) and 15(d) of Exchange Act. Telenor s ordinary shares will continue to trade on the Oslo Stock Exchange.

Telenor s board of directors authorized this action based on its assessment that continued compliance with the reporting requirements under the Exchange Act are expensive and burdensome for the company and such costs outweigh the benefits of maintaining a U.S. listing. All investors in the ordinary shares and ADSs of Telenor are accorded protection by Telenor s continued compliance with the rules of the Oslo Stock Exchange and other Norwegian regulations.

Telenor s intention to delist from the NASDAQ does not imply a reduced focus on the company s international shareholders or a reduced focus on its international or U.S. markets. Telenor intends to continue its strong focus on corporate governance, transparency and internal controls subsequent to the delisting.

Telenor intends to file a Form 15F with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission to deregister and terminate its reporting obligations under Section 13(a) and 15(d) of the Exchange Act as soon as practicable following the effectiveness of delisting, which is expected to occur on or around June 11, 2007. The deregistration will be effective 90 days after the filing, unless the Form 15F is earlier withdrawn by Telenor. Telenor reserves the right to delay the filing of the Form 15F or withdraw the Form 15F for any reason prior to its effectiveness.

Telenor has not arranged for the listing of its ADSs or ordinary shares on another national securities exchange or for the quotation of its ordinary shares in a quotation medium in the United States.

Telenor intends to maintain its American Depositary Receipt (ADR) facility relating to the ADSs with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and intends to amend its Deposit Agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. to reflect its deregistration. The ADSs will trade over-the-counter (OTC) in the United States.
