I. Highlights of Consolidated Financial Results for the Six-Month Period Ended September 30, 2007

1. Summary of Financial Results for the Six-Month Period Ended September 30, 2007

(1) Operating environment

Global Economy

In the United States, despite the uncertainty added to the economy by the further decline in residential investment triggered by the recent disruptions to the sub-prime mortgage markets, consumer spending is holding up reasonably well and business spending and export are likely to improve.

In Asia, China continued to generate high levels of industrial and construction investment, with exports showing further growth. Economic growth in ASEAN economies also remained high. In Europe, solid economic performance was illustrated by higher exports in Germany and growth in housing investment in the United Kingdom and France, while the economies of Russia and countries in Central and Eastern Europe continued to show strength.

In this context of ongoing, broad-based expansion of the global economy, crude oil prices reached record highs, while prices for other internationally traded commodities, such as those for non-ferrous metals and grains, also remained at high levels.

The emergence in August of the sub-prime loan issue in the United States led to turmoil in the international financial markets and central banks of major countries took measures to increase liquidity in short-term money markets. In September, the Federal Reserve Board eased the federal fund rate for the first time in four years and three months. Financial markets have largely stabilized as a result of these measures, although regulatory bodies and private sector interests continue to monitor the impact of recent events on risk money flows and general economic activity.

Japanese Economy

In Japan, exports of goods continued to grow, driven by sales of motor vehicles, steel products and chemicals, with notable growth in transactions with Europe and the Middle East. As a result, industrial production remained at high levels and consumer spending supported by ongoing growth in employment continued to be strong. The Bank of Japan, having hiked the official interest rate in February 2007, did not implement any further increases in the period under review. In foreign exchange, the yen increased gradually against the dollar after summer, but declined to record lows in some cases against the Euro and other major currencies.

(2) Summary of Operating Results, Financial Condition and Cash Flow

Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (Mitsui) and its subsidiaries (collectively the Group) posted consolidated net income of ¥251.9 billion, a significant increase of ¥97.4 billion, or up 63.1 %, from ¥154.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. This significant increase is primarily attributable to substantial one-off gains on divestitures, mainly in mineral resources and energy businesses such as Sesa Goa Limited in India and Sakhalin II in Russia. Led by expanded energy equity production and firm mineral resource prices, the mineral resources and energy businesses drove consolidated earnings, and other businesses in global marketing fields such as steel products, chemicals and machinery (other than infrastructure projects) recorded firm operating results. Operating results in some part of businesses such as Americas and infrastructure project businesses for the first half declined.

Total assets as of September 30, 2007 were ¥10.0 trillion, an increase of ¥0.2 trillion from ¥9.8 trillion as of March 31, 2007. Investments and plant, property and equipment (PPE) increased slightly reflecting various new investments and expansion projects at Machinery & Infrastructure Projects, Mineral & Metal Resources, Energy and Iron & Steel Products segments while the investment balance into the Sakhalin II project decreased. As of September 30, 2007, shareholders equity was ¥2.4 trillion as a result of increased retained earnings and Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio (Net DER) was 1.23 times, 0.24 times lower than that of March 31, 2007. Reflecting significant gains from the above-mentioned large scale divestitures during the first half period, Return on Equity (ROE) on an annualized basis is computed as 22.4%.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥125.2 billion, reflecting steady operating income. Net cash provided by investing activities was ¥57.8 billion, reflecting large scale divestitures of interests in Sakhalin II, Sesa Goa, and other assets, an amount sufficient to cover the expenditures for the various above-mentioned investments during the period under review. As a result, free cash flow for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was a net inflow of ¥183.0 billion.

2. Results of Operations

(1) Analysis on consolidated income statements

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥479.3 billion, an increase of ¥71.4 billion, or 17.5%, from ¥407.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year as a result of the followings:

The increase at Energy Segment was major driver in the Group s increase in consolidated gross profit, with contributions coming from Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. (Japan) (MOECO ¹⁾ which was consolidated as a result of acquisition in the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007; and the commercial start up in July 2006 at the Enfield oil field in Australia. Moreover, iron ore mining and oil & gas producing operations recorded increases as illustrated by Mitsui Iron Ore Development Pty. Ltd. (Australia) reflecting iron ore price rise and Mitsui E&P Middle East B.V. (Netherlands) reflecting increased production^(*2).

Automotive and other machinery businesses; and basic materials such as steel products and chemical products continued to show good performance in general reflecting favorable business circumstances.

MBK Real Estate Ltd. (United States), which engages in development and sale of residential home in the West Coast market recorded, decreased sales margin and a ¥4.1 billion loss from write-down on inventories reflecting a decline in the residential market on emergence of the sub-prime loan issue in the United States.

(*1) In March 2007, Mitsui acquired 3% stake in MOECO, formerly an associated company, increasing its voting interest in MOECO to 50.3% and re-classifying MOECO as a subsidiary of Mitsui.

(*2) As a result of Mitsui s divestiture of Sesa Goa which had significantly contributed to consolidated gross profit, the operating results of Sesa Goa for the six month periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 are presented as income from discontinued operations (after income tax effect).

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 were ¥296.7 billion, an increase of ¥14.0 billion from ¥282.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. This was mainly attributable to acquisitions of subsidiaries at the segments of the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects, the Energy and the Americas.

Provision for Doubtful Receivables

Provision for doubtful receivables for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥2.3 billion, an increase of ¥0.7 billion, from ¥1.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Provisions for the both periods consisted of provisions for individually small receivables.

The interest expense for the Sakhalin II project declined by ¥4.0 billion as a result of the transfer of the Group's 50% stake in the project and subsequent decrease in related interest bearing debt. Mitsui recorded a ¥3.6 billion increase reflecting higher Japanese Yen interest rates. Overseas subsidiaries also reported increases by ¥5.0 billion in total due to increased interest bearing debt used to fund various investments.

The following table sets forth the periodic average of 3 month Libor of Japanese Yen and U.S. Dollar for the six month periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006.

Periodic average of 6 month Libor (%p.a.)

However, increased dividends from other investees including INPEX Holdings Inc. held by Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd outweighed the decreases from the LNG projects.

Gain on Sales of Securities

Gain on sales of securities for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥51.0 billion, a substantial increase of ¥24.5 billion from ¥26.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. (*) at the Foods & Retail Segment and Central Finance Co., Ltd. at the Logistics & Financial Markets Segment. Losses for the corresponding six month period of the previous year consisted of miscellaneous small losses.

(*) For the year ended March 31, 2006, Mitsui recorded a gain from the exchange of shares of Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd., for newly issued shares of Seven & i Holdings Co., Ltd. Gain on Disposal or Sales of Property and Equipment Net

Other Expense Net

Other expense net for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥1.6 billion gain, an improvement of ¥6.7 billion, from ¥5.1 billion expenses for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 were ¥20.7 billion, an increase of ¥18.9 billion from ¥1.8 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries increased due to the following factors:

As a result of acquisition of the additional voting shares in Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. (Japan) during the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007, Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. was consolidated with presenting minority interest and no longer accounted as an associated company; and Mitsui Norin Co., Ltd. (Japan) recorded a significant loss from continuing operations before minority interests and equity in earnings, reflecting impairment losses on long-lived assets and goodwill, contributing minority interest (in income) of ¥8.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. For the six month period ended September 30, 2007, its operating results recovered to a marginal amount of income from continuing operations before minority interests and equity in earnings, which caused a reversal effect from the above-mentioned minority interest (in income) for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Equity in Earnings of Associated Companies Net

Equity in earnings of associated companies net (after income tax effect) for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥72.3 billion, a decrease of ¥2.2 billion from ¥74.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major factors for the decrease were the followings:

IPM Eagle LLP (United Kingdom) recorded a mark-to-market evaluation loss on long-term swap agreement at its overseas power operation for the six month period ended September 30, 2007^(*1).

Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. (Japan) had reported earnings of an associated company up to the third quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007, however upon acquisition of the additional voting shares in the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007 by Mitsui, its operating results are now reported within line items of the consolidated statement of income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007.

Excluding the above-mentioned two factors, associated companies reported steady earnings in general. For example:

Earnings increased at Valepar S.A. (Brazil)^(*2) due to strong operating results of Companhia Vale do Rio Doce in Brazil (CVRD) reflecting higher iron prices and contributions from newly acquired Inco Limited (currently CVRD Inco Limited) following the acquisition by CVRD during the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007.

Japan Australia LNG (MIMI) Pty. Ltd. (Australia), an LNG and oil development associated company, reported improved earnings. Earnings also increased in general at non-mineral resources and energy related associated companies, including Brazilian gas distribution associated companies.

Income from Discontinued Operations Net

Income from discontinued operations net (after income tax effect) for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥60.5 billion, a significant increase of ¥53.6 billion from ¥6.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major components of discontinued operations for the six month periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 were as follows:

For the six month period ended September 30, 2007, the Group sold its entire stake in Sesa Goa Limited (India) and recorded a ¥55.2 billion gain in income; and Wandoo Petroleum Pty Limited (Australia) recorded ¥5.5 billion in income through its sales of whole oil and gas producing interests.

For the six month period ended September 30, 2006, Sesa Goa Limited reported ¥3.2 billion in net income; and Group recorded ¥3.1 billion gain in income on sale of a stake in aluminum smelters which Mitalco, Inc. (United States), an aluminum smelting subsidiary held.

Net Income

Consequently, net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥251.9 billion, an increase of ¥97.4 billion from ¥154.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

(2) Operating Results by Operating Segment

Iron & Steel Products Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended

September 30, 2007 was ¥31.7 billion, an increase of ¥3.9 billion from ¥27.8 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Demand for tubular products and high-end products such as steel plates and mainly for energy applications continued to be favorable even when certain steel products market were softening. Businesses focusing on such products continued to generate steady earnings. Furthermore, rising stainless steel products prices and strong performance at Regency Steel Asia Pte Ltd. (Singapore) contributed to the increase in earnings as well.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥14.3 billion, an increase of ¥2.0 billion from ¥12.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The increase in gross profit was partly offset by higher selling, general and administrative expenses.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥2.7 billion, an increase of ¥1.3 billion from ¥1.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥11.9 billion, a ¥2.5 billion increase from ¥9.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Mineral & Metal Resources Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥44.6 billion, a decrease of ¥7.7 billion from ¥52.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year as a result of the followings:

The divestiture in April 2007 of the Group's whole stake in Sesa Goa Limited, formerly the Group's iron ore subsidiary, which resulted in a decrease of this segment's gross profit by ¥10.1 billion(*), an amount Sesa Goa Limited had contributed for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Reflecting tight supply and demand balance in Asia, especially in China, iron ore prices for the year ending March 31, 2008 increased by 9.5% from the year ended March 31, 2007. Consequently, gross profit at Mitsui Iron Ore Development Pty. Ltd. (Australia) and Mitsui Itochu Iron Pty. Ltd. (Australia) increased by ¥4.6 billion and ¥1.5 billion, respectively.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥36.2 billion, a decrease of ¥6.0 billion from ¥42.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year, due to the above-mentioned decrease in gross profit. There was a marginal improvement in selling, general administrative expenses, reflecting the divestiture of Sesa Goa Limited.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥38.7 billion, an increase of ¥7.1 billion from ¥31.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major factors contributing to the increase were as follows:

Valepar S.A. (Brazil) posted an increase by ¥6.4 billion over the corresponding six month period of the previous year when it recorded a ¥5.6 billion one-time gain on issuance of stock by CVRD in exchange for Caemi Mineração e Metalurgia S.A stock. This is due to strong operating results of CVRD reflecting higher iron prices and contributions from newly acquired Inco Limited (currently CVRD Inco Limited) following the acquisition by CVRD during the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2007.

Despite firm copper market price, earnings of Compania Minera Dona Ines de Collahuasi SCM (Chile) decreased by ¥1.3 billion from the corresponding six month period of the previous year, due to reduced shipment of products caused by replacement work on property and equipment.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥118.2 billion, a significant increase of ¥58.0 billion from ¥60.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Besides the above-mentioned factors, there were significant movements in gains on sales of securities for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 as follows:

For the six month period ended September 30, 2007, this segment recorded a ¥93.9 billion gain on the sale of its whole stake in Sesa Goa Limited(*). In addition, it also recorded a ¥12.4 billion gain on the sale of shares in Empreendimentos Brasileiros de Mineração S.A.

For the corresponding six month period of the previous year, this segment recorded a ¥14.2 billion gain on the sale of shares in Toho Titanium Co., Ltd. (Japan).

() In the consolidated statements of income, net income of Sesa Goa for the six month periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 are presented as income from discontinued operations (after income tax effect). ()Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio

The Group refers to Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio (Net DER) in this flash report. Net DER is comprised of net interest bearing debt divided by shareholders' equity.

Net interest bearing debt is defined as adjusted interest bearing debt described as below less cash and cash equivalents and time deposits. The Group's interest bearing debt primarily consists of long term debt, less current maturities, which are not readily repayable. In order to flexibly meet capital requirements and to prepare for future debt-service requirements in case of unforeseen deteriorations in financial markets, currently the Group holds a relatively high level of cash and cash equivalents reflecting the current financial market conditions and future capital requirements.

Under this policy, Net DER is a useful internal measure for the Group's management to review the balance between:

the Group's capacity to meet debt repayments; and leverage to improve return on equity in the Group's capital structure.

To calculate the Group's adjusted interest bearing debt, the following are the eliminating factors:

capital lease obligations and others; and

SFAS No. 133 fair value adjustment.

The Group eliminates of SFAS No. 133 fair value adjustment because Japanese investors usually evaluate Net DER of other general trading companies in this manner.

This measure does not recognize the fact that cash and cash equivalents and time deposits may not be available completely for debt repayments, but cash and cash equivalents and time deposits may be required for operational needs including certain contractual obligations or capital expenditure.

Net interest bearing debt and Net DER are presented in the table below.

Looking ahead three to five years, risks in the operating environment include political, economic and environmental factors. Notwithstanding these risks, we believe that the currently favorable operating environment with simultaneous growth in different regions of the world, and strong upstream markets for mineral resources, energy and materials is likely to continue. Based on this assumption, we envisage achieving the parameters over the next three to five years as illustrated in the chart hereinbelow.

(2) Four key strategies of the Medium-term Management Outlook

(a) Development of Strategic Business Portfolio

i) Business strategy for achieving corporate vision three to five years ahead

We have developed key policies based on dividing up the Group's business into four areas, as outlined below.

Mineral Resources & Energy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Complete the development of large-scale projects such as Sakhalin II and the Enfield Oil Field. Expand existing projects such as the LNG project in Western Australia and iron ore and coal production in Australia (2) Ensure the liquidity of our equity production interests and carry out recycling (3) Invest selectively in emerging regions and new business domains
Global Marketing Networks (particularly steel products, machinery and chemical products)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Actively invest in our operating base with the objective of strengthening our various logistics and IT capabilities and focus allocation of human resources to growth fields (2) Strengthen partnerships with quality customers and evolve our SCM capabilities (3) Strengthen initiatives in growth region Asia and the automotive, IT and energy business fields

|-------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Consumer Services | (1) Pursue initiatives in media and information, healthcare and medical, and senior living industries |
| | (2) Develop new consumer-oriented businesses and strengthen related marketing and logistics business |
| Infrastructure | (1) Develop business portfolio positioning power generation, water supply, energy and transportation as strategic industrial fields |
| | (2) Pursue synergies with other business areas |

ii) Developing business portfolio for achieving corporate vision; Focused allocation of management resources (financial and human)

Under the coordination of the Portfolio Management Committee that we established in April 2006, we will continue to refine our investment evaluation criteria, and seek to recycle existing investments, by reviewing their viability and taking into account the need to generate cash flow for new investments. Furthermore, accompanying a review of our business portfolio, we will allocate and shift human resources from a group-wide perspective in a more dynamic fashion.

Through this company-wide portfolio strategy, we expect to make new investments totaling ¥800 billion in the first two years of the Medium-term Management Outlook, and divest assets totaling ¥100-200 billion.

(b) Evolution of business models leveraging business engineering capabilities

We will focus on consumer-oriented services in Japan that show high potential for growth. We will pursue business development in new fields, such as the development of environment businesses such as emission rights trading, recycling, and new energy businesses such as biomass ethanol. We will seek to leverage across the Group our strengths in logistics, finance and IT, and actively promote joint operations among business units.

(c) Implementation of global strategies

We will strengthen our strategy for the Asian market. We will also develop a broad, cross-border product strategy based on the regional headquarters we have created for the Americas, Europe and Asia. We will employ and foster the development of a diverse group of personnel at overseas trading and other subsidiaries and associated companies around the world.

(d) Reinforcing the management framework to support growth

Under our revised corporate staff organization we are pursuing an efficient risk management approach. We are strengthening our corporate governance system and internal controls framework, such as by increasing external directors and external corporate auditors, and working to ensure compliance with Section 404 of the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX-404).

We are developing as a business that meets the needs of customers and society, while engaging in CSR-oriented management worthy of Mitsui, such as through engaging in environmental issues and contributing to society.

2) Progress on Medium-Term Management Outlook

(1) Progress on key initiatives

(a) Development of Strategic Business Portfolio

i) Progress on investment plans and key policies in each business area

During the year ended March 31, 2007, we executed large scale investments of approximately ¥460 billion under the total investment outlook of ¥800 billion over the two years ending March 31, 2008. For the year ending March 31, 2008, Mitsui introduced a new monitoring system linked more closely to consolidated cash flow statements to incorporate not only the large-scale investments but also small- to middle-sized investments, loans and leases.

With this new monitoring method, we set up a new outlook for our investments and loans to be ¥800 billion for the single year ending March 31, 2008. In the six-month period ended September 30, 2007, we executed new investments and loans of approximately ¥460 billion; concurrently, we have been focusing on divestitures of outstanding investments and fixed assets and collected approximately ¥520 billion.

We made progress in each of the four business areas presented in our Medium-term Management Outlook as follows:

In the Mineral Resources & Energy business area, we continuously focused on large-scale projects already under development as well as expansion of existing projects. We made an additional investment in the Enfield oil field in Australia after the start of production in July 2006 in order to cope with water breakthrough which occurred during 2006 and boost output capacity. The work-over program has been proceeding on track. Our total investment in the Sakhalin II project as of the end of September 2007 was approximately ¥230 billion, as a result of the share dilution and the expenditure for development of the project. Initiatives also include the May 2007 start of production from the Equatorial Guinea LNG project and the July 2007 start of production from the Tui oil field in New Zealand. In mineral resources, we invested a total of ¥29.0 billion in Australian iron ore and coal mining business, as part of our plan to increase production capacity.

In the scrap metal business, we acquired shares with voting rights of 19.9% in the Australian company Sims Group for ¥61.2 billion in June 2007. In addition, we acquired shares with voting rights of 25% in the Inner Mongolia Erdos Electric Power & Metallurgy Co., Ltd., a conglomerate in Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region of China engaged in power generation, coal mining and ferrous alloy production, for ¥16.4 billion in April 2007.

In the Mineral Resources & Energy business area, through the divestiture of existing investments, we generated cash inflows totaling approximately ¥400 billion during the first half period. In April 2007, Mitsui sold its entire stake in Sesa Goa Ltd. (India) for US$981 million, after deliberate consideration on the Group's worldwide iron ore business portfolio. Regarding the Sakhalin II project, we transferred 50% of our stake to OAO Gazprom for US$1,862.5 million with our share diluted from 25% to 12.5%. We also agreed on the Area of Mutual Interest arrangement with Gazprom whereby the prospects for expansion of Sakhalin II through further LNG processing trains are enhanced. Furthermore, initiatives include the May 2007 sale of our entire stake in Empreendimentos Brasileiros de Mineracao (EBM), a Brazilian iron ore mining company, and the June 2007 divestment of the entire upstream oil and gas portfolio by our Australian subsidiary, Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd.

In the Global Marketing Networks business area, incorporating businesses such as metal products, automobiles and chemicals, we took further steps to strengthen our multi-functional global operating network in raw materials procurement and product sales, acquiring key businesses and reinforcing strategic alliance with major partners to support our goal of creating new value. In June 2007, we acquired a major U.S. steel processing service center, Steel Technologies, Inc., for ¥45.0 billion. In the automobile and chemical businesses, we acquired shares in Yamaha Motor Co., Ltd. and Mitsui Chemicals, Inc., respectively, aiming to enhance business relationships. The business units in this field are accelerating to reorganize their business structure to better serve their customers. In the steel business, in April 2007, we consolidated our three steel products wholesale distribution subsidiaries setting up a new subsidiary, Mitsui Bussan Kozai Hanbai Co., Ltd. We are also consolidating four existing steel products subsidiaries to establish a new subsidiary, Mitsui & Co. Steel Ltd. in April 2008.

In the Consumer Services business area, we are continuing to build our operations in promising new business domains. In May 2007, we acquired new shares and convertible bonds issued by Central Finance Co., Ltd. for ¥19.4 billion. We will seek to create new business opportunities by combining products and services, know-how and network of both companies. In the foods and retail field, we have been taking measures to improve the performance of MITSUI FOODS CO., LTD. under a comprehensive operational alliance with KOKUBU & CO., LTD. At the same time we are making investments to secure a stable supply of overseas food sources.

In the Infrastructure business area, our efforts were directed at selectively investing in superior project opportunities while seeking to develop synergies with other sectors. In overseas power generation business, we further strengthened our strategic alliance with International Power plc during the year, and in June 2007, consolidated power generating assets in the U.K., resulting in an increase of our generating capacity by approximately 260MW on an equity basis for ¥22.2 billion.

ii) Continuous review of our business portfolio based on Mitsui's business strategy

Twice a year, Mitsui's management examines each business units' development of portfolio strategy including asset recycling, referring to key performance indicators on subsidiaries and associated companies; and other investments as well according to Mitsui's guideline for investment in and withdrawal from business operations. The Portfolio Management Committee has developed and maintained the relevant data and guidelines. Especially in the year under review, the major emphasis has been put on the companywide re-allocation of human resources in line with newly developed and invested operations and reorganizations of existing operations.

(b) Evolution of our new business models leveraging business engineering capabilities

In the biomass and energy-related field, we are researching opportunities to commercialize the production and sale of bioethanol in collaboration with Petrobras of Brazil. We are also coordinating cross-divisional efforts with regard to possibilities in areas such as the distribution and trading of biodiesel and bioethanol in Europe as well as investment in manufacturing operations in the United States. Further, based on the report of the Business Operating Area Strategic Committees established in December 2006, we decided to set up special departments for medical & healthcare and automobiles business and have engaged in an initiative to increase our operating capabilities and identify areas for strategic growth through joint activities across multiple business units.

(c) Implementation of global strategy

We refined the Regional Business Unit system in April 2007 by expanding Europe to include the Middle East and Africa, while expanding Asia to include Oceania. We also adopted systems in each regional headquarters to foster talented employees and increase the diversity of our human resources. We will continue to pursue a unified HR policy that encompasses our consolidated group activities worldwide.

(2) Progress toward quantitative targets(a) Forecast of annual net income for the year ending March 31, 2008

Consolidated net income for the six-month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥251.9 billion. See I. Highlights of Consolidated Financial Results for the six-month period ended September 30, 2007 for detailed information by operating segment. For the year ending March 31, 2008, we are revising our outlook of consolidated net income to ¥420.0 billion. Major components of our outlook are set forth below.

Assumed foreign exchange rate for the six-month period ending March 31, 2008 is ¥110/US$, while average foreign exchange rate for the six-month period ended September 30, 2007 was ¥119.20/US$.

We project gross profit and equity in earnings of ¥970 billion and ¥150 billion, respectively, reflecting the favorable business environment, especially in the Mineral Resources & Energy area. Interest expense(net) is expected to be ¥50 billion, considering trends of rising yen interest rates and interest for funding of investments including Sakhalin II. We anticipate a combined sum of ¥45 billion in gains from the sales of securities; property, plants and equipment; and other assets, which is smaller than the original forecast at the beginning of the year under review because gains from the sales of our entire stake in Sesa Goa Limited and oil and gas upstream assets of Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd. are now classified as income from discontinued operations. Instead, forecasted income from discontinued operations is ¥60 billion.

Revised forecast on annual operating results by operating segment compared to the original forecast is described as below:

The projected net income of the Mineral & Metal Resources Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 is ¥161 billion, an increase of ¥26 billion from the original forecast. The upward revision reflects higher copper and nickel prices, the yen depreciation against the Australian Dollar and Brazilian Real, and the sale of shares in EBM.

The projected net income of the Energy Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 is ¥120 billion, an increase of ¥32 billion from the original forecast, mainly attributable to higher oil prices. We expect annual average crude oil price to be US$67/barrel (US$70/barrel for the second half period ending March 31, 2008), US$9/barrel higher than the original annual forecast.

The projected net income of the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 is ¥44 billion, an increase of ¥2 billion from the original forecast, on the assumption that mark-to-market evaluation loss on long-term swap agreement at the Australian power producing operation which we posted in the first half period will considerably diminish in the second half period ending March 31, 2008. Similarly, the projected net income of the Iron & Steel Products Segment and the Chemical Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 are ¥20 billion (¥2 billion increase) and ¥22 billion (¥1 billion increase), respectively, supported by favorable market conditions.

The projected net income of the Foods & Retail Segment, the Consumer Service & IT Segment, and the Logistics & Financial Markets Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 are ¥11 billion (same as the original forecast), ¥14 billion (¥4 billion decrease), and ¥7 billion (¥5 billion decrease), respectively. Overall, domestic consumer products markets remain sluggish. Furthermore, these segments recognized certain losses on write-down of securities in the six-month period ended September 30, 2007.

The projected net income of the Americas Segment for the year ending March 31, 2008 is ¥11 billion, a decrease of ¥6 billion from the original forecast. This segment recorded loss on write-down of inventories at MBK Real Estate, reflecting decline in the housing market, and in addition, demand in steel products for automobile and oil well tubular is anticipated to be weakening. The table set forth below shows the assumption on the key commodity prices and other parameters for the projected net income for the year ending March 31, 2008. Impacts of the price movements for each commodity on annual net income are included in the table.

2. Dividend policy

In order to maximize shareholder value we seek to maintain an optimal balance between (1) achieving sustainable growth through strategic investments in areas of our core strength and growth and (2) paying out cash dividends as direct compensation to shareholders. Specifically, we have set the target dividend payout ratio of 20% of consolidated net income, and through improving the performance of the company aim to steadily increase dividends from their current levels.

For the six-month period September 30, 2007, we will pay an interim dividend of ¥23, ¥6 per share higher than the corresponding six-month period of the previous year. For the year ending March 31, 2008, we plan to pay an annual dividend of ¥46 (including the interim dividend), ¥12 per share higher than the year ended March 31, 2007, on the assumption that our annual net income will be ¥420.0 billion.
