Table of ContentsGSI GROUP INC.NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS(Unaudited)*(U.S. GAAP and tabular amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars, except share amounts)*1. Basis of Presentation

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared by GSI Group Inc. in United States (U.S.) dollars and in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. for interim financial statements and the rules and regulations promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including the instructions to Form 10-Q and the provisions of Regulation S-X pertaining to interim financial statements. Accordingly, these interim consolidated financial statements do not include all information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. The consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments and accruals, consisting only of adjustments and accruals of a normal recurring nature, which management considers necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and results of operations for the periods presented. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of GSI Group Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (the Company). Intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. The consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the year or for any future periods. The amounts are stated in thousands of U.S. dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

Goodwill

The Company accounts for goodwill pursuant to SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, which requires that goodwill no longer be amortized, but instead be tested for impairment at least annually in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 142. During the second quarter of 2006, the Company completed its annual testing of goodwill. There were no indications of impairment; therefore no write-down of goodwill was necessary. The goodwill of $26.4 million is assigned to product lines within our Precision Technology Group.

The Company generally warrants its products for a period of up to 12 months for material and labor to repair and service the system. A provision for the estimated cost related to warranty is recorded at the time revenue is recognized. The estimate of costs to service the warranty obligations is based on historical experience and expectation of future conditions. To the extent the Company experiences increased warranty claims or increased costs associated with servicing those claims, revisions to the estimated warranty liability would be made.

3. New Accounting Pronouncements*Fair Value Measurements*

Edgar Filing: GSI GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

In September 2006, FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). SFAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 does not require any new fair value measurements, but provides guidance on how to measure fair value by providing a fair value hierarchy used to classify the source of the information. This statement is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2008. We are currently assessing the potential impact that the adoption of SFAS 157 will have on our financial statements.

Table of Contents4. Stockholders' Equity*Capital Stock

The authorized capital of the Company consists of an unlimited number of common shares without nominal or par value. During the three months ended March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006, 397,635 and 566,696 common shares, respectively, were issued pursuant to the exercise of stock options and warrants for proceeds of approximately $3.2 and $4.2 million.

In the first quarter of 2007, the Company repurchased and cancelled 50,000 shares of its common stock on the open market in accordance with its stock repurchase plan. These shares were purchased at an aggregate cost of approximately $0.5 million. As of March 30, 2007, approximately 1 million outstanding shares may be purchased in the open market and cancelled pursuant to this repurchase program.

5. Stock Based Compensation

Stock Based Compensation

The Company has one active stock-based compensation plan, the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan, under which stock-based grants may be issued, and many other stock option plans under which no new grants will be made. Although inactive, the stock option plans have outstanding grants issued prior to 2006. The 2006 Equity Incentive Plan provides for grants of various stock based awards including stock options, stock appreciation rights and restricted stock. Since 2006, the Company has issued restricted stock grants, under the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan, to senior executives and key employees.

Table of ContentsRestricted Stock

The Company recorded compensation expense related to its restricted stock awards totaling $0.3 million during the three months ended March 30, 2007, which has been recorded as an increase in additional paid-in capital on the Company's balance sheet. No compensation expense was recorded for restricted stock awards during the three months ended March 31, 2006 as no awards were made.

It is the Company's policy to issue new shares for equity awards. The Company recognizes compensation expense on fixed awards on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is generally from the approval of the awards through the end of the vesting period. The Company estimates the performance-shares expected to be earned based on the probability of meeting the performance criteria. Certain awards are probable and therefore an expense has been recorded while other awards are not probable and no expense has been recorded. The Company estimates the forfeiture rate periodically and adjusts for actual experience as necessary.

On March 10, 2007, 51,983 restricted shares granted to senior executives in 2006 vested. These grants consisted of both time-based and performance based shares. The performance based shares earned were determined by using the Company's 2006 financial results versus profitability targets. Both time-based and earned performance based shares vest annually over 3 years on March 10, 2007, March 10, 2008, and March 10, 2009.

On March 26, 2007 the Compensation Committee granted 693,450 restricted stock awards to senior executives and key employees of the Company. Of these restricted awards, 251,250 are time-based, and the remaining 442,200 are performance-based. Consistent with the Company's 2006 grants, performance based shares are earned based on achievement of 2007 profitability targets. These grants vest annually over 3 years on March 26, 2008, 2009 and 2010.

Restricted Stock activity for the three months ended March 30, 2007 is presented below.

	Shares	Weighted-Average Grant Date Fair Value
Nonvested Restricted Shares	(thousands)
Nonvested shares at December 31, 2006	606	$ 9.28
Granted	693	9.96
Vested	(52)	9.78
Forfeited	(52)	9.63
Nonvested shares at March 30, 2007	1,195	$ 9.64

As of March 30, 2007, there was $11.0 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested share-based compensation arrangements granted under the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average remaining period of 2.74 years. As of March 30, 2007, there remain 841,158 common shares available to issue pursuant to this plan.

Stock Option Plans

The Company has several stock option plans and a warrant plan with outstanding grants issued prior to 2006. In 2005, the vesting of all options was accelerated making all options in these plans fully vested. No new options will be granted under these old plans, as all future equity grants will proceed under the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan.

Stock option and warrant activity for the three months ended March 30, 2007 is presented below.

Table of Contents

	Number of Shares (thousands)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term in Years	Aggregate Intrinsic Value

Exercisable at March 30, 2007	1,894	$ 9.84	2.15	$ 1,625

The aggregate intrinsic value is calculated as the difference between the exercise price of the underlying options and warrants and the quoted price of our common shares for the 789,452 options and warrants that were in the money at March 30, 2007. The intrinsic value of exercised options and warrants for the three months ended March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006 was $0.2 and $3.0 million, respectively.

6. Related Party Transactions

Richard B. Black, a director of the Company, is also the President and Chief Executive Officer of ECRM, Inc. ECRM, Inc. purchased $0.3 million in equipment from the Precision Technology Group in the three months ended March 30, 2007 and $0.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2006 at amounts and terms equivalent to third-party transactions. Receivables from ECRM, Inc. of $0.3 million and $0.1 million at March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006, respectively, are included in accounts receivable on the balance sheet.

The Company recorded sales revenue from Sumitomo Heavy Industries Ltd., a significant shareholder of the Company, of $0.8 million and $0.9 million in the three months ended March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006, respectively, at amounts and terms approximately equivalent to third-party transactions. Receivables from Sumitomo Heavy Industries Ltd. of $0.3 million and $0.5 million as at March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006, respectively, are included in accounts receivable on the balance sheet. The Company purchases raw materials from Sumitomo at amounts and terms approximately equivalent to third-party transactions. The Company purchased $14 thousand and $12 thousand from Sumitomo in the three months ended March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006, respectively. Payables due to Sumitomo Heavy Industries Ltd. of $6 thousand and $33 thousand at March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006 are included in accounts payable on the balance sheet.

Through July 2006, the Company had an agreement with V2Air LLC relating to the use of V2Air LLC's aircraft for Company purposes. The Company's former President and Chief Executive Officer, Charles D. Winston owns V2Air LLC. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Company was required to reimburse V2Air LLC for certain expenses associated with the use of the aircraft for Company business travel. This agreement was terminated in July 2006 and the Company expects no further payments to be made under the agreement. During the three months ended March 31, 2006 the Company reimbursed V2Air LLC $55 thousand, under the terms of the agreement.

7. Financial InstrumentsLong-term Investments

Long term investments at March 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006 consists of a 25.1% equity investment in a private United Kingdom company, valued at approximately $0.7 million. The Company uses the equity method to record the results of this entity. For the three months ended March 30, 2007, the Company recognized as other income approximately $47 thousand in earnings related to this investment. The Company did not recognize any earnings related to this investment in 2006.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company uses currency forwards and swaps to manage exposures to changes in foreign currency exchange rates associated with forecasted sales transactions, primarily in Japanese Yen. The impact to earnings is recorded in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company records all outstanding derivatives as of quarter end at fair value as assets or liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet, with classification as current or long-term depending on the duration of the instrument.

Edgar Filing: GSI GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

The Company enters into foreign currency forward exchange contracts which are generally less than six months in duration to hedge a portion of its foreign currency risk on sales transactions. As of March 30, 2007, the Company held forward exchange contracts to sell Japanese Yen for the equivalent of USD $11.0 million and to sell British Pounds for the equivalent of $1.0 million. At March 30, 2007 the unrealized loss was $0.1 million. At March 31, 2006, the company had no forward exchange contracts.

8. Restructuring and OtherRestructuring Charges

In February 2007 the Company announced a plan to expand the Company's manufacturing operations in China and restructure its manufacturing operations in the United Kingdom. This move is part of the Company's overall plan to expand its presence in Asia and increase profitability. The Precision Technology Group will be moving additional laser and high speed air bearing spindle manufacturing from two UK facilities to the Company's Suzhou, China facility. The Company will reduce manufacturing capacity at its UK facilities, streamline operations and discontinue production of selected low volume legacy product lines after consultation with customers. The Company expects to complete the manufacturing transfer and related restructuring by the end of 2007. The Company expects to record restructuring charges during 2007 of between $6.5 and $7.0 million. The restructuring charges are projected to include approximately $2.4 million in termination benefits, $2.0 million in inventory write offs related to product consolidation activities, $1.4 million in capital asset write offs, $0.5 million in costs associated with the manufacturing transition to Suzhou and $0.4 million in impairment charges related to facility consolidations in accordance with FAS No. 146 Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities. For the three months ended March 30, 2007 the Company has incurred $2.4 million in restructuring costs of which; $1.4 million related to termination benefits, $0.9 million was for inventory write offs and $0.1 million was for manufacturing transition costs.

As a result of restructuring programs undertaken prior to 2006, the Company has $1.3 million of reserves for excess space in its Munich facility. In 2006 the Company entered into a sub-lease arrangement to have the Munich facility fully sub-leased by May 2007. The Company reviewed its Munich facility excess space restructuring accrual, which covers the anticipated future contractual lease payments (through January 2013) less the proceeds from the sub-lease, and no additional restructuring reserve was required for the period ended March 30, 2007.

The following table summarizes changes in the total restructuring reserve included in other accrued expenses on the balance sheet.

	Total (In millions)
Reserve at December 31, 2006	$ 1.3
Charges during the three months ended March 30, 2007	2.4
Cash payments during the three months ended March 30, 2007	(2.3)

9. Commitments and ContingenciesOperating leases

The Company leases certain equipment and facilities under operating lease agreements. Most of these lease agreements expire between 2007 and 2013. In the United Kingdom where longer leases are more common, the Company has land leases that extend through 2078. The facility leases require the Company to pay real estate taxes and other operating costs. The rent on certain leases is subject to escalation clauses in future years.

Legal Proceedings and Disputes

The Company's French subsidiary is subject to a claim by a customer that a Laserdyne 890 system, which was delivered in 1999, had unresolved technical problems that resulted in the customer's loss of revenue and profit, plus the costs to repair the machine. The customer withheld 0.3 million (or approximately US$0.4 million) of the purchase price for the system. During the second quarter of 2005, the Company's French subsidiary filed for bankruptcy protection, which was granted by the French courts on July 7, 2005. On January 25, 2006, the commercial court of Creusot set the amount of the customer's claim against the bankrupt French subsidiary at 598,079 (approximately US$712,203). As a result of the bankruptcy petition, any claims in excess of available assets in the bankruptcy estate would have to be brought against the French subsidiary's parent in the United Kingdom. At this time, the Company does not believe it will be required to make a payment regarding this action. Accordingly, nothing has been accrued in the financial statements.

Table of Contents

In March 2007, the Company and Lumenis settled the previously reported Spectron legal claims for a cash payment from Lumenis to the Company. A portion of the payment has been applied in full satisfaction of a receivable from Lumenis, and the remainder ($2.0 million) has been recorded as an offset to selling, general and administrative expenses as they represent a recovery of previous amounts expensed.

The Company is also subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. The Company does not believe that the outcome of these claims will have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial conditions or results of operations but there can be no assurance that any such claims, or any similar claims, would not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Guarantees

In the normal course of our operations, we execute agreements that provide for indemnification and/or guarantees to counterparties in transactions such as business dispositions, the sale of assets, sale of products and operating leases. Additionally, the by-laws of the Company require it to indemnify certain current or former directors, officers, and employees of the Company against expenses incurred by them in connection with each proceeding in which he or she is involved as a result of serving or having served in certain capacities. Indemnification is not available with respect to a proceeding as to which it has been adjudicated that the person did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that the action was in the best interests of the Company. These indemnities and guarantees are routine and customary in the industry.

Historically, we have not made any significant payments under such indemnifications. At March 30, 2007, nothing has been recorded in the financial statements with respect to these indemnification undertakings.

10. Income Taxes

At the end of each interim reporting period, the Company determines its estimated annual effective tax rate, which is revised, as required, at the end of each successive interim period based on facts known at that time. The estimated annual effective tax rate is applied to the year-to-date pre-tax income at the end of each interim period. The Company is anticipating a loss for the fiscal year in the United Kingdom. As a result, the Company is excluding the benefits from this loss from the overall computation of the annual effective tax and interim period tax rate. The tax effect of significant unusual items is reflected in the period in which they occur. The Company's reported effective tax rate of 35.0% for the three months ended March 30, 2007, differed from the expected Canadian federal statutory rate of 32.0%, primarily due to the mix of jurisdictions in which the Company earns its income and changes to the valuation allowance for deferred tax assets in Canada and the United Kingdom.

As part of the process of preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Company is required to estimate its income tax provision (benefit) in each of the jurisdictions in which it operates. This process involves estimating the current income tax provision (benefit) together with assessing the future effects of temporary differences resulting from differing treatment of items for tax and accounting purposes. The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities based on the differences between the financial statement carrying amount and the tax bases of assets and liabilities.

The Company records a valuation allowance if it is more likely than not that a portion of its deferred tax assets will not be realized. The Company has considered historical losses, future taxable income, and expected reversals of existing temporary differences in assessing the need for a valuation allowance. The Company has not recorded a provision for withholding tax on undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries, as the Company currently has no plans to repatriate those earnings. Determination of the amount of unrecognized deferred tax liabilities is not practicable because of the complexities associated with its hypothetical calculation.

The Company adopted the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, (FIN No. 48) on January 1, 2007. As a result of the implementation of FIN No. 48, the Company recognized a $0.1 million increase in the liability for unrecognized tax benefits. On the date of adoption of FASB Interpretation No. 48, the Company had total unrecognized tax benefits of approximately $2.4 million (including interest and penalties of $0.5 million) that, if recognized, would impact the Company's effective tax rate. Also, as a result of this adoption the Company has re-classified $1.4 million of tax liabilities to long-term.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense.

The Company expects to have a decrease of approximately $1.1 million of unrecognized tax benefits within the next twelve months related to the completion of its audit with the Internal Revenue Service. The Company is in the final stages of the appeals process and has reached a tentative settlement. The Company expects to have an ultimate settlement of this audit within the next twelve months.

Table of Contents

The Company operates and files income tax returns in numerous taxing jurisdictions. The Company's income tax returns could still be reviewed in the following countries and for the following periods under the appropriate statute of limitations; United States (1999-2006), Canada (2002-2006), United Kingdom (2004-2006), Germany (2004-2006), and Japan (2004-2006).

11. Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Company's subsidiary in the United Kingdom maintains a pension plan, known as the GSI Lumonics Ltd. United Kingdom Pension Scheme Retirement Savings Plan. The plan has two components: the Final Salary Plan, which is a defined benefit plan, and the Retirement Savings Plan, which is a defined contribution plan. Effective April 1997, membership to the Final Salary Plan was closed. Benefits under this plan were based on the employees' years of service and compensation. In December 2002, the Company notified plan participants that it no longer wanted to sponsor the Final Salary Plan. After a consultation period, the curtailment of the plan was effective June 1, 2003, after which no additional benefits accrue to the participants.

The Company continues to follow its policy to fund pensions and other benefits based on widely used actuarial methods as permitted by regulatory authorities. The funded amounts reflect actuarial assumptions regarding compensation, interest and other projections. The assets of this plan consist primarily of equity, real estate and fixed income securities of U.K. and foreign issuers.

Pension and other benefit costs reflected in the consolidated statements of operations are based on the projected benefit method of valuation. Within the consolidated balance sheet, pension plan benefit liabilities are included in accrued compensation and benefits.

The table below sets forth the estimated net periodic pension cost of the Final Salary Plan of GSI Lumonics Ltd. United Kingdom Pension Scheme Retirement Savings Plan.

The Company's subsidiary in Japan maintains a tax qualified pension plan. The plan, a quasi-defined benefit pension plan, covers substantially all regular employees, under which the Company deposits funds under various fiduciary-type arrangements and/or purchases annuities under group contracts. Benefits are based on years of service and the employee's compensation at retirement. For employees with less than twenty years of service to the Company, the benefit is paid out in a lump sum based on years of service and the employee's compensation at retirement. For employees with twenty or more years of service to the Company, the benefit is guaranteed for a certain number of years and is based on years of service and the employee's compensation at retirement. Participants may under certain circumstances, receive a benefit upon termination of employment.

The assumptions that are used to value the costs and obligations of the plan reflect the Japanese economic environment. The Company continues to fund the plan sufficiently to meet current benefits as well as to fund a certain portion of future benefits as permitted in accordance with regulatory authorities.

The table below sets forth the estimated net periodic pension cost of the tax qualified pension plan.

Table of Contents12. Segment Information*General Description

In the third quarter of 2006, the Company consolidated the Laser Group and Precision Motion Group into one segment, the Precision Technology Group. The consolidation of these two groups into one operating segment more accurately reflects the Company's business and markets served. Thus, the Company reports in two segments; Precision Technology Group and Semiconductor Systems Group. Prior year results have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation. This reclassification had no impact on the consolidated results of operations for the Company.

Segments

Information on reportable segments is as follows:

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2007	March 31, 2006
Sales:
Precision Technology Group	$ 43,625	$ 46,978
Semiconductor Systems Group	31,857	31,329
Intersegment sales elimination	(1,278)	(2,184)
Total	$ 74,204	$ 76,123

The Company's chief operating decision maker does not review asset information or operating income on a segmented basis; therefore a breakdown of assets and operating income by segment is not included.

Geographic Segment Information

The Company attributes revenues to geographic areas on the basis of the bill-to customer location. Not infrequently, equipment is sold to large international companies, which may be headquartered in Asia-Pacific for example, but the sales of our systems are billed and shipped to locations in the United States. In this example, these sales are reflected in North America totals in the table below. Long-lived assets, which include property, plant and equipment, intangibles and goodwill, but exclude other assets, long-term investments and deferred tax assets, are attributed to geographic areas in which the Company assets reside.

certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements include, but are not anticipated financial performance; drivers of revenue growth; management's plans and objectives for future operations and expenditures; business prospects; industry trends; market conditions; changes in accounting principles and changes in actual or assumed tax liabilities; our expectations regarding tax exposure; our anticipated capital requirements and working capital needs; our anticipated reinvestment of future earnings; our anticipated expenditures in regard to our benefit plans; and our anticipated use of currency hedges. These forward-looking statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to, our ability to maintain or accurately forecast revenue growth or to anticipate and accurately forecast a decline in revenue from any of our products or services; our ability to compete in an intensely competitive market; our ability to develop and introduce new products or enhancements on schedule and that respond to customer requirements and rapid technological change; new product introductions and enhancements by competitors; our ability to select and implement appropriate business models; plans and strategies and efforts to execute on them; our ability to identify, hire, train, motivate, and retain highly qualified management/other key personnel and our ability to manage changes and transitions in management/other key personnel, including the continuing transition to a new Chief Executive Officer, the impact of global economic conditions on our business; unauthorized use or misappropriation of our intellectual property; as well as the risk factors discussed previously and in other periodic reports filed with the SEC. Readers should not place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. We disclaim any obligation to publicly update or revise any such statement to reflect any change in our expectations or in events, conditions, or circumstances on which any such statements may be based, or that may affect the likelihood that actual results will differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements.

Overview

The Company develops and delivers enabling technology to our customers' advanced manufacturing and product applications. Our brands include precision technology products and semiconductor systems that are used to increase efficiency and productivity in the global semiconductor, electronics, industrial and medical markets.

Our Precision Technology Group contains diversified product lines ranging from high speed drills to highly precise linear and rotary encoders and lasers. Applications include formatting hard drives and drilling holes in printed circuit boards. Our laser products produce high quality repeatable cuts, welds, holes and specialist marks on customer's products.

Our Semiconductor Systems Group supplies leading edge equipment to the semiconductor industry. These include systems to scribe and test silicon wafers, repair semiconductor memory wafers, trim resistors and inspect solder parts and components on PCB's.

Highlights for the Three Months Ended March 30, 2007

Bookings of orders were $76.9 million in the first quarter of 2007 compared to $71.0 million in the first quarter of 2006. Ending backlog was $79.3 at the end of the first quarter for both 2007 and 2006.

Sales for the quarter decreased by $1.9 million to $74.2 million from $76.1 million in the first quarter of 2006.

Net income for the quarter was $3.2 million, or $0.08 per diluted share, compared to net income of $5.1 million, or $0.12 per diluted share, in the first quarter of 2006.

$2.4 million charge was booked as a result of China expansion and restructuring of the UK operations.

Cash and cash equivalents were $147.4 million at March 30, 2007.

Table of ContentsResults of Operations for the Three Months Ended March 30, 2007 Compared to Three Months Ended March 31, 2006

The following table sets forth items in the unaudited consolidated quarterly statement of operations as a percentage of sales for the periods indicated:

Intersegment sales elimination	(1,278)	(2,184)	906
Total	$ 74,204	$ 76,123	$ (1,919)

Sales. Sales for the three months ended March 30, 2007 decreased by $1.9 million or 2.5% compared to the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Sales in the Precision Technology Group decreased by $3.4 million, or 7.2% from $47.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2006 to $43.6 million for the three months ended March 30, 2007. The decrease is attributed to volume declines in the medical printer and high speed drill product lines, along with the transfer of a small amount of intersegment sales to the Semiconductor Systems Group.

Sales in the Semiconductor Systems Group increased by $0.5 million or 1.7% in the three months ended March 30, 2007 to $31.9 million from $31.3 million in the three months ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily due to higher equipment sales.

Edgar Filing: GSI GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Sales in our corporate segment represent elimination of sales between our segments and are shown in the table above as intersegment sales elimination.

Sales by Region. We distribute our systems and services via our global sales and service network and through third-party distributors and agents. Our sales territories are divided into the following regions: North America, Latin and South America, Europe, Japan; and Asia-Pacific. The following table shows sales in millions of dollars to each geographic region for the first quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Table of Contents

Backlog. We define backlog as unconditional purchase orders or other contractual agreements for products for which customers have requested delivery within the next twelve months. Order backlog was $79.3 million at March 30, 2007.

Gross Profit by Segment. The following table sets forth gross profit in thousands of dollars by our business segments for the first quarter of 2007 and 2006.

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2007	March 31, 2006
Gross profit:
Precision Technology Group	$ 15,654	$ 18,585
Semiconductor Systems Group	13,886	12,970
Intersegment sales elimination and other	(105)	98
Total	$ 29,435	$ 31,653
Gross profit %:
Precision Technology Group	35.9%	39.6%
Semiconductor Systems Group	43.6	41.4
Intersegment sales elimination and other	8.2	(4.5)
Total	39.7%	41.6%

Gross profit was 39.7% in the three months ended March 30, 2007 compared to 41.6% in the three months ended March 31, 2006. The Company's total gross profit is a result of the changes in gross profit at each segment level. Those changes are described below.

The gross profit for the Precision Technology Group decreased to 35.9% for the three months ended March 30, 2007, from 39.6% for the three months ended March 30, 2006. This decrease was primarily the result of lower sales volumes and product mix.

The gross profit for the Semiconductor Systems Group was 43.6% for the three months ended March 30, 2007 compared to 41.4% in the three months ended March 31, 2006. The increase in gross profit is primarily the result of product mix.

Research and Development and Engineering Expenses. Research and development and engineering expenses for the three months ended March 30, 2007 were 10.3% of sales, or $7.7 million, compared to 9.8% of sales, or $7.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2006. The Company continues to invest in new product development projects in the Precision Technology and Semiconductor Systems Groups.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses were $14.0 million or 18.9% of sales in the three months ended March 30, 2007, compared with $15.0 million or 19.7% in the three months ended March 31, 2006. In March 2007, the Company recorded $2.0 million of a litigation settlement for legal claims as an offset to expenses for the quarter. This settlement was partially offset with increased personnel costs, and other expenses compared with the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Amortization of Purchased Intangibles. Amortization of purchased intangibles was $1.7 million for the three months ended March 30, 2007, primarily as a result of amortizing intangible assets from acquisitions. This compares to $1.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Restructuring and Other. For the three months ended March 30, 2007 the Company reported $2.4 million in restructuring costs. In February 2007, the Company announced a plan to expand the Company's manufacturing operations in China and restructure its manufacturing operations in the United Kingdom. This move is part of the Company's overall plan to expand its presence in Asia and increase profitability. The Precision Technology Group will be moving additional laser and high speed air bearing spindle manufacturing from two UK facilities to the Company's Suzhou, China facility. The Company will reduce manufacturing capacity at its UK facilities, streamline operations and discontinue production of selected low volume legacy product lines after consultation with customers. The Company expects to complete the manufacturing transfer and related restructuring by the end of 2007. Other income from operations was $0.2 million compared to $0.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Income from Operations. Income from operations was $3.8 million in the three months ended March 30, 2007 compared to $7.5 million in the three months ended March 30, 2006. The $3.7 million decrease is essentially the result of lower revenues and restructuring costs offset with the settlement of a lawsuit.

Table of Contents

Total Interest and other Income (Expense). For the three months ended March 30, 2007 the Company reported $1.5 million compared to $0.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2006. The $0.7 million increase is attributable to higher total cash and cash equivalents along with higher interest rate yields for the three months ended March 30, 2007 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Foreign Exchange Transaction Losses. Foreign exchange transaction losses were approximately $0.4 million in the three months ended March 30, 2007 compared to $0.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2006. These amounts arise primarily from transactions denominated in currencies other than functional currency and unrealized gains (losses) on derivative contracts.

Income Taxes. The effective tax rate for three months ended March 30, 2007, was 35.0% compared with 32.2% for the three months ended March 31, 2006. The tax rate for three months ended March 30, 2007 reflects the Company's estimated annual effective tax rate and is driven by the jurisdictions where income is earned.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS No. 109) requires a valuation allowance be established when it is more likely than not that all or a portion of deferred tax assets will not be realized. When making this determination, a review of all available positive and negative evidence needs to be considered, including a company's performance, the market environment in which the company operates, length of carry-back and carry-forward periods, existing sales backlog, future taxable income projections and tax planning strategies. We have previously provided valuation allowances against losses in the parent company and subsidiaries with an inconsistent history of taxable income and loss due to the uncertainty of their realization. In addition, the Company has provided a valuation allowance on tax credits and net operating losses, due to the uncertainty of generating earned income to claim the tax credits or use the net operating losses.

In the event that actual results differ from our estimates of future taxable income, or we adjust these estimates in future periods, we may need to establish an additional valuation allowance, which could have a material impact on our financial position and results of operations.

The Company adopted the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for the Uncertainty in Income Taxes, (FIN 48) on January 1, 2007. As a result of the implementation of FASB Interpretation No. 48, the Company recognized a $0.1 million increase in the liability for the unrecognized tax benefits, which was accounted for as a reduction to the January 1, 2007, balance of retained earnings. On the date of adoption of FASB interpretation No. 48, the Company had total unrecognized tax benefits of approximately $2.4 million (including interest and penalties of $0.5 million) that, if recognized would impact the Company's effective tax rate.

Net Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, net income for the three months ended March 30, 2007 was $3.2 million, compared to $5.1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2006.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements are based on the selection and application of significant accounting policies, which require management to make significant estimates and assumptions. There is no change in our critical accounting policies included in Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of the Company's Form 10-K, as amended, for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $147.4 million at March 30, 2007 compared to $138.3 million at December 31, 2006. Long-term investments, at March 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, consist of a 25.1% equity investment in a private United Kingdom company which was valued at $0.7 million.

Cash Flows for Three Months Ended March 30, 2007 and March 31, 2006

Cash flows provided by operating activities for the three months ended March 30, 2007 were $8.0 million, compared to $3.3 million during the same period in 2006. Net income in the first quarter of 2007 was $3.2 million. Depreciation and amortization, unrealized loss on derivatives, stock-based compensation and deferred income taxes provided $4.5 million in the first quarter of 2007. Increases in accounts receivable, accounts payable, accruals and taxes receivable used $7.3 million, which was offset by a decrease in inventories and other current assets of $7.5 million. Net income in the first quarter of 2006 was $5.1 million. Loss on disposal of long lived asset, depreciation and amortization, unrealized gain on derivatives, stock-based compensation and deferred income taxes used $1.2 million in the first quarter of 2006. Increases in accounts receivable, other current assets, and increases in current liabilities provided $3.8 million in cash which was partially offset by decreases in inventories of $0.7 million in the first quarter of 2006.

Table of Contents

Cash flows used in investing activities were $1.8 million during the three months ended March 30, 2007, primarily from the purchases of property plant and equipment which used $1.8 million in cash. In the same period in 2006, cash flows provided from investing activities were $8.4 million primarily from the net sales of short-term and long-term investments of $4.3 million and the sale of the Michigan building provided $6.1 million in cash, which were offset primarily by purchases of property plant and equipment of $1.8 million.

Cash flows provided by financing activities were $2.8 million during the three months ended March 30, 2007. This compares with $5.2 million in cash provided by financing activities in the quarter ended March 31, 2006 from the issue of share capital from the exercise of stock options.

Other Liquidity Matters

There have been no significant changes in the Company's lines of credit, pensions, contractual obligations, acquisitions or off-balance sheet arrangements since December 31, 2006.

Our future liquidity and cash requirements will depend on numerous factors, including, but not limited to, the level of sales we will be able to achieve in the future, the amount of expenses incurred, the introduction of new products and potential acquisition of related businesses or technology. We believe that existing cash and investment balances, together with cash generated from operations, will be sufficient to satisfy anticipated cash needs to fund working capital and investments.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Interest Rate Risk. Our exposure to market risk associated with changes in interest rates relates primarily to our cash equivalents, short-term investments, long-term investments and debt obligations. At March 30, 2007, the Company had $147.4 million invested in cash equivalents. At December 31, 2006, the Company had $138.3 million invested in cash equivalents. Due to the average maturities and the nature of the cash portfolio at March 30, 2007, a one percent change in interest rates could have approximately a $1.5 million impact on our interest income on an annual basis. We do not use derivative financial instruments in our investment portfolio. We do not actively trade derivative financial instruments but may use them to manage interest rate positions associated with our debt instruments. We currently do not hold interest rate derivative contracts.

Foreign Currency Risk. The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts generally of less than one year duration to hedge a portion of its foreign currency risk on sales transactions. At March 30, 2007, the Company held derivative contracts to sell $1.0 million US dollars for British Pounds and to sell 1.3 billion Japanese Yen for US dollars.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company's management, under the supervision and with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has conducted an evaluation of effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures of the Company are effective as of the end of the period covered by this report. There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the quarter covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

See the description of legal proceedings in note 9 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Edgar Filing: GSI GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

There is no change in the risks included in Item 1A, Risk Factors, of the Company's Form 10-K, for the year ended December 31, 2006. We face a number of risks. The risks included in our Form 10-K, may not be all of the risks that we face. Other sections of this report include additional factors that could have an effect on our business and financial performance. The markets in which we compete are very competitive and change rapidly. Sometimes new risks emerge and management may not be able to predict all of them, or be able to predict how they may cause actual results to be different from those contained in any forward-looking statements. You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as a prediction of future results.
