Convergys Corporation

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

At the Convergys Corporation (the Company) 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on April 20, 2010, Proposals 1, 2, and 3 were approved. The proposals below are described in detail in the Company's definitive proxy statement dated March 11, 2010 for the Annual Meeting. In order to carry on the business of the Annual Meeting, there must be a quorum. This means that at least a majority of the outstanding shares eligible to vote must be represented at the meeting, either by proxy or in person. For Proposal 1, only FOR and WITHHOLD votes were counted for purposes of determining the votes received in connection with this proposal, therefore, broker non-votes had no effect on the proposal. For Proposal 2, only FOR and AGAINST were counted for purposes of determining the votes received, and therefore abstentions had no effect on the proposal. For Proposal 3, the proposal must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the holders of the shares outstanding of the Company, and also by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of disinterested shares voting on the proposal. Disinterested shares means voting shares beneficially owned by any person not an interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate of an interested shareholder. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the same effect as votes against this proposal for determining whether the required voting power of the Company has approved the proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, however, are not voted and therefore are not considered in determining whether a majority of disinterested shares voting on the proposal has approved the amendment to the proposal.

The results are as follows:

Proposal 1

The individuals listed below received the highest number of affirmative votes of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock present or represented by proxy and voting at the Annual Meeting, in each case constituting a majority of the total outstanding shares, and were elected at the Annual Meeting to serve a three year term on the Board.
