Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: The statements contained in this report on Form 8-K are forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements.

We urge you to carefully consider the following important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations of the company or its management:

Market demand for semiconductors, particularly for digital signal processors and analog chips in key markets such as telecommunications and computers;

TI's ability to maintain or improve profit margins, including its ability to utilize its manufacturing facilities at sufficient levels to cover its fixed operating costs, in an intensely competitive and cyclical industry;

TI's ability to develop, manufacture and market innovative products in a rapidly changing technological environment;

TI's ability to compete in products and prices in an intensely competitive industry;

TI's ability to maintain and enforce a strong intellectual property portfolio and obtain needed licenses from third parties;

Consolidation of TI's patent licensees and market conditions reducing royalty payments to TI;

Timely completion and successful integration of announced acquisitions;

Economic, social and political conditions in the countries in which TI, its customers or its suppliers operate, including security risks, possible disruptions in the transportation networks and fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates;
