Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 3, 2010, Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. (HPS), Heartland Bank (Heartland Bank), KeyBank National Association (Key Bank, and, together with Heartland Bank, the Sponsor Banks), and Visa U.S.A. Inc., Visa International Service Association and Visa Inc. (collectively, Visa) entered into an amendment (the Amendment) to that certain settlement agreement entered into among the parties on January 7, 2010 (the Settlement Agreement).

The Amendment modifies certain provisions of the Settlement Agreement. Under the terms of the Amendment, renewed recovery offers (the Renewed Settlement Offers) will be made to those certain Visa issuers (the remaining eligible Visa issuers) who issued payment card accounts that were the subject of the alerts that Visa distributed to its issuers in connection with the previously announced criminal breach of HPS 's payment systems environment (the Processing System Intrusion) and who did not accept the original recovery offers they received under the Settlement Agreement (the Original Settlement Offers). The Renewed Settlement Offers will be made to the remaining eligible Visa issuers on February 4, 2010 and must be accepted on or before 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on February 8, 2010. Each Renewed Settlement Offer will make available to the remaining eligible Visa issuer in question a recovery payment in substitution for whatever recovery the issuer might be entitled to pursuant to the Visa operating regulations or otherwise of costs and losses allegedly incurred by the issuer by reason of the Processing System Intrusion.

Visa has advised HPS that eligible Visa issuers representing more than 97% of the U.S. alerted-on accounts of all the eligible Visa issuers accepted the Original Settlement Offers. In the Amendment, Visa has represented that the opt-in condition contained in the Settlement Agreement has been satisfied.

As set forth in the description of the Settlement Agreement included on Form 8-K, filed by HPS with the SEC on January 8, 2010, the consummation of the settlement is also subject to certain other conditions, including the condition that Visa 's ruling on the Sponsor Banks appeals from Visa 's preliminary determination of the amount of the Sponsor Banks liability under Visa 's rules by reason of the Processing System Intrusion must, among other things, result in eligible Visa issuers who do not accept either their Original Settlement Offer or their Renewed Settlement Offer being awarded and paid no more than a specified amount under those rules. A further condition to the consummation of the settlement is that HPS obtain a loan of at least $53,000,000, the proceeds of which will be used by HPS to fund the amounts payable pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

The description of the Amendment set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual terms of the Amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the press release issued by HPS and Visa relating to the Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
