Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On May 2, 2005, Christopher N. Burns, the Chief Accounting Officer of Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. (the Company) since 2003, resigned from his position with the Company to pursue other interests. On the same date, Andrew Fienberg, age 37, joined the Company as the new Chief Accounting Officer. From December 2003 to May 2005, Mr. Fienberg was a Divisional Controller for Pegasus Satellite Television, Inc., a re-seller of DirecTV services throughout rural America. From August 1999 to November 2003, Mr. Fienberg held managerial positions, including Corporate Controller, for iBasis, Inc., a publicly traded provider of international Voice-Over-Internet-Protocol (VoIP) telecommunications services. During his tenure with iBasis, Inc. the company grew its annual revenues from $19 million to $178 million and completed a successful initial public offering and follow-on offering of iBasis common stock. Prior to iBasis, Mr. Fienberg held a managerial position with Iron Mountain Incorporated, a provider of data storage services and spent a number of years as an auditor at BDO Seidman, LLP in Boston, Massachusetts. He has a B.S. in Accountancy from Bentley College and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Like the other officers of the Company, Mr. Fienberg is an at will employee and did not enter into an employment agreement with the Company.
