Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On August 15, 2007, a non-executive employee exercised options to purchase 15,785 shares of our common stock. The aggregate amount paid for the shares was $1,262.80. The options were issued under the option plan of our non-public South Carolina predecessor corporation. The issuances were exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) pursuant to an exemption provided by Rule 701 under such act.

On August 30, 2007 and September 18, 2007, Barron Partners, LP (Barron) converted 20,000 and 65,000 shares, respectively, of our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock into a like number of shares of our common stock. The conversion transaction was effectuated pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 3(a)(9) of such act.

On September 28, 2007 and October 2, 2007, Barron exercised its Common Stock Purchase Warrant A-2 for 120,000 and 190,000 shares, respectively, of our common stock. The conversion price was $.70 per share. The aggregate proceeds to Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (the Company) were $84,000 for the September 28, 2007 exercise, and $133,000 for the October 2, 2007 exercise.

The warrant exercises were effectuated pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) of such act. Barron is a private investment partnership that specializes in investing in micro-cap public companies, and is an accredited investor. Barron acquired shares of our convertible preferred stock and the common stock warrants as part of a recapitalization of the Company in the first quarter of 2005. Pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement between the Company and Barron dated February 11, 2005 and subsequently amended, the Company is generally required to maintain an effective registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) until February 11, 2009, in order to permit Barron to resell the shares of common stock underlying the preferred stock and warrants. The Company s Form SB-2 registration statement was declared effective by the SEC on February 14, 2006 and Post-effective Amendment No. 4 thereto was again declared effective on May 14, 2007.
