The Value Line Fund, Inc.

To Our Value Line

To Our Shareholders (unaudited):

Enclosed is your semi-annual report for the six-month period ended June 30, 2010. We encourage you to carefully review this report, which includes economic observations, your Fund's performance data and highlights, schedule of investments, and financial statements.

In our previous reports to you, we stated that we had taken steps to improve the performance of the Value Line Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"). These measures are paying off in 2010. Your Fund showed a total return of -0.59% for the six-month period, versus a total return of -6.65% for the benchmark the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index. ¹

The Fund's revamping consisted of two important measures. First, we broadened the portfolio's stock selection universe to encompass the top three Ranks of the Value Line Timeliness Ranking System, rather than only Rank 1's. This allows greater diversification of the portfolio, reducing volatility and risk. It also results in decreased turnover of portfolio holdings, lowering trading expenses.

The Fund's newly expanded stock selection universe allows us to implement our disciplined investment strategy to full advantage. We invest in proven winners---those companies that have established five to ten year records of superior relative earnings growth and stock price growth. In addition, we give priority to companies demonstrating strong short-term, quarter to quarter relative earnings momentum and stock price momentum. If a holding later falters on these criteria, we do not hesitate to replace it with a stock showing superior strength.

The Fund invests in companies of all sizes. Its approximately 150 holdings are well-diversified in that respect, comprised of about 30% large-capitalization companies, 40% mid-cap and 30% small-cap. The enclosed schedule of investments also makes evident the Fund's wide diversification across industry classifications.

Thank you for investing with us.

Sincerely,

/s/ Mitchell Appel
Mitchell Appel, President

/s/ Stephen E. Grant
Stephen E. Grant, Portfolio Manager

- (1) The Standard & Poor's 500 Index consists of 500 stocks which are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, American Stock Exchange and the NASDAQ National Market System and is representative of the broad stock market. Economic Observations (unaudited)

The recession, which commenced in the latter stages of 2007 and proved long and disruptive, ended last year to all intents and purposes, although the National Bureau of Economic Research, which assigns beginning and ending dates to such downturns, has yet to rule officially on the matter. In all, the business contraction—which produced a succession of quarterly declines in the U.S. gross domestic product along with countless other upheavals—apparently concluded with the restoration of GDP growth in the final half of 2009 and the first three months of this year. The nascent up cycle in this country has been underpinned so far by a positive swing in the inventory cycle, a strengthening in business equipment spending, generally better results on the industrial and consumer fronts, and some selective signs of stability on the housing front—which remains among the weakest links in the economic recovery chain.

Going forward, the upturn should be supported by improving consumer and industrial activity, and further stabilization in the troubled housing sector. It is worth noting that the prospective rate of GDP growth in 2010 is likely to be 3%, or so which is modestly below the historical norm of 3%-4%. The slight underperformance is traceable to lingering softness in the aforementioned housing market and the employment sector. Until those areas show more sustained strength, we may not see the materially higher levels of consumer spending needed for stronger business growth.

The long and painful recession was traceable to several events, beginning with sharp declines in housing construction, home sales, and real estate prices. Other contributing factors included a large reduction in credit availability, a high level of bank failures, increasing foreclosures and bank repossessions, a multi-decade high in the unemployment rate, weak retail activity, and trendless manufacturing. Unfortunately, several of these problems are likely to stay with us for some months yet—notably the aforementioned weakness in housing and job growth. Such prospective difficulties underscore why we expect modestly below-trend rates of GDP growth for now. Encouragingly, though, most business barometers are now either stabilizing or improving.

Meanwhile, one evolving concern, and a reason we are taking a somewhat cautious view of things at the moment, is the deterioration in the outlook across parts of Europe stemming from the proliferation of sovereign-debt worries in Greece, and to a lesser degree in Portugal, Spain, Ireland, and the United Kingdom. True, the European Union recently has fashioned a bailout package for Greece and other troubled nations in the euro zone. However, at this point, it is too soon to gauge whether these ambitious steps will be sufficient to stem the tide of concern on the Continent. It is also premature to make a determination as to whether or not Europe's woes will have an effect along our shores. Our sense, at this point, is that our own recovery will not be seriously threatened. However, some fallout is likely, especially as the sinking euro makes our exports more costly overseas, potentially reducing a key source of our own prosperity.

Finally, inflation, which moved up sharply last year, following dramatic gains in oil, food, and commodity prices, has now moved onto a more stable and largely benign path. Going forward, we expect pricing to chart an uneven course, with often sizable swings in oil and commodities being the norm, as the economy's evolving expansion most likely continues. On average, we think prices will increase less sharply over the next year or two than they did before the 2007-2009 recession. Looking further out, we see pricing pressures developing later on in the business up cycle—as is only natural—as demand for labor and materials revives. The Federal Reserve, meanwhile, continues to express support for an accommodative monetary approach. As a result, we now think the Fed is unlikely to raise interest rates until early next year. Once it does opt to tighten, we believe it will do so gingerly. That is because the risks to the sustainability of the up cycle seem too great for the lead bank to move to a materially tighter monetary policy anytime soon—particularly given the volatility in Europe.

FUND EXPENSES (unaudited):

Example

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service (12b-1) fees, and other Fund expenses. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period (January 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010).

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading “Expenses Paid During Period” to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund’s actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund’s actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees, or exchange fees. Therefore, the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

	Beginning account value 1/1/10	Ending account value 6/30/10	Expenses paid during period 1/1/10 thru 6/30/10*
Actual	$ 1,000.00	$ 944.13	$ 4.40
Hypothetical (5% return before expenses)	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,020.38	$ 4.46

* Expenses are equal to the Fund’s annualized expense ratio of 0.89% multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 181/365 to reflect the one-half year period. This expense ratio may differ from the expense ratio shown in the Financial Highlights. The annualized expense ratio would have been 0.98% gross of nonrecurring legal fee reimbursement.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The Value Line Fund, Inc., (the “Fund”) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a diversified, open-end management investment company whose primary investment objective is long term-growth of capital.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

(A) Security Valuation: Securities listed on a securities exchange are valued at the closing sales prices on the date as of which the net asset value is being determined. Securities traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market are valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price. In the absence of closing sales prices for such securities and for securities traded in the over-the-counter market, the security is valued at the midpoint between the latest available and representative asked and bid prices. Short-term instruments with maturities of 60 days or less at the date of purchase are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term instruments with maturities greater than 60 days at the date of purchase are valued at the midpoint between the latest available and representative asked and bid prices, and commencing 60 days prior to maturity such securities are valued at amortized cost. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available or that are not readily marketable and all other assets of the Fund are valued at fair value as the Board of Directors may determine in good faith. In addition, the Fund may use the fair value of a security when the closing market price on the primary exchange where the security is traded no longer accurately reflects the value of a security due to factors affecting one or more relevant securities markets or the specific issuer.

(B) Fair Value Measurements: In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (FASB ASC 820-10), Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (formerly Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (“SFAS”) No. 157), the Fund discloses the fair value of its investments in a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure the fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to valuations based upon unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to valuations based upon unobservable inputs that are significant to the valuation (level 3 measurements). FASB ASC 820-10-35-39 to 55 provides three levels of the fair value hierarchy as follows:

Level 1 — Inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access at the measurement date;

Level 2 — Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, including inputs in markets that are not considered to be active;

Level 3 — Inputs that are unobservable.

During the six months ended June 30, 2010, the Fund adopted the authoritative guidance included in FASB ASC 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, on determining fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and identifying transactions that are not orderly (formerly FSP FAS 157-4). FASB ASC 820-10-35-51A to 51H indicates that if an entity determines that either the volume and/or level of activity for an asset or liability has significantly decreased (from normal conditions for that asset or liability) or price quotations or observable inputs are not associated with orderly transactions, increased analysis and management judgment will be required to estimate fair value.

The Value Line Fund, Inc.
June 30, 2010

Valuation techniques such as an income approach might be appropriate to supplement or replace a market approach in those circumstances. It provides a list of factors to determine whether there has been a significant decrease in relation to normal market activity. Regardless, however, of the valuation technique and inputs used, the objective for the fair value measurement in those circumstances is unchanged from what it would be if markets were operating at normal activity levels and/or transactions were orderly; that is, to determine the current exit price as promulgated by FASB ASC 820-10.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of June 30, 2010 in valuing the Fund's investments carried at value:

Investments in Securities:	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Common Stocks	$86,009,642	$0	$0	$86,009,642
Short-Term Investments	0	500,000	0	500,000
Total Investments in Securities	$86,009,642	$500,000	$0	$86,509,642

As of June 30, 2010, there was no significant security transfer activity from Level 1 to Level 2 or from Level 2 to Level 1.

For the six months ended June 30, 2010, there were no Level 3 investments. The types of inputs used to value each security are identified in the Schedule of Investments, which also includes a breakdown of the Schedule's investments by category.

(C) Repurchase Agreements: In connection with transactions in repurchase agreements, the Fund's custodian takes possession of the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, it is the Fund's policy to mark-to-market the collateral on a daily basis to ensure the adequacy of the collateral. In the event of default of the obligation to repurchase, the Fund has the right to liquidate the collateral and apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the obligation. Under certain circumstances, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the other party to the agreement, realization and/or retention of the collateral or proceeds may be subject to legal proceedings.

(D) Federal Income Taxes: It is the Fund's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies, including the distribution requirements of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

(E) Security Transactions and Distributions: Security transactions are accounted for on the date the securities are purchased or sold. Interest income is accrued as earned. Realized gains and losses on sales of securities are calculated for financial accounting and federal income tax purposes on the identified cost basis. Dividend income and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles.

(F) Foreign Currency Translation: The books and records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Assets and liabilities which are denominated in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars at the prevailing rates of exchange. The Fund does not isolate changes in the value of investments caused by foreign exchange rate differences from the changes due to other circumstances.

Income and expenses are translated to U.S. dollars based upon the rates of exchange on the respective dates of such transactions.

Notes to Financial Statements (unaudited)

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from currency fluctuations realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the differences between the U.S. dollar amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded by the Fund, and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses arise from changes in the value of assets and liabilities, other than investments, at the end of the fiscal period, resulting from changes in the exchange rates. The effect of the change in foreign exchange rates on the value of investments is included in realized gain/loss on investments and change in net unrealized appreciation/ depreciation on investments.

(G) Representations and Indemnifications: In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties which provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

(H) Foreign Taxes: The Fund may be subject to foreign taxes on income, gains on investments, or currency repatriation, a portion of which may be recoverable. The Fund will accrue such taxes and recoveries as applicable, based upon its current interpretation of tax rules and regulations that exist in the markets in which it invests.

(I) Other: On November 4, 2009, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), Value Line, Inc. ("Value Line or VLI"), the Distributor and two former directors and officers of Value Line settled a matter related to brokerage commissions charged by the Distributor to certain Value Line mutual funds ("Funds"), from 1986 through November of 2004 involving alleged misleading disclosures provided by Value Line to the Boards of Directors/Trustees and shareholders of the Funds regarding such brokerage commissions. Value Line paid disgorgement, interest and penalty of $43.7 million in connection with the settlement, which amounts are expected to constitute a "Fair Fund" to be distributed to investors in the Funds who were disadvantaged by such brokerage practices. Value Line will bear all costs associated with any Fair Fund distribution, including retaining a third-party consultant approved by the SEC staff to administer any Fair Fund distribution.

On March 11, 2010, VLI and the Boards of Trustees/Directors of the Value Line Funds entered into an agreement pursuant to which VLI will reimburse the Funds in the aggregate amount of $917,302 for various expenses incurred by the Funds in connection with the SEC matter dated November 4, 2009. The receivable for this expense reimbursement was accrued on March 11, 2010 by the applicable Funds that incurred the expenses and will be paid by VLI in twelve monthly installments commencing April 1, 2010. The Fund accrued $43,666 in expense reimbursements from VLI.

(J) Subsequent Events: On July 20, 2010, the Board of Directors of Value Line approved a transaction involving its wholly owned subsidiaries, EULAV Asset Management, LLC ("EULAV") and EULAV Securities, Inc. ("ESI"). Completion of the transaction is subject to various conditions. If the transaction is completed, Value Line will contribute all of the outstanding stock of ESI to EULAV, EULAV will be converted to a Delaware statutory trust named EULAV Asset Management ("EAM"), Value Line will restructure its ownership of EAM so that it has no voting authority with respect to the election or removal of the trustees of EAM and retains only interests in the revenues and residual profits of EAM and EAM will grant residual profits interests to five individuals selected by the independent directors of Value Line.

The Value Line Fund, Inc.

June 30, 2010

Value Line has informed the Boards of Directors/Trustees of the Value Line Funds (the "Fund Board") that, after the closing of the proposed restructuring, Value Line will no longer control EAM, which will result in the automatic termination of the Fund's investment advisory agreements in accordance with the requirements of the Investment Company Act of 1940. On July 20, 2010, the Fund Board considered matters relevant to the proposed restructuring and approved new investment advisory agreements between the Funds and EAM to take effect upon the closing of the restructuring. The effectiveness of each investment advisory agreement is also contingent upon approval by shareholders of the applicable Value Line mutual fund. Toward this end, a special shareholder meeting for each Value Line mutual fund will be held at which shareholders as of the record date will vote on the proposed new investment advisory agreements with EAM and to elect three persons as members of the Fund Board. It is anticipated that in September 2010, a proxy statement describing the proposals will be sent to each shareholder of record as of the record date. Shareholders who did not own shares as of the record date will not be entitled to notice of, or to vote at, the special shareholder meetings.

5. Investment Advisory Fee, Service and Distribution Fees and Transactions With Affiliates

An advisory fee of $323,408 was paid or payable to EULAV Asset Management, LLC (the “Adviser”) for the six months ended June 30, 2010. This was computed at the rate of 0.70% of the first $100 million of the Fund’s average daily net assets plus 0.65% of the excess thereof, and paid monthly. The Adviser provides research, investment programs, supervision of the investment portfolio and pays costs of administrative services, office space, equipment and compensation of administrative, bookkeeping, and clerical personnel necessary for managing the affairs of the Fund.

The Value Line Fund, Inc.

June 30, 2010

The Adviser also provides persons, satisfactory to the Fund's Board of Directors, to act as officers and employees of the Fund and pays their salaries. Effective May 1, 2009, the Adviser contractually reduced the advisory fee by 0.10% of the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets and 0.15% on the excess there of for a one year period. On March 11, 2010, with an effective date of May 1, 2010, the Adviser contractually agreed to reduce the advisory fee by 0.10% of the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets and 0.15% on the excess there of for a one year period. The fees waived amounted to $46,201 for the six months ended June 30, 2010. The Adviser has no right to recoup previously waived amounts.

The Fund has a Service and Distribution Plan (the "Plan"), adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, which compensates EULAV Securities, Inc. (the "Distributor") for advertising, marketing and distributing the Fund's shares and for servicing the Fund's shareholders at an annual rate of 0.25% of the Fund's average daily net assets. For the six months ended June 30, 2010, fees amounting to $115,503 before fee waivers were accrued under the Plan. Effective May 1, 2007, 2008 and 2009, the Distributor contractually agreed to waive the Fund's 12b-1 fee for one year periods. On March 11, 2010, with an effective date of May 1, 2010, The Distributor contractually agreed to waive 0.25% of the Rule 12b-1 fee for a one year period. For the six months ended June 30, 2010 the fees waived amounted to $115,503. The Distributor has no right to recoup prior waivers.

For the six months ended June 30, 2010, the Fund's expenses were reduced by $115 under a custody credit arrangement with the custodian.

Direct expenses of the Fund are charged to the Fund while common expenses of the Value Line Funds are allocated proportionately based upon the Funds' respective net assets. The Fund bears all other costs and expenses.

Certain officers, employees and directors of Value Line and/or affiliated companies are also officers and a director of the Fund.

The Adviser and/or affiliated companies and the Value Line Profit Sharing and Savings Plan owned 263,376 shares of the Fund's capital stock, representing 2.06% of the outstanding shares at June 30, 2010. In addition, officers and directors of the Fund as a group owned 729 shares of the Fund, representing less than 1% of the outstanding shares.

The Value Line Fund, Inc.

Factors Considered by the Board in Approving the Investment Advisory Agreement for the Value Line Fund, Inc.

The Investment Company Act of 1940 (the “1940 Act”) requires the Board of Directors, including a majority of Directors who are not “interested persons” of The Value Line Fund, Inc. (the “Fund”), as that term is defined in the 1940 Act (the “Independent Directors”), annually to consider the investment advisory agreement (the “Agreement”) between the Fund and its investment adviser, EULAV Asset Management, LLC (the “Adviser”). As required by the 1940 Act, the Board requested and the Adviser provided such information as the Board deemed to be reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the Agreement. At meetings held throughout the year, including the meeting specifically focused upon the review of the Agreement, the Independent Directors met in executive sessions separately from the non-Independent Director of the Fund and any officers of the Adviser. In selecting the Adviser and approving the continuance of the Agreement, the Independent Directors relied upon the assistance of counsel to the Independent Directors.

Both in the meetings which specifically addressed the approval of the Agreement and at other meetings held during the course of the year, the Board, including the Independent Directors, received materials relating to the Adviser’s investment and management services under the Agreement. These materials included information on: (i) the investment performance of the Fund, compared to a peer group of funds consisting of the Fund and all retail and institutional multi-cap growth funds regardless of asset size or primary channel of distribution (the “Performance Universe”), and its benchmark index, each as classified by Lipper Inc., an independent evaluation service (“Lipper”); (ii) the investment process, portfolio holdings, investment restrictions, valuation procedures, and financial statements for the Fund; (iii) sales and redemption data with respect to the Fund; (iv) the general investment outlook in the markets in which the Fund invests; (v) arrangements with respect to the distribution of the Fund’s shares; (vi) the allocation and cost of the Fund’s brokerage (none of which was effected through any affiliate of the Adviser); and (vii) the overall nature, quality and extent of services provided by the Adviser.

As part of the review of the continuance of the Agreement, the Board requested, and the Adviser provided, additional information in order to evaluate the quality of the Adviser’s services and the reasonableness of its fees under the Agreement. In a separate executive session, the Independent Directors reviewed information, which included data comparing: (i) the Fund’s management fee rate, transfer agent and custodian fee rates, service fee (including 12b-1 fees) rates, and the rate of the Fund’s other non-management fees, to those incurred by a peer group of funds consisting of the Fund and 11 other retail no-load multi-cap growth funds, as selected objectively by Lipper (“Expense Group”), and a peer group of funds consisting of the Fund, the Expense Group and all other retail no-load multi-cap growth funds (excluding outliers), as selected objectively by Lipper (“Expense Universe”); (ii) the Fund’s expense ratio to those of its Expense Group and Expense Universe; and (iii) the Fund’s investment performance over various time periods to the average performance of the Performance Universe as well as the appropriate Lipper Index, as selected objectively by Lipper (the “Lipper Index”). In the separate executive session, the Independent Directors also reviewed information regarding: (a) the financial results and condition of the Adviser’s parent company, the Adviser’s and certain of its affiliates’ profitability from the services that have been performed for the Fund as well as the Value Line family of funds; (b) the Fund’s current investment management staffing; and (c) the Fund’s potential for achieving economies of scale. In support of its review of the statistical information, the Board was provided with a detailed description of the methodology used by Lipper to determine the Expense Group, the Expense Universe and the Performance Universe to prepare its information. The Independent Directors also requested and reviewed information provided by the Adviser relating to the settlement of a matter brought by the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding Value Line Securities, Inc.¹, the Fund’s principal underwriter and affiliate of the Adviser (the “Distributor”), Value Line, Inc., and two former directors and officers of Value Line, Inc. Value Line, Inc. informed the Board that it and the Adviser continue to have adequate liquid assets, and that the resolution of this matter did not have a materially adverse effect on the ability of the Adviser or the Distributor to perform their respective contracts with the Fund.

- 1 On May 6, 2009, Value Line Securities, Inc. changed its name to EULAV Securities, Inc. No other change was made to the Distributor's organization, including its operations and personnel.

The Value Line Fund, Inc.

The following summarizes matters considered by the Board in connection with its renewal of the Agreement. However, the Board did not identify any single factor as all-important or controlling, and the summary does not detail all the matters that were considered.

Investment Performance. The Board reviewed the Fund's overall investment performance and compared it to its Performance Universe and the Lipper Index. The Board noted that the Fund's performance for the one-year, three-year, five-year and ten-year periods ended December 31, 2009 was below the performance of both the Performance Universe average and the Lipper Index. The Board noted that it approved changes to the Fund's investment policies in March 2009 that were recommended by the Adviser to address the Fund's underperformance, and that it may take longer than the current period in order to for those changes to produce results.

The Adviser's Personnel and Methods. The Board reviewed the background of the portfolio manager responsible for the daily management of the Fund's portfolio, seeking to achieve the Fund's investment objectives and adhering to the Fund's investment strategies. The Independent Directors also engaged in discussions with the Adviser's senior management responsible for the overall functioning of the Fund's investment operations. The Board concluded that the Fund's management team and the Adviser's overall resources were adequate and that the Adviser had investment management capabilities and personnel essential to performing its duties under the Agreement.

Management Fee and Expenses. The Board considered the Adviser's fee under the Agreement relative to the management fees charged by its Expense Group and Expense Universe averages. The Board noted that the Adviser and the Board previously agreed that the Adviser would contractually waive a portion of the Fund's management fee equal to 0.10% on the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets and 0.15% on any additional assets, thereby reducing the management fee rate from 0.70% to 0.60% on the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets and from 0.65% to 0.50% on any additional assets for the one-year period ending April 30, 2010. The Adviser and the Board have currently agreed to extend this contractual fee waiver through April 30, 2011. Such waiver can not be changed without the Board's approval during the contractual waiver period. The Board noted that, for the most recent fiscal year, the Fund's management fee rate without giving effect to the contractual management fee waiver was less than that of both the Expense Group average and the Expense Universe average. The Board also considered the Fund's total expense ratio relative to its Expense Group and Expense Universe averages. The Board noted that the Distributor and the Board previously agreed that the Distributor would contractually waive a portion of the Fund's Rule 12b-1 fee, effectively reducing the Fund's Rule 12b-1 fee rate from 0.25% to 0.00% for the one-year period ending April 30, 2010. The Distributor and the Board have currently agreed to extend this contractual 12b-1 fee waiver through April 30, 2011. As a result of this Rule 12b-1 fee waiver and the management fee waiver, the Board noted that the Fund's total expense ratio after giving effect to these waivers was less than that of the Expense Group average and the Expense Universe average. The Board concluded that the average expense ratio was satisfactory for the purpose of approving the continuance of the Agreement for the coming year.

Nature and Quality of Other Services. The Board considered the nature, quality, cost and extent of other services provided by the Adviser and the Distributor. At meetings held throughout the year, the Board reviewed the effectiveness of the Adviser's overall compliance program, as well as the services provided by the Distributor. The Board viewed favorably the increased emphasis being placed by the Adviser on its overall compliance program as well as steps being undertaken to enhance the shareholders' experience with the Fund, such as a more robust website. The Board also reviewed the services provided by the Adviser and its affiliates in supervising third party service providers. Based on this review, the Board concluded that the nature, quality, cost and extent of such other services provided by the Adviser and its affiliates were satisfactory, reliable and beneficial to the Fund's shareholders.

Profitability. The Board considered the level of profitability of the Adviser and its affiliates with respect to the Fund individually and in the aggregate for all the funds within the Value Line group of funds, including the impact of certain actions taken during prior years. These actions included the Adviser's reduction (voluntary in some instances and contractual in other instances) of management and/or Rule 12b-1 fees for certain funds, the Adviser's termination of the use of soft dollar research, and the cessation of trading through the Distributor. The Board concluded that the profitability of the Adviser and its affiliates with respect to the Fund, including the financial results derived from the Fund's Agreement, were within a range the Board considered reasonable.

Other Benefits. The Board also considered the character and amount of other direct and incidental benefits received by the Adviser and its affiliates from their association with the Fund. The Board concluded that potential "fall-out" benefits that the Adviser and its affiliates may receive, such as greater name recognition, appear to be reasonable, and may in some cases benefit the Fund.

Economies of Scale. The Agreement includes a breakpoint applicable to the Adviser's fee under which the first $100 million of the Fund's average daily net assets are subject to a fee of 0.70% (0.60% after giving effect to the waiver) and any additional assets are subject to a fee of 0.65% (0.50% after giving effect to the waiver). The Board noted that, given the current and anticipated size of the Fund, any additional perceived and potential economies of scale were not yet a significant consideration for the Fund and the addition of additional break points was determined not to be necessary at this time.

Fees and Services Provided for Other Comparable Funds/Accounts Managed by the Adviser and its Affiliates. In addition to comparing the Fund's management fee rate to unaffiliated mutual funds included in the Fund's Expense Group and Expense Universe, the Board was informed by the Adviser that the Adviser and its affiliates do not manage any investment companies comparable to the Fund. The Adviser informed the Board that it manages two general equity non-mutual fund institutional asset management accounts. The Board noted that the Fund's management fee rate was below that charged to the non-mutual fund institutional asset management accounts, even though the Adviser stated that it is required to provide the Fund with more and different types of services under the Agreement than the Adviser is required to provide the non-mutual fund institutional asset management accounts.

Conclusion. The Board, in light of the Adviser's overall performance, considered it appropriate to continue to retain the Adviser as the Fund's investment adviser. Based on their evaluation of all material factors deemed relevant, and with the advice of independent counsel, the Board determined that the Fund's management fee rate payable to the Adviser under the Agreement does not constitute fees that are so disproportionately large as to bear no reasonable relationship to the services rendered and that could not have been the product of arm's-length bargaining, and concluded that the management fee rate under the Agreement is fair and reasonable. Further, the Board concluded that the Fund's Agreement is fair and reasonable and approved the continuation of the Agreement for another year.
