Commentary

SABB recorded a net profit of SAR3,040 million (US$811 million) for the year ended 31 December 2006. This represents an increase of 21.4 per cent over the SAR2,504 million (US$668 million) earned in the same period in 2005.

Customer deposits increased to SAR59.3 billion (US$15.8 billion) at 31 December 2006 from SAR48.5 billion (US$12.9 billion) at 31 December 2005.

Loans and advances to customers increased to SAR42.5 billion (US$11.3 billion) at 31 December 2006 from SAR40.8 billion (US$10.9 billion) at 31 December 2005.

The bank's investment portfolio totalled SAR21.7 billion (US$5.8 billion) at 31 December 2006, an increase from SAR16.4 billion (US$4.4 billion) at 31 December 2005.

John Coverdale, managing director of SABB, said: "SABB has successfully managed to attain remarkable results in 2006, achieving a 21.4 per cent growth in net profits for its shareholders. These results were achieved due to our increased focus on and diversification of core banking products and services, which positions the bank well for future growth.

"Operating income of SAR4,617 million (US$1,231 million) for the year ended 31 December 2006 is up SAR797 million (US$213 million), or 20.9 per cent, over the same period in 2005, while the cost base has increased by 16.2 per cent reflecting SABB's continuing investment in customer service, technology and in its staff. Total operating expenses have increased by 23.7 per cent.

"Credit quality remains sound. Increased levels of provision against card and consumer loans relate to business growth and expansion into new market sectors. Deposit levels remain high due to increased market liquidity and significant corporate balances relating to major projects in progress. The bank's capital and liquidity positions are very strong.

"Following the formal establishment of our investment banking affiliate, HSBC Saudi Arabia Ltd, in the third quarter of 2006, SABB has now been awarded an insurance operating licence for its SABB Takaful company allowing it to offer a comprehensive range of Shariah-compliant Takaful products for personal and corporate customers.

"The SABB Board of Directors has recommended a final net dividend of SAR2.25 (US$0.60) per share for the second half of 2006. This follows the payment earlier in 2006 of an interim dividend of SAR1.5 (US$0.40) net per share.

"We thank our customers for their continued support, and our staff for their commitment and contribution to the bank's success."
