QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. Q: Who may attend the annual meeting?

A: All shareholders who held shares of our common stock on March 25, 2004, may attend. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank, or other holder of record, often referred to as in street name, just bring a copy of your brokerage account statement or a proxy card which you can get from your broker, bank, or other holder of record of your shares.

2. Q: How do I vote?

A: You may vote in person at the meeting or you may appoint a proxy, via the Internet, by telephone, or by mail, to vote your shares. Please refer to page three of this proxy statement for a description of the voting methods available this year. If you return a signed card but do not provide voting instructions, your shares will be voted for the two proposals to be voted on at the meeting.

3. Q: How do I revoke my proxy?

A: You have the right to revoke your proxy at any time before the meeting by:

- (1) notifying our corporate secretary in writing;
 - (2) authorizing a different proxy via the Internet;
 - (3) authorizing a different proxy by telephone;
 - (4) returning a later-dated proxy card; or
 - (5) voting in person.

4. Q: Is my vote confidential?

A: Proxy cards, ballots, and voting tabulations that identify individual shareholders are mailed and returned directly to our stock transfer agent which is responsible for tabulating the vote in a manner that protects your voting privacy. It is our policy to protect the confidentiality of shareholder votes throughout the voting process. The vote of any shareholder will not be disclosed to our directors, officers, or employees, except:

to meet legal requirements;

to assert or defend claims for or against us; or in those limited circumstances where

- (1) a proxy solicitation is contested;
- (2) a shareholder writes comments on a proxy card; or
- (3) a shareholder authorizes disclosure.

Edgar Filing: ONEOK INC /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

Both the tabulators and the inspectors of election have been, and will remain, independent of us. This policy does not prohibit shareholders from disclosing the nature of their votes to our directors, officers, or employees, or prevent us from voluntarily communicating with our shareholders, ascertaining which shareholders have voted, or making efforts to encourage shareholders to vote.

Table of Contents

5. Q: How is common stock held in our Thrift Plan voted?

A: Thrift Plan votes receive the same confidentiality as all other shares voted. If you hold shares of our common stock through our Thrift Plan, in order for your Thrift Plan shares to be voted as you wish, you must instruct the Thrift Plan's trustee, Bank of Oklahoma, N.A., how to vote those shares by providing your instructions electronically via the Internet, by telephone, or by mail. If you fail to provide your instructions or if you return an instruction card with an unclear voting designation, or with no voting designation at all, then the trustee will vote the shares in your account in proportion to the way the other participants in our Thrift Plan vote their shares.

6. Q: How will shares for which a proxy is appointed be voted on any other business conducted at the annual meeting that is not described in this proxy statement?

A: Although we do not know of any business to be considered at the 2004 annual meeting other than the proposals described in this proxy statement, if any other business is properly presented at the annual meeting, your proxy gives authority to David L. Kyle, our Chairman of the Board, President, and Chief Executive Officer, and John A. Gaberino, Jr., our Senior Vice President and General Counsel, to vote on these matters at their discretion.

7. Q: What shares are included on the proxy card(s)?

A: The shares on your proxy card(s) represent ALL of your shares, including those in our Direct Stock Purchase and Dividend Reinvestment Plan, but excluding shares held for your account by Bank of Oklahoma, N.A., as trustee for our Thrift Plan. If you do not authorize a proxy via the Internet, by telephone, or by mail, your shares, except for those held in our Thrift Plan, will not be voted. Please refer to Question #5 for an explanation of the voting procedures for our shares held by our Thrift Plan.

8. Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: If your shares are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one proxy card and proxy statement. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all your shares are voted. We encourage you to have all accounts registered in the same name and address whenever possible.

9. Q: What out-of-pocket costs will we incur in soliciting proxies?

A: Morrow & Co., Inc. will assist us in the distribution of proxy materials and solicitation of votes for a fee of $8,500, plus out-of-pocket expenses. We also reimburse brokerage firms, banks, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses for forwarding proxy materials to shareholders. We will pay all costs of soliciting proxies.

10. Q: Who is soliciting my proxy?

A: Our Board of Directors is sending you this proxy statement in connection with its solicitation of proxies for use at our 2004 annual meeting of shareholders. Certain of our directors, officers, and employees also may solicit proxies on our behalf in person or by mail, telephone, or fax.

OUTSTANDING STOCK AND VOTING

Voting

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 25, 2004, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. As of that date, 102,500,784 shares of common stock were outstanding. Each outstanding share entitles the holder to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of shareholders at the meeting. No other class of our stock is entitled to vote on matters to come before the meeting.

Shareholders of record may vote in person or by proxy at the annual meeting. All properly submitted proxies received prior to the commencement of voting at the annual meeting will be voted in accordance with the voting instructions contained on the proxy. Shares for which signed proxies are submitted without voting instructions will be voted (except to the extent they constitute broker non-votes) (1) FOR Proposal 1 to elect the nominees for director proposed by our Board of Directors and (2) FOR Proposal 2 to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2004. In connection with any other business that may properly come before the meeting, proxies will be voted in the discretion of the persons named in the proxy. The term broker non-votes refers to proxies submitted by brokers that do not contain voting instructions on a particular matter. The persons named as proxies were designated by the Board of Directors of our company.

To vote shares held through a broker, bank, or other holder of record, a shareholder must provide voting instructions to his or her broker, bank, or other holder of record. Brokerage firms, banks, and other fiduciaries are required to request voting instructions for shares they hold on behalf of their customers and others. We encourage you to provide instructions to your brokerage firm, bank, or other fiduciary on how to vote your shares. Under New York Stock Exchange rules, brokerage firms will have discretion to vote, at our annual meeting, the shares of customers who fail to provide voting instructions. If you do not provide instructions to your brokerage firm to vote your shares, your brokerage firm may either vote your shares on the matters being presented at our annual meeting or leave your shares unvoted.

Our stock transfer agent will be responsible for tabulating and certifying the votes cast at the meeting.

Quorum

The holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the annual meeting, represented in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Shares for which completed proxies are submitted without voting instructions, including broker non-votes, and abstentions will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the annual meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the scheduled time of the meeting, the shareholders who are present in person or by proxy may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present. If the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the time the adjournment is taken, no other notice will be given. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if a new record date is set for the adjourned meeting, a notice will be given to each shareholder entitled to notice and to vote at the meeting.

Matters to be Voted Upon

At the annual meeting, the following matters will be voted upon:

- (1) a proposal to elect four class A directors and one class B director as members of our Board of Directors (Proposal 1);
- (2) a proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2004 (Proposal 2); and
- (3) such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting, although we know of no other matters that are likely to be brought before the annual meeting.

Table of Contents

Votes Required

Proposal 1 Election of Directors. In accordance with our by-laws, directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the annual meeting. Accordingly, broker non-votes with respect to the election of directors will not be included in the tabulation of the votes cast.

Proposal 2 Ratification of Appointment of KPMG LLP as Independent Auditor. In accordance with our by-laws, approval of the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2004, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock voting or abstaining on this proposal at the meeting. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes with respect to the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP will not be included in the tabulation of votes cast and abstentions.

Revoking a Proxy

Any shareholder may revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is voted at the meeting by (1) delivering a proxy card bearing a later date, (2) filing with our corporate secretary a written notice of revocation, (3) authorizing a different proxy by the Internet or by telephone, or (4) voting in person at the meeting. The mailing address of our executive office is 100 West Fifth Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103. A shareholder's presence without voting at the annual meeting will not automatically revoke a previously delivered proxy, and any revocation during the meeting will not affect votes previously taken.

Solicitation

Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail and telephone. We have engaged Morrow & Co., Inc. to solicit proxies for a fee of $8,500, plus out-of-pocket expenses. In addition, our officers, directors, and employees may solicit proxies on our behalf in person or by mail, telephone, and facsimile transmission, for which such persons will receive no additional compensation. We will pay all costs of soliciting proxies. We will reimburse brokerage firms, banks, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses for forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of our common stock.

GOVERNANCE OF THE COMPANY

Governance Developments

We regularly monitor developments in the area of corporate governance. In July 2002, the United States Congress passed the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which, among other things, sets forth a number of new corporate governance and disclosure requirements. The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted a significant number of new regulations under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. In addition, the New York Stock Exchange has recently adopted changes to its corporate governance and listing requirements. The Board of Directors and its committees have taken actions to comply with these rules and standards, including adopting amended charters for our Audit, Executive Compensation, and Corporate Governance Committees. Copies of the amended charters of our Audit Committee, Executive Compensation Committee, Corporate

Edgar Filing: ONEOK INC /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

Governance Committee, and Executive Committee are available on our website at www.oneok.com and from our Investor Relations Department.

We will continue to monitor the progress of pending corporate governance legislation and related rule-making initiatives and will continue to evaluate our committee charters, duties, and responsibilities with the intention of maintaining full compliance with existing and any new governance requirements.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

In 1999, our Board of Directors adopted corporate governance guidelines. Key areas of the guidelines are: director qualification standards, including the requirement that a majority of our directors be independent ; director responsibilities; director access to management; director compensation; management succession; evaluation of performance of our Board; and structure and operations of our Board. Our Board of Directors periodically reviews our corporate governance guidelines and may revise the guidelines from time to time as conditions warrant. The full text of our corporate governance guidelines is published on our website at www.oneok.com and is available from our Investor Relations Department.

Table of Contents

Code of Business Conduct

Since 1998, we have had a code of business conduct which applies to our directors, officers (including our principal executive and financial officers, principal accounting officer, or controller and other persons performing similar functions) and all other employees. We require all directors, officers, and employees to adhere to our code of business conduct in addressing the legal and ethical issues encountered in conducting their work for the company. Our code of business conduct requires that our directors, officers, and employees avoid conflicts of interest, comply with all laws and other legal requirements, conduct business in an honest and ethical manner, and otherwise act with integrity and in our company's best interest. All directors, officers, and employees are required to report any conduct that they believe to be an actual or apparent violation of our code of business conduct.

The full text of our code of business conduct is published on our website at www.oneok.com and is available from our Investor Relations Department. We intend to disclose on our web site future amendments to, or waivers from, our code of business conduct, as required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange.

Complaint Procedures

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission require companies to have procedures to receive, retain, and treat complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters and to allow for the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Our Board of Directors has adopted a whistleblower policy which includes such procedures. The full text of this policy is published on our website at www.oneok.com and is available from our Investor Relations Department.

Director Independence

Our corporate governance guidelines provide that a majority of our Board will be independent under the applicable independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission. These guidelines and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange provide that, in qualifying a director as independent, the Board must make an affirmative determination that the director has no material relationship with our company either directly or as a partner, shareholder, or officer of an organization that has a relationship with our company.

Our Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that its members William M. Bell, James C. Day, William L. Ford, Bert H. Mackie, Pattye L. Moore, Douglas A. Newsom, Gary D. Parker, and J.D. Scott have no material relationship with our company and each otherwise qualifies as independent under our corporate governance guidelines, our director independence guidelines, and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board's determinations of director independence were made in accordance with the director independence guidelines adopted by the Board which include categorical standards of independence. Our director independence guidelines are included in this proxy statement as Appendix A.

Directors who meet these standards are considered to be independent.

Board and Committee Membership

Our business, property, and affairs are managed under the direction of our Board of Directors. Members of our Board are kept informed of our business through discussions with our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and other officers, by reviewing materials provided to them, by visiting our offices and facilities, and by participating in meetings of the Board and its committees.

During 2003, the Board of Directors held eight regular meetings and four special meetings. All of our incumbent Directors attended at least 75 percent of all meetings of the Board and Board committees on which they served in 2003, except Mollie B. Williford, who, because of pre-existing commitments, was able to attend 66% of the six meetings of the Board and 83% of the meetings of the two Board committees on which she served held after her election to the Board on May 9, 2003. In addition, all members of our Board of Directors, except Ms. Williford, attended our 2003 annual meeting of shareholders in Tulsa, Oklahoma on May 15, 2003. We strongly support and encourage each member of our Board to attend each of our annual meetings of shareholders.

The Board has four standing committees consisting of the Audit Committee, the Corporate Governance Committee, the Executive Compensation Committee, and the Executive Committee. The table below provides current membership of our Board and each of our Board committees. Each member of our Audit Committee, Corporate Governance Committee, and Executive Compensation Committee is independent under our corporate governance guidelines, director independence guidelines, and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

The responsibilities of our Board committees are summarized below. From time to time the Board, in its discretion, may form other committees.

The Audit Committee. Under the terms of its charter, the Audit Committee meets at least four times each year, including periodic meetings held separately with each of management, our internal auditor and our independent auditor. The Audit Committee held six meetings in 2003. The Audit Committee represents and assists the Board with the oversight of the integrity of our financial statements and internal controls, our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, and the performance of our internal audit function and the independent auditor. In addition, the Committee is responsible for:

appointing, compensating, retaining, and overseeing our independent auditor; reviewing the scope, plans, and results relating to our internal and external audits and our financial statements;

reviewing our financial condition;

monitoring and evaluating the integrity of our financial reporting processes and procedures;

assessing our significant business and financial risks and exposures and evaluating the adequacy of our internal controls in connection with such risks and exposures, including, but not limited to, accounting and disclosure controls; reviewing our policies on ethical business conduct and monitoring our compliance with those policies; and monitoring our litigation and legal costs.

Table of Contents

Our independent auditor reports directly to our Audit Committee. The Board has determined that William M. Bell, chair of our Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Executive Compensation Committee. Our Executive Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing annual and long-term performance goals and objectives for our officers. This responsibility includes:

discharging the Board of Directors' responsibilities relating to compensation, benefits, and personnel administration of our employees;

evaluating the performance, and recommending to the Board of Directors the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer and principal executive officers and such other officers as the committee may determine;

reviewing our executive compensation programs to ensure the attraction, retention, and appropriate compensation of executive officers in order to motivate their performance in the achievement of our business objectives, and to align their interests with the long-term interests of our shareholders; and reviewing and making recommendations to the Board on executive and director compensation, personnel policies, programs, and plans.

The Committee employs a compensation consultant to assist in the evaluation of the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer and other officers. For more information on executive compensation, see the 2004 Report of the Executive Compensation Committee included elsewhere in this proxy statement. Under the terms of its charter, the Executive Compensation Committee meets at least two times each year. The Committee held four meetings in 2003.

The Corporate Governance Committee. Our Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for considering and making recommendations to the Board concerning the appropriate size, function, and needs of the Board. This responsibility includes:

identifying and recommending qualified director candidates, including qualified director candidates suggested by our shareholders in written submissions to our corporate secretary in accordance with our by-laws;

making recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to electing directors and filling vacancies on the Board;

reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the organization, structure, size, composition, and operation of the Board and its committees;

Edgar Filing: ONEOK INC /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

adopting plans and policies for management succession and development, and an effective process for director selection and tenure by making recommendations on the Board's organization and practices and by aiding in identifying and recruiting director candidates; and reviewing and making recommendations with respect to other corporate governance matters.

Under the terms of its charter, the Corporate Governance Committee meets at least two times each year. The Committee held four meetings in 2003.

The Executive Committee. In the intervals between meetings of our Board of Directors, the Executive Committee may, except as otherwise provided in our certificate of incorporation, exercise the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of our property, affairs, and business. The function of this committee is to act on major matters where it deems action appropriate, providing a degree of flexibility and ability to respond to time-sensitive business and legal matters without calling a special meeting of our full Board. This committee reports to the Board at its next regular meeting on any actions taken. It is our practice to seek ratification by the full Board of the actions taken by the Executive Committee. The Committee did not meet in 2003.

Director Nominations

Our corporate governance guidelines provide that the Board is responsible for nominating candidates for Board membership, and delegates the screening process to the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board. This Committee, with recommendations and input from the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer and other directors and, to the extent provided, from shareholders, will evaluate the qualifications of each director candidate and assess the appropriate mix of skills and characteristics required of Board members in the context of the perceived needs of the Board at a given point in time. This Committee is responsible for recommending to the full Board candidates for nomination by the Board for election as members of our Board of Directors.

Candidates for nomination by the Board, including candidates recommended by our shareholders, must be committed to devote the time and effort necessary to be productive members of the Board and should possess the level of education, experience, sophistication, and expertise required to perform the duties of a member of a Board of Directors of a public company of our size and scope. In nominating candidates, the Board will endeavor to establish director diversity in personal background, race, gender, age, and nationality. The Board also seeks to maintain a mix that includes, but is not limited to, the following areas of core competency: accounting and finance; investment banking; business judgment; management; industry knowledge; crisis response; international business; leadership; strategic vision; law; and corporate relations.

The Corporate Governance Committee's charter provides that the Committee has the responsibility, in consultation with our Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, to search for, recruit, screen, interview, and select candidates for new directors as necessary to fill vacancies or the additional needs of the Board, and to consider management and shareholder recommendations for candidates for nomination by the Board. In carrying out this responsibility, the Committee evaluates the qualifications and performance of incumbent directors and determines whether to recommend them for re-election to the Board. In addition, the Committee determines, as necessary, the portfolio of skills, experience, diversity, perspective, and background required for the effective functioning of the Board considering our business strategy and our regulatory, geographic, and market environments. The Committee has also retained a third-party search consultant to assist the Committee from time to time in identifying and evaluating director candidates.

Our Board has recently approved an amendment to our corporate governance guidelines to add a policy regarding the Committee's consideration of prospective director candidates recommended by shareholders for nomination by our Board. Under this policy, any shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective candidate for nomination by our Board for election at our 2005 annual meeting should send a letter of recommendation to our corporate secretary at our principal executive offices no later than September 30, 2004. The letter should include, in addition to the name, address and number of shares owned by the recommending shareholder, including, if the recommending shareholder is not a shareholder of record, proof of ownership of the type referred to in Rule 14a-8(b)(2) of the proxy rules of the Securities Exchange Commission, the prospective candidate's name and address, a listing of the prospective candidate's background, qualifications and relationships with our company, and all other information necessary for our Board to determine whether the prospective candidate meets the independence standards under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange and our director independence guidelines. A signed statement from the prospective candidate should accompany the letter of recommendation indicating that he or she consents to being considered as a nominee and that, if nominated by the Board and elected by the shareholders, he or she will serve as a director. The Committee evaluates prospective candidates recommended by shareholders for nomination by our Board in light of the factors set forth above.

Neither the Committee, the Board of Directors, nor our company itself discriminates in any way against prospective candidates for nomination by the Board on the basis of age, sex, race, religion, or other personal characteristics. There are no differences in the manner in which the Committee or the Board evaluates prospective candidates based on whether or not the prospective candidate is recommended by a shareholder.

In addition to having the ability to recommend prospective candidates for nomination by our Board, under our by-laws, shareholders may themselves nominate candidates for election at an annual shareholders meeting. Any shareholder who desires to nominate candidates for election as directors at our 2005 annual meeting, must follow the procedures set forth in our by-laws. Under these procedures, notice of a shareholder nomination for the election of a director must be received by our corporate secretary at our principal executive offices no earlier than 90 days and no later than 60 days before our 2005 annual meeting, so long as we announce the date of our 2005 annual meeting at least 70 days prior to the date of such meeting. Otherwise, our corporate secretary must receive notice of a shareholder nomination by the close of business on the tenth day following the earlier of the day on which notice of the date of the meeting is mailed or the day on which public announcement is made. In accordance with our by-laws, a shareholder notice must contain certain information, including, as to such person whom the shareholder desires to nominate for election as a director: (a) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person; (b) the principal occupation or employment of such person; (c) the class and number of our shares which are beneficially owned by such person on the date of such shareholder's notice; and (d) any other information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, without limitation, such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected. In addition, as to the shareholder giving the notice, the notice must set forth the name and address, as they appear on our books, of such shareholder and any other shareholders known by such shareholder to be supporting such nominee, and the class and number of our shares which are beneficially owned by such shareholder on the date of such shareholder's notice and by any other shareholders known by such shareholder to be supporting such nominee on the date of such shareholder's notice.

- (3) Ms. Williford's annual Board retainers were pro-rated to reflect her election to the Board in May 2003.

Non-employee directors may defer all or a part of their annual cash retainer, annual stock retainer, and meeting fees under our Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors. During the year ended December 31, 2003, approximately $215,525 of the total amount payable for directors' fees was deferred, at the election of directors, under our Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors.

Deferred amounts are treated, at the election of the participating director, either as phantom stock or as a cash deferral. Phantom stock deferrals are treated as though the deferred amount is invested in our common stock at the fair market value on the date earned. Phantom stock earns the equivalent of dividends declared on our common stock, reinvested in shares of our common stock based on the fair market value on the payment date of each common stock dividend. The shares of our common stock reflected in a non-employee director's phantom stock account are issued to the director under our Long-Term Incentive Plan on the last day of the director's service as a director or a later date selected by the director. Cash deferrals earn interest at a rate equal to Moody's Corporate Bond Yield AAA Average on the first business day of the plan year, plus 100 basis points.

All directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board and committee meetings. We also provide business travel accident insurance for non-employee directors. The policy provides $100,000 of death or dismemberment coverage to directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2003, our Executive Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Ford, Mackie, and Parker, and Mmes. Moore, Newsom, and Williford. No member of the Committee was an officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiaries during 2003 and no member of the Committee was formerly an officer of the company or any of its subsidiaries. In addition, none of our executive officers have served as a member of a compensation committee or Board of Directors of any other entity an executive officer of which is currently serving as a member of our Board of Directors.

Other Governance Information

Executive Sessions of the Board. The non-management members of our Board of Directors meet from time to time in executive session without any members of management present. During 2003, the non-management members of our Board met in executive session during each of the eight regular meetings of the Board held during the year. We intend to continue this practice of regularly scheduled meetings of the non-management members of our Board, including an executive session at least once a year attended only by members of our Board who are independent under our director independence guidelines and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Our corporate governance guidelines provide that the chair of our Corporate Governance Committee, currently Douglas Ann Newsom, presides as the chair at executive session meetings of the non-management and independent members of our Board.

Communications with Directors. Our Board believes that it is management's role to speak for our company. Our Board also believes that any communications between members of the Board and interested parties, including shareholders, should be conducted with the knowledge of our company's Chief Executive Officer. Interested parties, including shareholders, may contact one or more members of our Board of Directors, including non-management directors and non-management directors as a group, by writing to the director or directors in care of our Corporate Secretary at our corporate headquarters. A communication received from an interested party or shareholder will be promptly forwarded to the director or directors to whom the communication is addressed. A copy of the communication will also be provided to our Chief Executive Officer. We will not, however, forward sales or marketing materials or correspondence not clearly identified as interested party or shareholder correspondence.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our certificate of incorporation divides our Board of Directors into three classes (A, B, and C). Each class is elected for a term of three years with the term of one class expiring at each annual meeting of our shareholders. Our by-laws provide that a director shall retire from the Board on such person's 73rd birthday. In accordance with our by-laws, J.D. Scott, who is a nominee for re-election to the Board in class A, will, if elected, retire from the Board on December 28, 2004, prior to the completion of his three-year term.

Our Board of Directors currently consists of eleven members. At the annual meeting, four directors will be elected to class A for a three-year term, and one director will be elected to class B for a one-year term. In January 2004, Julie H. Edwards was elected to our Board in class A and in February 2004, James C. Day was elected to our Board in class B. At the annual meeting, both Ms. Edwards and Mr. Day will stand for re-election to our Board in class A and class B, respectively.

The persons named in the accompanying proxy card intend to vote such proxy in favor of the election of the nominees named below, who are currently directors, unless authority to vote for the director is withheld on the proxy. Although the Board of Directors has no reason to believe that the nominees will be unable to serve as directors, if a nominee withdraws or otherwise becomes unavailable to serve, the persons named as proxies will vote for any substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors, unless contrary instructions are given on the proxy.

PROPOSAL 2 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

Appointment of KPMG LLP

Edgar Filing: ONEOK INC /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

Our Board of Directors has ratified the selection by our Audit Committee of KPMG LLP to serve as our independent auditor for 2004. KPMG LLP has unrestricted access to our Audit Committee to discuss audit findings and other financial matters.

Representatives of KPMG LLP will be present at the annual meeting to answer questions. They also will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting. Your Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the approval of KPMG LLP's appointment as independent auditor for 2004.

Audit and Non-Audit Fees

Audit services provided by KPMG LLP during the 2003 fiscal year included an audit of ONEOK's consolidated financial statements, audits of the financial statements of certain of our affiliates, and audits of employee benefit plan financial statements. In addition, KPMG LLP provided various audit related services to us during the 2003 fiscal year.

Table of Contents

The following table presents fees for audit services rendered by KPMG LLP for the audit of our annual financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, and fees paid for other services rendered by KPMG LLP during those periods.

	2002	2003
Audit fees (1)	$ 1,150,000	$ 1,200,000
Audit related fees (2)	345,800	419,489
Tax fees (3)		19,675
All other fees

Total	$ 1,495,800	$ 1,639,164

- (1) Audit fees consisted of audit work performed in the preparation of financial statements, as well as work generally only the independent auditor can reasonably be expected to provide, such as review of our interim unaudited financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- (2) Audit related fees consisted principally of audits of employee benefit plans and special procedures related to regulatory filings.
- (3) Tax fees consist of tax compliance, tax planning, or tax advice.

Audit Committee Policy on Services Provided by Independent Auditor

Consistent with Securities and Exchange Commission and New York Stock Exchange policies regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the Audit Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

Prior to engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, management will submit to the Audit Committee for approval an aggregate of services expected to be rendered during the following 12-month period for each of the following four categories of services:

- audit services comprised of audit work performed in the preparation of financial statements, as well as work that generally only the independent auditor can reasonably be expected to provide, including quarterly review of our unaudited financial statements, comfort letters, statutory audits, attest services and consultation regarding financial accounting and/or reporting standards;
- audit related services comprised of assurance and related services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor, including due diligence related to mergers and acquisitions and employee benefit plan audits;
- tax services comprised of tax compliance, tax planning, and tax advice; and all other permissible non-audit services, if any, that the audit committee believes are routine and recurring services that would not impair the independence of the auditor. No services that would be included in this category were provided to our company by KPMG LLP in 2002 or 2003.

To the extent it deems appropriate, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent auditor and management to report actual fees versus the budget periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the services and fees are pre-approved if the fee for such services does not exceed $75,000. If the fees for such services exceed $75,000, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent auditor.

Table of Contents

The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member to whom such authority is delegated must report, for informational purposes only, any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Section 16(a) Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors, executive officers, and beneficial owners of 10% or more of our common stock to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock. Based solely on a review of the copies of reports furnished to us and representations that no other reports were required, we believe that all of our directors, executive officers, and 10% or more shareholders during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, complied on a timely basis with all applicable filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, except as follows: (a) on May 20, 2003, Phyllis Worley, President of our Kansas Gas Service division, exercised options for 1,100 shares of our common stock. The Form 4 reporting this transaction was filed late; (b) in July 2003, Pattye L. Moore, a director, learned that without her prior knowledge, her financial planner had purchased 100 shares of our common stock in June 2003, for MPML, LLC, a company owned by Ms. Moore and her husband. Since Ms. Moore was unaware of this transaction when it took place, the Form 4 reporting this transaction was filed late; and (c) in December 2002, Mr. Samuel Combs III, President of our Oklahoma Natural Gas division, made a gift of 453 shares of our common stock. The Form 4 reporting this transaction was filed late.

- (2) This column shows the market value of restricted stock awards based on the average of the high and low trading prices of a share of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of grant. Restricted stock is granted under the ONEOK, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan. Each grant vests three years from the date of grant. Dividends are paid in respect of unvested shares of restricted stock and reinvested in additional shares of restricted stock at the average of the high and low trading prices of a share of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the date the dividend is paid. Restricted stock acquired as a result of the reinvestment of dividends vests at the same time as the restricted stock, with respect to which the dividend was paid, vests. The number of shares of restricted stock acquired by the named executive officers as a result of the reinvestment of dividends, based on the dividend amounts reinvested for that stock, during 2003, 2002, and 2001 is set forth below, but not reflected in the table above.

Termination Agreements

We have entered into termination agreements with each of our named executive officers. Each termination agreement has an initial one-year term from the date the agreement was entered into and is automatically extended in one-year increments after the expiration of the initial term unless we provide notice to the officer or the officer provides notice to us at least 90 days before January 1 preceding the initial or any subsequent termination date of the agreement that the party providing notice does not wish to extend the term. If a change in control of our company occurs, the term of each termination agreement will not expire for at least three years after the change in control.

Under the termination agreements, severance payments and benefits are payable if the officer's employment is terminated by us without just cause or by the officer for good reason at any time during the three years after a change in control or, in the case of Mr. Kyle, for any reason by Mr. Kyle within twelve months after the first year following a change in control. In general, severance payments and benefits include a lump sum payment in an amount equal to (1) three times the aggregate of the officer's annual salary as then in effect and the greater of the amount of the officer's bonus received in the prior year or the officer's target bonus for the then current period, plus (2) a prorated portion of the officer's targeted short-term incentive compensation. The officer would also be entitled to accelerated vesting of retirement and other benefits under our Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, and continuation of welfare benefits for 36 months. In the case of Mr. Kyle, we will make gross up payments to him to cover any excise taxes due if any portion of his severance payments constitutes excess parachute payments. For each of the other named executive officers, severance payments will be reduced if the net after-tax benefit to such named executive officer exceeds the net after-tax benefit if such reduction were not made. We will make gross up payments to such officers only if the severance payments, as reduced, are subsequently deemed to constitute excess parachute payments.

For the purposes of these agreements, a change in control generally means any of the following events:

an acquisition of our voting securities by any person that results in the person having beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the combined voting power of our outstanding voting securities, other than an acquisition directly from us;

the current members of our Board of Directors, and any new director approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of our Board of Directors, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of our Board of Directors, other than in connection with an actual or threatened proxy contest (collectively, the Incumbent Board);

a merger, consolidation or reorganization with us or in which we issue securities, unless (a) our shareholders immediately before the transaction do not, as a result of the transaction, own, directly or indirectly, at least 50% of the combined voting power of the voting securities of the company resulting from the transaction, (b) the members of our Incumbent Board after the execution of the transaction agreement do not constitute at least a majority of the members of the Board of the company resulting from the transaction, or (c) no person other than persons who, immediately before the transaction owned 30% or more of our outstanding voting securities, has beneficial ownership of 30% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the company resulting from the transaction; or our complete liquidation or dissolution or the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets.

Related Party Transactions

We are a party to a shared services agreement with Westar Industries, Inc. which provides for cooperation between the parties with respect to various services and shared facilities relating to the operations of our Kansas Gas Service Company division, such as billing, meter reading, and phone center coverage. During the year ended December 31, 2003, we made a net payment to Westar Industries, Inc. of approximately $5.1 million related to this agreement. At December 31, 2002, Westar Industries, Inc. and its parent company, Westar Energy, Inc., beneficially owned 4,714,434 shares of our common stock and 19,946,448 shares of our Series A Convertible stock which was convertible, subject to certain limitations, into 39,892,896 shares of our common stock representing, in the aggregate and assuming conversion of the Series A preferred stock into shares of our common stock, approximately 45% of our common stock. During the year ended December 31, 2003, Westar sold, in a series of transactions, all of the shares of our common and preferred stock held by Westar, and Westar no longer holds any shares of our common or preferred stock.

From time to time and in the normal course of business, we purchase natural gas liquids from and sell natural gas and natural gas liquids and provide natural gas transportation services to Frontier Oil Corporation and its subsidiaries in connection with Frontier's operation of its refinery in El Dorado, Kansas. Julie H. Edwards, Executive Vice President-Finance and Administration of Frontier Oil Corporation and its subsidiaries, is a member of our Board. Our transactions with Frontier are conducted on substantially the same terms as comparable third-party transactions. During 2003, we made purchases from and sales to Frontier and its subsidiaries of approximately $26.4 million and $178 million, respectively.

In the normal course of business, we purchase natural gas and natural gas liquids from Williford Energy Company and its affiliates. Mollie B. Williford, Chairman of the Board of the Williford Companies, which consists of numerous companies including Williford Energy Company, is a member of our Board. Table of ContentsLONG-TERM COMPENSATION PLANS*Pension Plan

Our retirement plan is a tax-qualified, defined-benefit pension plan under both the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. The following table sets forth the estimated annual retirement benefits payable to a non-bargaining unit plan participant based upon the final average pay formulas under our retirement plan for employees in the compensation and years-of-service classifications specified. The estimates assume that benefits are received in the form of a single life annuity.

Benefits under our retirement plan become vested and non-forfeitable after completion of five years of continuous employment. A vested participant receives the monthly retirement benefit at normal retirement age under the retirement plan, unless an early retirement benefit is elected under the plan, in which case the retirement benefit is actuarially reduced for early commencement. Benefits are calculated at retirement date based on a participant's credited service, limited to a maximum of 35 years, and final average earnings. Credited years of service under this plan for the named executive officers as of December 31, 2003, are as follows: D. L. Kyle, 30 years; J. C. Kneale, 23 years; J. W. Gibson, 4 years; C. R. Skoog, 9 years, and J. A. Gaberino, Jr. 6 years

For purposes of the table, the annual social security covered compensation benefit $43,968 was used in the excess benefit calculation. Benefits payable under our retirement plan are not offset by social security benefits.

Under the Internal Revenue Code, the annual compensation of each employee to be taken into account under our retirement plan for 2003 cannot exceed $200,000.

Amounts shown in the table are estimates only and are subject to adjustment based on rules and regulations applicable to the method of distribution and survivor benefit options selected by the retiree.

The compensation covered by the retirement plan benefit formula for non-bargaining unit employees is the base salary and bonus paid to an employee within the employee's final average earnings. Final average earnings means the employee's highest earnings during any sixty consecutive months during the last 120 months of employment. For any named executive officer who retires with vested benefits under the plan, the compensation shown as Salary and Bonus in the Summary Compensation Table could be considered covered compensation in determining benefits, except that the plan benefit formula takes into account only a fixed percentage of final average earnings which is uniformly applied to all employees. The amount of covered compensation that may be considered in calculating retirement benefits is also subject to limitations in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to the plan.

Table of ContentsSupplemental Executive Retirement Plan

We maintain a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP) for certain of our elected or appointed officers, and certain other employees in a select group of our management and highly compensated employees. Participants are selected by our Chief Executive Officer, or, in the case of our Chief Executive Officer, by the Board of Directors.

The following table sets forth the estimated benefits payable based on the covered participant's age at retirement. The estimates assume that a covered participant is fully vested. The amounts shown would be reduced for commencement of payments prior to age 60.

$500,000	$ 250,000	$ 280,000	$ 294,250	$ 308,500

Benefits payable to participating employees under the SERP are based upon a specified percentage (reduced for early retirement) of the highest 36 consecutive months' compensation of the employee's last 60 months of service. The SERP will, in any case, pay a benefit at least equal to the benefit which would be payable to the participant under our retirement plan if limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Code were not applicable, less the benefit payable under our retirement plan with such limitations. Benefits under the SERP are paid concurrently with the payment of benefits under our retirement plan or as the administrative committee may determine. SERP benefits are offset by benefits payable under our retirement plan, but are not offset by social security benefits. We fund this benefit through a trust arrangement commonly referred to as a Rabbi Trust. Our Board of Directors may amend or terminate the SERP at any time, provided that accrued benefits to current participants may not be reduced.

2004 REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee reviews the company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the company's system of internal controls.

In this context, the Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent auditor, KPMG LLP, regarding the fair and complete presentation of the company's financial results. The Committee has discussed significant accounting policies applied by the company in its financial statements, as well as alternative treatments. Management represented to the Committee that the company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditor. The Committee has also discussed with the company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed pursuant to SAS No. 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, Communication with Audit Committees).

Table of Contents

In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditor the auditor's independence from the company and its management, including the matters in the written disclosures from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services to the company by KPMG LLP is compatible with maintaining that firm's independence. The Committee has concluded that the independent auditor is independent from the company and its management.

The Committee discussed with the company's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, the evaluations of the company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors approved, the inclusion of the audited financial statements of the company as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003, in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee has selected and the Board of Directors has ratified, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of KPMG LLP as the company's independent auditor.

2004 REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Committee's Responsibilities

The Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors has the responsibility for reviewing, and recommending to the full Board of Directors, the company's executive compensation programs. The purpose of these programs is to: attract, retain, and appropriately reward executive officers; motivate their performance in the achievement of the company's business objectives; and align the interests of executive officers with the long-term interests of the company's shareholders.

The Committee is composed entirely of persons who qualify as independent directors under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The purpose of this report is to summarize the philosophical principles, specific program objectives, and other factors considered by the Committee in reaching its recommendations regarding the executive compensation of the executive officers of the company, including executives named in the compensation disclosure included in the company's annual proxy statement (the Named Executive Officers).

Compensation Philosophy

The company's executive compensation program is based on the belief that the interests of management should be closely aligned with those of the company's shareholders. The Committee has adopted a framework of principles for the executive compensation program intended to:

attract the best talent to the company;

encourage executives to manage from the perspective of owners with an equity stake in the company;

Table of Contents

motivate individuals to perform at their highest levels;

encourage strong financial and operational performance of the company and create shareholder value by maintaining a portion of executives' total compensation at risk;

reward outstanding achievement; and retain the leadership and skills necessary for building long-term shareholder value.

Compensation Methodology

The company strives to provide a comprehensive executive compensation program that is competitive and performance-based in order to attract and retain superior executive talent. Annually, the Committee reviews market data for two components of executive compensation: (1) annual cash compensation and (2) long-term incentive compensation. To assist in benchmarking the competitiveness of its compensation programs, the company participates in and uses third party executive compensation surveys. In addition, the Committee has engaged for the Committee's benefit the services of an executive compensation consultant associated with a prominent, internationally recognized management consulting firm which specializes in the area of executive compensation. The consultant attends the meetings of the Committee and regularly advises the Committee on executive compensation issues, regulatory developments, and trends.

Components of Compensation

Annual Cash Compensation. As in prior years, 2003 annual cash compensation for the Named Executive Officers, as well as the other executive officers, consists of two components: base salary and a variable, at-risk incentive award.

Annual base salary is designed to compensate executives for their level of responsibility, experience, sustained individual performance, and contribution to the company. The Committee recommends to the Board all salary increases for executive officers. The midpoint of each salary range is designed to approximate the 50th percentile of base salaries of comparable companies in the marketplace.

Annual incentive awards are made under the company's Annual Officer Incentive Plan (the "Officer Incentive Plan"). The purpose of the Officer Incentive Plan is to provide certain officers of the company with a direct financial interest in the performance and profitability of the company and to reward performance. The Officer Incentive Plan is administered by the Committee and the Committee recommends to the full Board of Directors, based on recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer, all awards under the Officer Incentive Plan.

The Officer Incentive Plan is designed to allow the company's officers the opportunity to earn compensation that is above average when compared to the company's peers if the company achieves outstanding results compared to those peers and to targeted objectives.

Edgar Filing: ONEOK INC /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

Incentive criteria are established by the Committee and include achievement of certain corporate and business unit performance goals, as well as individual performance criteria as benchmarks for incentive awards. Corporate performance criteria include earnings per share, and return on invested capital.

Individual performance criteria may include:

problem analysis;

directing;

utilization of human, capital, and material resources;

initiation of, and response to, change;

Table of Contents

planning and organizational ability;

decision-making;

time management;

communication and team relations; and personal actions.

The incentive awards earned by the company's executives for 2003 were based on the Committee's determination that the company's 2003 financial results had generally exceeded the corporate and business unit criteria established by the Committee and upon its judgment regarding each executive's individual performance for 2003. The bonus column of the Summary Compensation Table on page 22 contains the incentive awards earned by each of the Named Executive Officers for 2003.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The company maintains a Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTI Plan) to provide incentives to enable the company to attract, retain, and reward certain employees and to give these employees an incentive to enhance long-term shareholder value. Participation in the LTI Plan is limited to certain of the company's employees who are in a position to contribute significantly to the growth and profitability of the company, its divisions, and subsidiaries. The LTI Plan is administered by the Committee, and the Committee reviews and recommends to the full Board of Directors, after recommendation of the CEO, all long-term incentive awards. The Committee is authorized to make all decisions and interpretations required to administer the LTI Plan.

The LTI Plan authorizes the Committee to grant stock incentives to eligible employees in a variety of forms, including incentive stock options, non-statutory stock options, restricted stock awards, and performance share awards.

Stock options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the company's common stock on the date of grant. The options granted under the LTI Plan in 1995, 1996, 1997, and in January of 1998 are exercisable beginning one year from the date of grant. In 1998, the Committee modified the non-statutory stock option agreement to allow stock options to become exercisable beginning one year after the date of grant in four equal, annual installments. In 2003, the Committee modified the non-statutory stock option agreement to allow stock options to become exercisable beginning one year after the date of grant in three equal, annual installments, and the Committee removed the ability to reload the stock options. The LTI Plan does not allow for the re-pricing of stock options.

Restricted stock vests three years from the date of grant and accrues dividends which are also restricted until the vest date. If a participant retires or becomes deceased prior to vesting, the restricted stock, plus dividends accrued, vests based on the number of months from the date of grant until the participant's retirement or death.

Performance shares vest three years from the date of grant, at which time grantees become entitled to receive a percentage of the performance shares, ranging from 0 to 200%, based upon the company's ranking for total stockholder return compared to a specified peer group. If a participant retires or becomes deceased prior to vesting, the performance shares vest based on the number of months from the date of grant until the participant's retirement or death.

In determining the number of stock options, restricted stock and performance shares awarded to each executive officer in 2003, the Committee reviewed a survey detailing the 50th percentile of grant values of long-term incentives in the general industry, and it also considered the executive officer's past performance. The number of stock options and the value of the restricted stock granted to the Named Executive Officers in 2003 is shown under the Number of Options Awarded and Restricted Stock Awards columns of the Summary Compensation Table on page 22 and under Executive Compensation-Stock Option Grants beginning on page 24. The number of performance shares granted to each of the named Executive Officers in 2003 is shown under Performance Share Grants on page 26.

Share Ownership Guidelines

The company has adopted share ownership guidelines for the company's Chief Executive Officer and officers of the company who report directly to the Chief Executive Officer. The guidelines are voluntary and are meant to be achieved by each officer covered by the guidelines over the course of five years. The Committee strongly advocates executive share ownership as a means by which to better align executive interests with those of all shareholders. The ownership guideline for the Chief Executive Officer is a 150,000 share ownership position at the end of five years. The ownership guidelines for the other covered officers are share ownership positions ranging from 20,000 to 50,000 shares at the end of five years.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Committee meets annually to review the Board of Directors' evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's (CEO) performance. The Committee uses this performance evaluation, the compensation surveys previously mentioned, and third party surveys and reports on financial and stock performance of other companies engaged in businesses similar to the company in considering the CEO's compensation. When reviewing the surveys and financial data, the Committee also considers the CEO's service as Chairman of the Board. Categories in which performance is evaluated include: leadership, strategic planning, financial issues, management and operations, human resources, and communications.

Annual Cash Compensation. The Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved, a base salary for 2003 for Mr. Kyle as CEO in the amount of $700,000.

Annual incentive compensation for Mr. Kyle for 2003 was based on the Committee's determination that the company's 2003 financial results had generally exceeded the 2003 annual performance goals for the company set by the Committee, and on the Committee's judgment regarding Mr. Kyle's individual performance as reviewed by the Committee. Based on these criteria, Mr. Kyle was awarded a cash bonus of $836,000 representing 119% of his base compensation that is directly related to the company's performance during the 2003 fiscal year.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. On January 15, 2004, Mr. Kyle was granted 62,000 restricted stock incentive units under the LTI Plan that will vest in full on January 15, 2007, and 62,000 performance share units under the LTI Plan that will vest on January 15, 2007. The primary basis for the Committee's determination to grant these restricted stock incentive units and performance share units to Mr. Kyle was to provide a significant incentive for him to enhance long-term shareholder value.

Internal Revenue Service Limitations on Deductibility of Executive Compensation

In structuring the company's compensation plans, the Committee takes into consideration Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (which disallows the deduction of compensation in excess of $1,000,000 except for certain payments based upon performance goals) and other factors the Committee deems appropriate. As a result, some of the compensation under the company's compensation plans may not be deductible under Section 162(m).

APPENDIX A

ONEOK, INC.

DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE GUIDELINES

The following Director Independence Guidelines have been adopted by the Board of Directors of ONEOK, Inc. (sometimes referred to in these Guidelines together with its subsidiaries and affiliates as the Company) to assist the Board in the exercise of its responsibilities to ONEOK and its shareholders. The Guidelines should be interpreted in the context of all applicable laws and ONEOK's other corporate governance documents, and are intended to serve as a flexible framework within which the Board may conduct its business. The Guidelines are subject to modification from time to time, and the Board shall be able, in the exercise of its discretion, to deviate from the Guidelines from time to time, as the Board may deem appropriate and as required or permitted by applicable laws and regulations.

1. Effectiveness. The Guidelines will become effective on February 19, 2004.

3. Independence of at Least a Majority of the Board. The Board will at all times have at least a majority of directors who meet the criteria for independence required by the NYSE and the SEC.

When assessing the materiality of a director's relationship with the Company, the Board will consider the issue not merely from the standpoint of the director, but also from that of persons or entities with which the director has an affiliation.
5. Cooling-Off Period. A director will not be considered independent if, within the preceding three years:
 - (i) the director was employed by the Company (other than as an interim Chairman or CEO);
