Enclosure: Partner Communications responds to reported remarks of the Chairman and CEO of French Orange SA

PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS RESPONDS TO REPORTED REMARKS OF THE CHAIRMAN AND CEO OF FRENCH ORANGE SA

ROSH HA'AYIN, Israel, June 4, 2015 - Partner Communications Company Ltd. ("Partner" or "the Company") (NASDAQ and TASE: PTNR), a leading Israeli communications operator, announces that it was reported in media reports last night that the chairman and CEO of the French company Orange SA (formerly France Telecom), owner of the international orange brand licensed to Partner, said in a conference in Cairo that "He would be willing to terminate the relations with Partner Israel as of tomorrow morning...".

In accordance with the terms of the brand license agreement between Partner and Orange, Orange does not have the right to terminate the agreement with Partner for reasons of convenience.

The remark of Orange SA's CEO might harm the value of the orange brand in Israel, and may have an adverse effect on the Company's business, among others, if Partner is mistakenly identified as part of the French Orange group, which it is not.

Nonetheless, we are witnessing lively public discourse including statements that support and strengthen Partner, as well as positive statements of ministers and members of parliament.

Partner cannot currently estimate the damages which might result from the remark of Orange SA's CEO. Partner is taking every measure at its disposal to mitigate the damage, such as clarifying to the public in Israel that Partner is a public Israeli company controlled by the Saban Capital Group and does not belong to Orange SA.

For further information, please see the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2014 "Item 3. Key Information - 3D.
