CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In order to utilize the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Reform Act"), Marconi plc (the "Company") is providing the following cautionary statement. Except for historical information contained herein, statements contained in this Report on Form 6-K may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Reform Act. The words "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "estimate", "plan", "assume", "positioned", "will", "may", "risk" and other similar expressions which are predictions of or indicate future events and future trends which do not relate to historical matters identify forward-looking statements.

Edgar Filing: MARCONI PLC - Form 6-K

Reliance should not be placed on such statements because they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which are in some cases beyond the control of the Company, together with its subsidiaries (the "Group"), and may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Group to differ materially from anticipated future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements (and from past results, performance or achievement). Certain factors that may cause such differences include but are not limited to the following: (1) any major disruption in production at our key facilities; (2) changes in the environmental, tax and other laws and regulations, which, among other things, could cause us to incur substantial additional capital expenditures and operation and maintenance costs; and (3) adverse changes in the markets for our products, including as a result of increased competition in the highly competitive international markets for such products. These and other risks, uncertainties and factors are discussed in the Company's Registration Statement on Form F-1 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including this Form 6-K. Shareholders and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as to the Company's judgment as of the date hereof. Any such forward-looking statements are not intended to give any assurance as to future results. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether to reflect new information or future events or circumstances or otherwise.

MARCONI AND RT GROUP AGREE CAPITAL RETURN FROM ULTRAMAST JOINT VENTURE

Agreement to return GBP45 million cash to Marconi and settle all outstanding litigation relating to Ultramast joint venture

London - December 19, 2002 - Marconi plc (MONI) today announced that Marconi Corporation plc has reached agreement with RT Group plc (in members' voluntary liquidation), and its subsidiary RT Group Telecom Services Limited, on a return of capital from Ultramast, the joint venture set up in December 2000. Subject to completion of the reduction of capital, the agreement provides for both companies to waive all outstanding litigation relating to the joint venture. On completion, RT Group will assume full control of all of Ultramast.

Upon completion of the reduction of capital, which is expected in February 2003, Marconi should receive approximately GBP45 million in cash, of which approximately GBP20 million was paid into court pending the outcome of a lawsuit between the parties in August 2002. The agreement proposes that approximately GBP8 million cash will remain in Ultramast to finance ongoing operations following completion of the reduction of capital.
