Quarterly Dividend

- The Board has declared a quarterly dividend of $0.10 per share

Mike Barnes, Chief Executive Officer, commented: "We are pleased with our Holiday Season performance, with same store sales up 7.8%. We believe our strong performance in both the US and the UK for the Holiday Season and year to date is due to the exceptional execution by our teams in both divisions. I would like to thank them all very much for their dedication and hard work.

Our performance is built on the long term competitive strengths of the business, including the great customer experience which our teams deliver, the strength of our merchandise, our continued investment in advertising to support our store concepts and merchandising initiatives, and our US customer finance programs, which are highly effective in supporting our customers' jewelry purchases.

We believe that Signet is well positioned for Fiscal 2013 and we will remain focused on providing our customers with an outstanding experience and investing in the business to further our competitive strengths, in order to continue to create shareholder value."

1. Non-GAAP measure, excludes a make whole payment arising from prepayment of private placement notes on November 26, 2010 of $47.5 million, $29.5 million net of taxes and $0.34 per share ("the 'Make Whole' payment"); see Note 1.

2. Non-GAAP measure, net cash flows provided by operating activities less cash flows used in investing activities.

FISCAL 2012 GUIDANCE

For Fiscal 2012, income before income taxes is anticipated to be between $494 million and $501 million, up 64% to 67% (year ended January 29, 2011 ("Fiscal 2011"): $300.4 million). Diluted earnings per share are expected to be between $3.67 and $3.72, an increase of 58% to 60% (Fiscal 2011: $2.32). Fiscal 2011 included a 'Make Whole' payment arising from the prepayment in full of private placement notes on November 26, 2010, which amounted to $47.5 million, $29.5 million net of taxes and $0.34 per share; excluding this item, income before income taxes is expected to be up 42% to 44%, with diluted earnings per share expected to be up 38% to 40%; non-GAAP measures, see Note 1.

Management's financial objectives for Fiscal 2012 as set out in Signet's Form 10-K for Fiscal 2011 and the anticipated performance in Fiscal 2012 are set out below:

- Improve gross margin ratio.

Gross margin ratio in Fiscal 2012 is anticipated to be up 200 to 210 basis points compared to Fiscal 2011.

- Maintain selling, general and administrative costs to sales ratio broadly similar to Fiscal 2011.

Selling, general and administrative costs to sales ratio expected to be down 25 to 30 basis points, primarily reflecting an improved performance in the US division.

- Capital expenditure of $110 million to $130 million.

Capital expenditure anticipated to be $105 million to $110 million.

- Positive free cash flow¹ (net cash flow from operations less cash flows used in investing activities) of between $150 million and $200 million.

Free cash flow expectation was raised at the time of the second quarter results to $175 million to $225 million, and is now expected to be $230 million to $240 million.

1. Non-GAAP measure.

QUARTERLY DIVIDEND AND SHARE BUYBACK PROGRAM

Reflecting the Board's confidence in the strength of the business, our ability to invest in growth initiatives, and the Board's commitment to building long term shareholder value, a quarterly cash dividend of $0.10 per Signet Common Share has been declared for the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2012, payable on February 27, 2012 to shareholders of record on January 27, 2012, with an ex-dividend date of January 25, 2012.

In addition, the $300 million share repurchase program over the next 24 months announced by the Board on October 26, 2011 becomes effective on January 16, 2012.

This release contains statements which are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements, based upon management's beliefs and expectations as well as on assumptions made by and data currently available to management, appear in a number of places throughout this release and include statements regarding, among other things, Signet's results of operation, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, priorities, growth, strategies and the industry in which Signet operates. The use of the words "expects," "intends," "anticipates," "estimates," "predicts," "believes," "should," "potential," "may," "forecast," "objective," "plan," or "target," and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to general economic conditions, the merchandising, pricing and inventory policies followed by Signet, the reputation of Signet and its brands, the level of competition in the jewelry sector, the cost and availability of diamonds, gold and other precious metals, regulations relating to consumer credit, seasonality of Signet's business, financial market risks, deterioration in consumers' financial condition, exchange rate fluctuations, changes in consumer attitudes regarding jewelry, management of social, ethical and environmental risks, inadequacy in and disruptions to internal controls and systems, changes in assumptions used in making accounting estimates relating to items such as extended service plans and pensions, and risks relating to Signet being a Bermuda corporation.

For a discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially, see the "Risk Factors" section of Signet's Fiscal 2011 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on March 30, 2011. Actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements. Signet undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances, except as required by law.

Note 1 - Non-GAAP Measures

Impact of 'Make Whole' Payment

On November 26, 2010, Signet incurred a $47.5 million non-recurring 'Make Whole' payment arising from the prepayment in full of its private placement notes. Management considers it useful to exclude this significant, unusual and non-recurring item to analyze and explain changes and trends in Signet's results. The impact is shown below:

	Income before income taxes $ million	Diluted EPS $
Fiscal 2011	300.4	2.32
Impact of 'Make Whole' payment	47.5	0.34
As Adjusted	347.9	2.66
