Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware provides that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law also empowers IMCO to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of IMCO against liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not IMCO would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of Section 145. The IMCO Bylaws provide that upon resolution passed by the Board of Directors, IMCO may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of such persons.

IMCO's Certificate of Incorporation contains a provision eliminating the personal liability of its directors to IMCO or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of a director's fiduciary duty of care to the extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. However, a director shall continue to be held personally liable for (i) a breach of the duty of loyalty, (ii) failure to act in good faith, (iii) engaging in intentional misconduct or knowingly violating a law, (iv) paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase which was illegal under Delaware law, or (v) obtaining an improper personal benefit.

IMCO's Bylaws provide for the mandatory indemnification of directors, officers, employees or agents of IMCO. The Bylaws generally follow the language of Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. IMCO generally has the power to indemnify its current and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any suit to which they are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. With respect to suits by or in the right of the Company, indemnification is limited to expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or good suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed, to the best interests of the Company. However, indemnification is not available if such person is adjudged to be liable to IMCO unless the court determines that indemnification is appropriate. The Bylaws expressly provide that the indemnification or advancement of expenses provided therein is not exclusive of any rights granted under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Bylaws provide for the payment of reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any such action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding.

Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those clauses is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act, that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act

(and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
