On August 21, 2009, NCI Building Systems, Inc. (NCI or the Company) entered into an agreement (the Second Extension Waiver) with Wachovia Bank National Association, as administrative agent of the lenders named in the Company s Credit Agreement, dated June 18, 2004 (the Credit Agreement), pursuant to which the Company s existing Consent and Waiver Agreement, dated May 20, 2009, as extended by that Waiver Extension, dated July 15, 2009 (the First Waiver Extension), was extended again to remain in effect through November 6, 2009. The Consent and Waiver is described in the Company s current report on Form 8-K filed on May 21, 2009, and the First Waiver Extension is described in the Company s current report on Form 8-K filed on July 15, 2009.

Pursuant to the Second Extension Waiver, NCI s lenders agreed to waive, through November 6, 2009, (1) NCI s financial maintenance covenants, and (2) any default or event of default resulting from (a) the Company s execution of the Investment Agreement, dated August 14, 2009, by and between the Company and Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VIII, L.P. (the Investment Agreement), and/or (b) the launching of the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock. In addition, the Second Waiver Extension provides that the terms in the First Waiver Extension pursuant to which NCI has agreed to pay (1) an additional two percent (2%) interest annually for any principal amounts due under the Credit Agreement, and (2) the Alternate Base Rate (as defined in the Credit Agreement) plus the sum of the Applicable Percentage (as defined in the Credit Agreement) then in effect for Alternate Base Rate Loans (as defined in the Credit Agreement) and two percent (2%) for any interest, fees or other amounts due under the Credit Agreement will remain in effect. This description of the Second Waiver Extension is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Second Waiver Extension attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 27, 2009, the Company issued a press release relating to the entry into the Second Waiver Extension. In the press release, the Company also disclosed that it is in negotiations with Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VIII, L.P. (the CD&R Fund) and certain holders of its existing convertible notes regarding potential amendments to the terms of the exchange offer contemplated by the Investment Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K (including the exhibits and attachments hereto and thereto) contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and Section 27A of the Securities Act. These statements and other statements identified by words such as guidance, potential, expect, should and similar expressions are forward looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause NCI's actual performance to differ materially from that projected in such statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Investment Agreement; the inability to complete the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement due to failure to satisfy conditions to such transactions (including with respect to the refinancing of the senior credit facility and the convertible notes); the failure of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement to close for any reason; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company and others following the announcement of the Investment Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, including the convertible notes exchange offer; risks that the proposed transactions disrupt current plans and operations and the potential difficulties in employee retention; industry cyclicality and seasonality and adverse weather conditions; ability to service the Company's debt; fluctuations in customer demand and other patterns; raw material pricing and supply; competitive activity and pricing pressure; general economic conditions affecting the construction industry; the current financial crisis and U.S. recession; changes in laws or regulations; the volatility of the Company's stock price; the potential dilution associated with the convertible notes exchange offer; the Company's ability to comply with the financial tests and covenants in its existing and future debt obligations; the significant demands on the Company's liquidity while current economic and credit conditions are severely affecting its operations; and the uncertainty surrounding the transactions described herein, including the Company's ability to retain employees, customers and vendors. Item 1A Risk Factors in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 2, 2008 identifies other important factors, though not necessarily all such factors, that could cause future outcomes to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. NCI expressly disclaims any obligation to release publicly any updates or revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in its expectations.
