PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS ANNOUNCES A REVISED
SETTLEMENT WITH ITS SERIES "A" NOTES HOLDERS

ROSH HA'AYIN, Israel, February 18, 2010 - Partner Communications Company Ltd. ("Partner" or "the Company") (NASDAQ and TASE: PTNR), a leading Israeli mobile communications operator, announces, following the Company's reports with respect to the application it submitted to the District Court to approve a dividend distribution of a total amount of NIS 1.4 billion exceeding the surpluses for distribution (hereinafter: the "Distribution Application"), and following the Company's report dated February 8, 2010 with respect to the agreed settlement, limited to year 2010, with a few series "A" notes holders of the Company (hereinafter: the "Settlement"), that following negotiations with an additional series "A" notes holder of the Company, the Company has resolved to improve the Settlement according to which, the increase to the annual linked interest rate that the Series "A" notes will bear in the event of a reduction in the current credit rating of Series "A" notes, as set out in the Settlement, will also apply to the year 2011 in the rate of 0.5% for each reduction of one rating category, compared to the current credit rating (AA-), providing that the conditions set out in the settlement are fulfilled and as of the date they are fulfilled. The other terms and conditions of the Settlement will remain unchanged, including the validity of the Settlement (including as amended above) that is subject to and contingent upon the approval of the Distribution Application by the Court. The Company has notified the District Court of the Improved Settlement and submitted an application to approve the Distribution Application.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the safe harbor provisions of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "seek", "will", "plan", "could", "may", "project", "goal", "target" and similar expressions often identify forward-looking statements but are not the only way we identify these statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this press release regarding our future performance, plans to increase revenues or margins or preserve or expand market share in existing or new markets, reduce expenses and any statements regarding other future events or our future prospects, are forward-looking statements.

We have based these forward-looking statements on our current knowledge and our present beliefs and expectations regarding possible future events. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about Partner, consumer habits and preferences in cellular telephone usage, trends in the Israeli telecommunications industry in general, the impact of current global economic conditions and possible regulatory and legal developments. For a description of some of the risks we face, see "Item 3D. Key Information - Risk Factors", "Item 4. - Information on the Company", "Item 5. - Operating and Financial Review and Prospects", "Item 8A. - Consolidated Financial Statements and Other Financial Information - Legal and Administrative Proceedings" and "Item 11. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk" in the form 20-F filed with the SEC on April 27, 2009. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this press release might not occur, and actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
