SECTION 8: OTHER EVENTS

Item 8.01 Other Events

The Company discloses that it has received notice of a lawsuit indicating that a claim was being made under contract for a “breakup fee” in connection with a term sheet presented to the Company by a prospective lender in February 2011. The primary dispute alleged by the claimant relates to the “exclusivity” clause of the term sheet and the allegation that the lender is entitled to a breakup fee under a penalty clause contained in the term sheet for violation of the exclusivity clause. The claim is based on the contract of a “Term Sheet” which the Company contends was not met, not honored and not binding. The financing was pursued to facilitate the acquisition of certain assets which the Company was ultimately able to acquire with its previous financing relationship with its existing lenders.

The Company considers the lawsuit to be without merit and intends to vigorously defend the lawsuit.
