TV AZTECA SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE CASH DISTRIBUTION OF US$130 MILLION FOR DECEMBER 14, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mexico City, November 24, 2004 TV Azteca, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: TZA; BMV: TVAZTCA; Latibex: XTZA), one of the two largest producers of Spanish language television programming in the world, held today a shareholders assembly at its corporate offices in Mexico City. In the meeting, shareholders approved a cash distribution of US$130 million to be made on December 14, 2004.

The distributions are part of TV Azteca's six-year plan for uses of cash, which entails making disbursements to shareholders above US$500 million and reducing the company's debt by approximately US$250 million within a six-year period that started in 2003.

The cash distributions made to date, when added to the upcoming disbursement of US$130 million, represent an aggregate amount of US$325 million, equivalent to a 17% yield on the November 23, 2004 ADR closing price. Prior distributions include: US$125 million on June 30, 2003, US$15 million on December 5, 2003, US$33 million on May 13, 2004, and US$22 million on November 11, 2004.

In the assembly, shareholders also authorized an increase of Ps.1,950 million in TV Azteca's repurchase fund to Ps.3,050 million, up from the prior amount of Ps.1,100 million.

On April 27, 2004, the board of directors approved an increase in the company's repurchase fund up to the maximum permitted by the Mexican securities law, following a recommendation from TV Azteca's investment committee.

Shareholders also approved the following measures for management oversight, which were agreed by the company's board on October 19, 2004.

The establishment of a new Audit Committee that will consist of three independent directors. The new Audit Committee will take over the current responsibilities of the Related Party Transactions Committee, which will be dissolved.

The implementation of an enhanced Ethics Program, and the appointment of a Chief Oversight Officer. The new Program will include the adoption of a rigorous Code of Business and Ethics and will apply to directors, officers and employees of TV Azteca.

The establishment of a Blue Ribbon Committee, consisting of two prominent members of the Mexican business community, to select prospective independent board members of TV Azteca.

The preparation and publication on the TV Azteca website of the company's management oversight guidelines.

The implementation of rigorous disclosure controls through a Disclosure Committee.

Shareholders also ratified the powers of attorney granted to Ricardo B. Salinas, Chairman of the Board of TV Azteca. Nevertheless, Mr. Salinas has committed to exercise his powers of attorney in material or related party transactions, consulting with the board of directors.

TV Azteca shareholders ratified the company's board members, and accepted the resignations of two directors presented to the company in May 2004. In addition, Mr. Othón Frías, prior alternate secretary of the board, was named secretary of TV Azteca's board of directors.

The shareholders assembly also received notice of the appointment, by the board of directors, of Salles, Sáinz-Grant Thornton, S.C., as the new independent auditing firm for TV Azteca, replacing PriceWaterhouseCoopers. The board believes that the change is consistent with recent developments in corporate governance that encourage rotation of independent auditing firms of public companies, and considered appropriate to replace its independent auditors after 11 years of continuous service.

The Board of Directors expects that the appointment of Salles, Sáinz-Grant Thornton, S.C. will result in a healthy change in the company's auditing practices. The company noted that Salles, Sáinz-Grant Thornton, S.C. is based in Mexico with more than 25 years of experience, and is registered with the U.S. Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

The company and its board of directors thank PriceWaterhouseCoopers for the professional work provided to TV Azteca over the past 11 years.
