TV AZTECA BOARD APPOINTS MARIO SAN ROMAN

AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mexico City, July 28, 2004 TV Azteca, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE:TZA; BMV:TVAZTCA), one of the two largest producers of Spanish-language television programming in the world, announced today that Mario San Román, former COO of TV Azteca, was appointed by the Board of Directors, effective July 14, as company CEO, succeeding Pedro Padilla who leaves that position to become CEO of Grupo Salinas.

Mario has unparalleled knowledge of efficient content production, superior programming and sales strategies, as well as strong managerial leadership to further enhance the company's strengths, said Ricardo B. Salinas, Chairman of the Board of TV Azteca. He is the natural choice to succeed Pedro Padilla, whose notable contributions to the strategy of TV Azteca will now be replicated to all of the Grupo Salinas companies.

Mr. San Román, 45, joined TV Azteca in 1998, as head of the Azteca 13 network. He was soon responsible for all of the company's distribution channels, before being appointed COO in October 2002. Under his direction, TV Azteca has developed programming aligned with the advertisers' target markets, superior-quality, cost-effective productions, and optimal sales options, which have resulted in improved overall profitability.

Mr. San Román is not only an expert in viewer tastes and content production, he also has a wide-ranging vision of the business that embraces the perspective of the broadcaster, the client and the ad agency. Additionally, as COO of the company, he has been instrumental in the decision making of the most important financial resolves. He was also appointed to the Board of Directors early this year, and will continue to head the company's Executive Committee, the body in charge of the day-to-day operations of TV Azteca.

I welcome the challenge to succeed Pedro Padilla, who has positioned this company as one of the most dynamic and profitable broadcasters worldwide, said Mr. San Román. I will work intensely to maximize value creation through consolidating TV Azteca as the best Spanish-language television company.

The company noted Mr. San Román's appointment is effective July 14, and that there will be a six-month transition period, ending on December 31, 2004, to ensure a comprehensive and orderly transfer of functions.

Prior to joining TV Azteca, Mr. San Román worked at the consumer products company BDF Mexico as marketing director in Mexico for personal care goods.

Mr. San Román holds a B.A. in communications and marketing from the Universidad Iberoamericana, one of the most prestigious universities in Mexico. He also conducted post-graduate marketing and management studies at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, the Instituto Panamericano de Alta Dirección de Empresa, and the Ashridge Business School in London.

Company Profile

TV Azteca is one of the two largest producers of Spanish language television programming in the world, operating two national television networks in Mexico, Azteca 13 and Azteca 7, through more than 300 owned and operated stations across the country. TV Azteca affiliates include Azteca America Network, a broadcast television network focused on the rapidly growing US Hispanic, and Todito.com, an Internet portal for North American Spanish speakers.
